Ashland — Cellarite Ashland, far out of titular running in American Legion junior baseball's Area 4 Southern division, played the thwarter role here yesterday by upsetting Medford 2 to 1.

The Lithians triumph knocked the Medfords 1 1/2 games back of the loop piling Klamath Falls Falcons in the Pear city club's quest for the division mantle. It was Ashland's third win of the season — its second in league play.

Medford had gone into the week end sharing the lead with the Klamath team. The Falcons took command by whipping Grants Pass 6 to 1 on Saturday and Tri-City 6 to 0 on Sunday.

Information on this side of the Cascades had indicated Medford the leader going into the week end action. But, it was learned today that the Falcons had played and beaten the Klamath Hawks ahead of the date shown on the original schedule. The published schedule listed the game for this Wednesday.

Barger Pitches Two-Hitter
A base on balls and two Medford misplays in the sixth inning yesterday enabled the Lithians to score what proved to be the winning marker. Two hits and a wild pitch in the opening chucker accounted for a first inning Ashland run.

Dave Barger limited Medford batsmen to two hits while collecting four strikeouts and yielding two bases on balls. Jan Susse galloped home with the first Ashland counter. He singled and raced to second on a wild pitch. John Rhodes hit to drive him over.

Tom Barker tabulated Medford's run in the fourth frame to knot the contest. He singled and made the grand tour on a stolen base, passed ball and Ashland catcher Bob Johnson's overthrow error.

Throws Misfire
Rhodes walked for the Lithians with one out in the sixth inning. Tim Voth bunted and pitcher Bill Enyart's throw to second base went into the outfield. Rhodes went on to third base and came on home when centerfielder Mike Neathamer's throw to third misfired.

Another run might have scored but Voth, who had gone to third, was caught in a rundown on a play that appeared intended as a squeeze. Bob Johnson followed by flying to deep left field.

A fifth inning Ashland bid was wrecked when a third strike squeeze play try backfired into a Medford double play. Barger, who had walked and gone to third on an error, was trapped in a run down after Ross Coldwell went out on strikes.

Enyart doubled for the second of Medford's two hits. Voth had a single for Ashland. Enyart in hurling a three-hit game for Medford struck out five, walked two and hit one.

Brookings Beats Ashland
Brookings defeated Ashland 8 to 5 here on Saturday evening. Ashland bounced off to a 5 to 1 first inning lead but Brookings caught up with a run in the second inning and four in the third. The coast team then took command with two fourth inning scores.

Ashland runs in the first were on hits by Johnson and Barger, four bases on balls and two errors. Brookings, in its third canto, had singles by McNeely and Evensen and worked with three walks and a misplay.

Dunn tripled for Brookings and he, McNeely and Evensen each had two safe swats as did Barger for Ashland. Dunn pitched four-hit ball for the coast club. He issued seven walks and fanned the same number. A shlan d thrower Voth yielded 10 hits and four free passes. He also struck out seven.

ROSEBURG WINS TWO
Roseburg — A six-run romp in the first inning was the victory key in the opening scuffle and a seventh inning run broke up the second fust here Saturday night as Roseburg Lockwood Motors beat the Medford American Legion junior baseball team 7 to 4 and 3 to 2 in non-league rivalry.

Lockwood had hits by Mike Blomberg and Bob Manning, in its big first-game inning. It had the benefit also of six bases on balls and two Medford misplays. Winning run in the second game came with no one out in the second extra panel. Mike Markham tripled and pitcher Jim Calhoun made a bad throw to first base on Jerry Boucock's grounder.

No-Hitter, Grand Slam As Maids Beat Seattle In Softball Doublebill

Memorial Field, White City — Pat Barron pitched a no-hit game and a four-hit shutout and Sherry Larson knocked a grand slam home run here Saturday night to highlight a doubleheader sweep by the Rogue Valley Dairy Maids over Seattle, Wash., in the Northwest Women's Major Softball league.

Scores of the conflicts were 3 to 0 and 6 to 1. Rogue Valley made it three victories for the week end when the Maids swamped the Lumber Jills at Roseburg yesterday 15 to 2.

Barron, in recording two hurling victories over 14 innings, in one night, gained her no-hitter in the Saturday second game when Larson's four-run blast also occurred.

Scored In Sixth
The lone Seattle marker was in the final inning on two errors, a base on balls, a fielder's option, a wild pitch and a double steal by Joanne Sundquist and Donna Jensen

GP Defeats Brookings; Falls to KF

Grants Pass — Grants Pass Mock Ford turned back Brookings twice in non-league American Legion junior baseball games yesterday after dropping a Saturday night decision to the Klamath Falls Falcons in the Southern division of Area 4.

Mock Ford trimmed the coast club here 3 to 2 and 5 to 3. Klamath's Falcons were 6 to 1 victors at Klamath Falls.

The setback kept Grants Pass (7-3) in third place in the division standings. Yesterday the Falcons (9-1) assured hold on lone first place in the circuit by beating Tri-City 6 to 0 in the first game of a doubleheader.

Klamath's Gary Benson chucked a three-hitter at the Fords on Saturday while the Falcons were getting eight safe blows. LeVoy Young and John Parisotto had two hits each for the Falcons. Benson tripled and Young and Guyer each two-baggered.

Grants Pass had to rally for both victories yesterday. The Fords fought from behind in the first game with two runs with two out in the bottom of the seventh inning. Bob Peters homered for the first GP marker. Brookings piled up all of its runs in the second game during first inning.

LINESCORES:
Grants Pass 001 000 0-1 3 2
KF Falcons 200 301 2-6 8 1
McCormack, Sturza (3) and Peters; Benson and Paxton.

Central Point Studs Sweep Doubleheader From Klamath Nine

Klamath Falls — Central Point Cheney Studs fortified their hold on fourth place in the Area 4 Southern division American Legion junior baseball standings here yesterday by whipping the Klamath Falls Hawks 4 to 2.

Then the Studs made it a doublehit sweep by licking the Hawks 6 to 2 in a non-league second contest.

Central Point is now 6-4 in the circuit, a game back of third place Grants Pass (7-3). The Hawks are 3-8.

Bob Corliss chucked a seven-hitter for the Studs and Pat Pepper collected two hits in the first game win.

Three Wild Pitches
Central Point picked up its opening tilt runs over four innings. One scored in the first inning on singles by Luis Alvarez, Pepper and Darryl Summerfield. Pepper singled in the third inning and three wild pitches got him home. In the fifth inning a base on balls, a wild pitch and singles by Neil Rivenburg and Wayne Clay gained the markers with Clay driving in both scores.

The Hawks, for one run in the first inning, employed two walks, a wild pitch and a single by Marv Cunningham. In the second for the other tally, there were two bases on balls and hits by Bob Woldt and Rich Bath. Cunningham had two hits for the Hawks.

Corliss walked six and whiffed seven. Klamath pitcher Steve Young recorded seven bases on balls and seven strikeouts.

Two In Second
Central Point put together three walks, a wild pitch and hits by Rivenburg and Larry Mason for two runs in the second inning of the second fray. Two more tabulated in the third inning on hits by Summerfield, Clay and Bob Stroh. A walk, error and Pepper hit got a run in the fourth inning. In the fifth a Rivenburg single, an error and a Mike Ahorn sacrifice added a counter.

Rivenburg hit two for three in the mix. Starting pitcher Mason issued five bases on balls and struck out three and gave up the four hits to KF. Clay fanned five and walked four in finishing the fracas. Jon Pilgrim in a seven-hitter for the Hawks, struck out six and free-passed four.

The Studs oppose Medford at 8 o'clock this evening at the county fairgrounds in Medford in a non-league game.

LINESCORES:
Central Point 101 020 0-4 9 0
KF Hawks 110 000 0-2 7 1
Corliss and Summerfield; Young and Narremore.
Central Point 422 11-6 7 1
KF Hawks 110 00-2 4 3
Mason, Clay (4) and Summerfield; Pilgrim and Petrick.

Medford, Central Point Contend at Fairgrounds In Legion Mix Tonight

Medford and Central Point Cheney Studs American Legion junior baseball teams play this evening at 8 o'clock at the fairgrounds baseball park here.

This will be a non-league game and will be a makeup for a rained out scuffle.

The teams have met twice so far this season with Medford winning 3 to 0 and 2 to 0. YOUNG, PEPPER PITCH
Stew Young pitched a perfect game for Medford against the Studs the last time out — last Monday. Coach Cliff McLean has reported that Young will open on the mound this evening but indicated that he did not plan to have him go the full route. Manager Bill Askwith has named Larry Pepper to pitch for the Central Pointers.

The Medford-Central Point rivalry is a long standing, intense one and good baseball has been the rule.

Medford will entertain Grants Pass in a Tuesday night game at the fairgrounds. This non-leaguer is set for 8 p.m. also. Central Point will take on Tri-City on Wednesday evening in an Area 4 Southern division scrap at Memorial field, White City.

Rowland Fires Perfect Score In Trap Event

A perfect handicap score of 25 of 25 was shot by Keith Rowland who also gained a 24 of 25 in the 16-yard trap event at the Medford Gun club, Sunday, July 7.

Falcon Has No-Hitter

Merrill — Rich Grow pitched a no-hit, no-run victory here Sunday as the Klamath Falls Falcons bolstered their American Legion junior baseball loop leadership by beating Tri-City Gems 8 to 0.

The win gave the Falcons a 9 and 1 star-ling in the Southern division of Area 4. Tri-City was shoved into a cellar share with Ashland at 2 and 9. Klamath also won the second mix 8 to 1.

Grow struck out batters seven times. He walked three and hit one. He was in a jam in the seventh inning when the bases were loaded.

Death Calls Doc Kearns

By CHARLES TAYLOR
Miami, Fla. — Through-out the boxing world today the bell was mournfully tolling "Doc" for Jack (Doc) Kearns, the fight game's most fabulous manager, who died here early Sunday in his sleep.

Jack Dempsey and others among the eight world champions who had been managed by 80-year-old Doc phoned or messaged their condolences to members of the family.

Dempsey, 68, who teamed with Kearns and the late promoter, Tex Rickard, in the Roaring Twenties to produce the first million-dollar fight gate, assured over the phone from New York:

"I'll fly into Miami Tuesday afternoon."
Services Wednesday
Services were tentatively scheduled for the Philbrick Funeral home in nearby Coral Gables, Fla., at 10 a.m. Wednesday.

Kearns recently estimated that he had managed more than 500 professional boxers and that "since nearly all of my boys were good earners, I figure their total purses must have exceeded $40 million, and that my share was about $13 million."

He paused then and added, "And you'd never believe a man could go through that much money."
GRID STAR DIES
Stuebenville, Ohio — Dr. T. Bradley Sullivan, 46, a Little All-America lineman at Western Reserve in 1936 and 1937 and later football captain at Michigan State, died Sunday at his home of cancer.

BREAKS WORLD MARK

Morgan City, La. — Ben Trumo of Miami, piloting his Second Mortgage around the five mile Lake Palourde course at 65.336 miles per hour, broke his own world record in winning the American Power Boat association's Eastern division championship Sunday.

ROOKIE SENT DOWN

League President Dewey Soriano, attending the game, ruled that Paly had intentionally let the ball hit him and declared the game a no-hitter.

Tonight's all-star tilt will feature a team of top players voted on by the PCL Baseball Writers' Association. They'll meet the Spokane Indians. The stars will be managed by Grady Hatton, of Oklahoma City. The game starts at 8 p.m.

Golfers Qualifying In PNGA Tourney

Spokane, Wash. — A field of 206 men teed off today in the first qualifying round of the week-long Pacific Northwest Golf association tournament at the Spokane Country Club.

Across town at the Manito Golf and Country Club, 133 women were teeing off in the feminine division of the regional amateur competition.

Rhubarb Over No-Hit PCL Game

By DAVE ROWE
UPI Sports Writer
The Pacific Coast League all-star game is scheduled tonight at Spokane but all of the talk in the league is about the controversial no-hit, no-run game thrown Saturday night by Spokane pitcher Bob Radovich.

The 24-year-old rookie right-hander threw the no-no game — his first complete game of the year — striking out six and facing only 29 batters, two over the minimum.

The controversy arose when Islander Ron Samford walked in the ninth and his pinch runner, Stan Paly, apparently let a grounder hit by Brown Taylor hit him on the leg. The rule book states that Paly's should be called out, ending the game, and Taylor be given a single, ruining the no-hitter.

Ruling By Soriano
League President Dewey Soriano, attending the game, ruled that Paly had intentionally let the ball hit him and declared the game a no-hitter.

Tonight's all-star tilt will feature a team of top players voted on by the PCL Baseball Writers' Association. They'll meet the Spokane Indians. The stars will be managed by Grady Hatton, of Oklahoma City. The game starts at 8 p.m.

Joan Kennedy Home Following Surgery

Hyannis, Mass. — Mrs. Joan Kennedy, 26-year-old wife of Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, (D-Mass.) was recuperating at their summer home on nearby Squaw Island today after throat surgery to relieve an abscess.

Mrs. Kennedy was released Sunday from Cape Cod Hospital. She underwent the operation Thursday.

THEY AREN'T?

Eton, England — Claude Taylor, a classics teacher who will move from the all-boy Eton School to the all-girl North Foreland Lodge School next year, got off to a dubious start today when he said he expects no difficulty in the switch because "girls are no different from boys."
