Willie Mays Saves All-Star Game From Being Routine

By LEO H. PETERSEN
UPI Sports Editor

Cleveland, Ohio—(UPI) – The 34th All-Star game proved little or nothing, except that Willie Mays, even at .271, well may be the greatest star of them all.

He batted in what proved to be the winning run, set two All-Star records and tied another as he led the National league to a 5-3 triumph over the American league before 44,160 fans in Cleveland's Municipal Stadium.

It was a gold-star performance in what was a lacklustre game. Mays saved it from being routine.

And while he was the hero, it was manager Ralph Houk's own players from his mighty New York Yankees who turned out to be the goats. Bobby Richardson, his usually flawless fielding second baseman, messed up a play that eventually resulted in setting up a fifth inning run which turned out to be the difference.

And it was Joe Pepitone, another flashy fielder, who let that run score.

Series Near Even

It was a game which brought the National league to within one victory of being even with its rival circuit in this competition which goes back 30 years — and which saw among other things:

–The pitcher who gave up the most runs and most hits–Larry Jackson of the Cubs–being the winner as the National league won its 16th game against 17 defeats in what is billed as one of baseball's top events.

–The pitcher who pitched the best–except for a base on balls and that error by Richardson–was the loser. That would be Jim Bunning, the right-hander of the Detroit Tigers, who suffered his first All-Star defeat.

–A superb two innings of clutch pitching—the eighth and ninth innings–by fast-ball side wheeler Don Drysdale of the Los Angeles Dodgers.

–The littlest guy on either team collecting the longest hit, a double by Albie Pearson, the fine center fielder of the Los Angeles Angels.

–A game in which National league All-Star manager Al Dark of the San Francisco Giants made good his pregame claim "we'll win". It made his All-Star record as a manager, 1-0, completing a new All-Star cycle – first as a player, then as a coach and finally as a manager.

By Inning

There was what turned out to be that big fifth – the inning that produced the "gift" unearned run.

Bunning was pitching and the score was 3-3 when Tommy Davis of the Los Angeles Dodgers led off with a walk. After Hank Aaron of the Milwaukee Braves flied out, St. Louis Cardinal first baseman Bill White hit a ground ball to third baseman Frank Malzone of the Boston Red Sox.

Malzone, off balance, rifled a throw to second and Richardson, who had been playing deep with a left-handed hitter at the plate, appeared to be a little late covering the base. The ball bounced off Richardson's glove and rolled into center field, Davis racing to third.

"The ball was right on the bag, I should have had it," said Richardson. He accepted the stigma for the American league defeat because, in addition to that play, he grounded into double plays both times he was at bat.

Then young Pepitone came into the spotlight.

He scooped up a ground ball hit by Mays and it looked like he would have had Davis out by 10 feet had he thrown to the plate. He elected, after a moment's hesitation, to throw to first instead.

"I thought Pepitone made the right play," Houk said later in the dressing room. "If he had missed the runner at home, it might have opened the way for a big rally. It was only the fifth inning and we couldn't afford to gamble on that play. We had only been to bat four times at that point."

Fail To Score

As it turned out, the American leaguers might just as well have given up their next five times at bat. For first Ray Culp of the Philadelphia Phillies, then Hal Woodeshick of the Houston Colts and Drysdale turned them back without a score.

Mays helped. He went against the wire fence in centerfield to take an extra-base hit away from the unfortunate Pepitone in the eighth inning.

Before that he had:

–Stolen second base in the second inning after getting on with a walk to break his All-Star stolen base record of three. Later he was to steal his second base of the game, and a new record fifth in the competition.

–Scored two runs to boost his All-Star record to 15. Willie tallied his 14th run in the second inning and his 15th in the following frame.

–Got his 20th hit, a single in the third – tying him with any player in All-Star competition Musial for the most hits by petition – although he is hitting only .271 for the Giants.

"I don't pay no attention to records," said Mays. "I just play the game. I like to win these games. I hope I'll play in 100 more."

He's only 32.

Maybe One More for Card Star

Cleveland, Ohio –(UPI)– Well, maybe one more.

That was the wistful sentiment of Stan (The Man) Musial, who appeared in his 24th All-Star game Tuesday and promptly looked forward to playing in possibly his 25th a year from now.

"I sure hope this isn't my last one," grinned the 42-year-old St. Louis Cardinals' slugger, indicating for the first time he may be back in harness again next season.

"Of course, it's a little early to tell for sure what my plans are for next year," he said. "It depends on a number of things. Like how the young outfielders on our club come along, for example."

Musial served merely as a pinch hitter Tuesday for the victorious National leaguers, flying out for pitcher Larry Jackson in the fifth inning. But that didn't keep the partisan American league crowd of 44,160 at Municipal Stadium from giving him the biggest hand of the day when he strolled to the plate to face Detroit pitcher Jim Bunning.

Lamberger Leads Way

Salem – (UPI) – Larry Lamberger Sr. of Portland, going after his third title in a span of 23 years, scored two victories Tuesday to lead the way into the quarterfinals of the Oregon Professional Golfers' association match play tournament at Illahe Hills Country club.

Lamberger, who won the championship in 1940 and repeated in 1955, defeated Jay Gorman of Portland 7 and 5 and won over Boots Porterfield of Grants Pass 3 and 2 in the opening two rounds of the tourney.

Medalist Duane Bergstrom of Lebanon posted 4 and 3 wins over Gordon Marlatt of Salem and Vern Martin of Corvallis.

Also reaching the quarterfinals were Jim Warner of Klamath Falls, Harvey Hixson of Cottage Grove, Harold West of Tualatin, Jerry Mowlds of Portland, Jim Petersen of Vancouver, Wash., and Ken Irwin of Salem.

Million Dollar Offer To Clay

New York – (UPI) – Cassius Clay was to be presented with a million-dollar "take it or leave it" offer today to meet heavyweight champion Sonny Liston at Philadelphia stadium Sept. 30.

The offer was to be made by Bob Nilon, a Chester, Pa., businessman and brother of Jack Nilon, Liston's advisor, who was to meet here today with Bill Faversham, head of the 11-man group guiding the destiny of Clay.

OPENS FUND DRIVE

Detroit – (UPI) – A half-million-dollar fund raising campaign was opened Tuesday by the Detroit Olympic committee to finance its bid for the 1968 games at the International Olympic committee meeting in Nairobi, Kenya, Sept. 18. Lyons, France; Buenos Aires and Mexico City are competing with Detroit for the event.

Serious Business For SF's Giants

Philadelphia –(UPI)– The San Francisco Giants get down to the serious business of overtaking league-leading Los Angeles when they open a three-game series here tonight against the Phillies.

Manager Alvin Dark named Billy O'Dell to pitch against Cal McLish of the Phils.

The Giants are presently in second place, three games back of the Dodgers.

Dark indicated he would rest outfielder Felipe Alou, who has been bothered by a swollen elbow. Jimmy Davenport, who sat out last week's action, will return to the starting lineup at third base.

LA's Dodgers Go Back Into Action

New York – (UPI) – The Los Angeles Dodgers, who reached the All-Star game interlude with a three-game bulge atop the National league, swing back into action tonight against the New York Mets at the Polo Grounds.

Johnny Podres, the Dodgers' veteran southpaw with a 6-6 record, was manager Walt Alston's choice to launch the club's 15-game road trip. He will be opposed by former Dodger Roger Craig, who has won only two of 15 decisions.

PURCHASE PITCHER

Cleveland – (UPI) – Pitcher Ron Moeller was purchased Tuesday by the Washington Senators from the Hawaii club of the Pacific Coast league. The Senators optioned infielder Jack Kennedy to the Islanders to make room for Moeller.

Portland Unleases Home Runs

By CHARLES H. WILSON JR.
United Press International

The Tacoma Giants are probably thinking a bit smugly today that they got the better of the deal that sent slugger Jimmy Ray Hart to the parent San Francisco Giants in exchange for Matty Alou.

Hart today is recovering from a broken shoulder suffered Sunday when he was hit by a pitch in his second major league game. But Alou is already winning games for Tacoma.

Tuesday night Matty delivered a clutch single in the bottom of the 10th inning that brought Cap Peterson home with the winning run in the Giants 2-1 victory over Seattle.

Tacoma had taken a 1-0 lead in the second on Ricardo Joseph's home run, but Seattle knotted the count in the fourth on Rac Slider's run-producing double. And that was where matters stood until Alou showed a flash of his former major league form.

Power Parade

Power decided the other games played in the PCL Tuesday night. The Portland Beavers crashed six home runs to score a 5-4 and 8-2 doubleheader sweep against Hawaii, and a bases-loaded double by Deron Johnson and a bases-empty home run by Bobby Klaus sparked a six-run explosion by San Diego in the eighth inning that carried the Padres to an 8-5 victory over Denver.

Home runs accounted for all of Portland's runs in the opening game. Hector Martinez and Billy Harrell started the power parade with back-to-back circuit clouts in the first inning.

Manny Jiminez added one with Harrell on base in the third inning and Gordon MacKenzie concluded the Beaver scoring with a solo homer in the fourth.

Jiminez and MacKenzie homered again in the second game to pace Portland's 13-hit attack.

Central Point Teams Victors Over Prospect

Prospect – Central Point teams in Southern Oregon Junior Baseball took both ends of a doubleheader from Prospect clubs here yesterday.

Central Point Stars were 15 to 1 victors in the Intermediate league over the Cougars and the Central Point Braves were 19 to 0 winners over the Lions in a Pee Wee game.

Doug Miller had three hits for the Stars and Greg Beman and Gary Nelson each two. Rick Frohreich homered and Nelson doubled. Andreson and Andy Maurer each had two safeties for Prospect with Maurer getting a three base hit. Gerald Branch and David Bailey, pitching for the Stars, had eight strikeouts between them.

The Braves scored 12 runs in the third inning on six hits, four errors, three walks and a hit batter.

Getting two hits each for the Central Point club were Jack Snook, Bill Bailey and Miller. Cary Bradshaw tripled and Bob Bailey doubled. B. Karjala got the one Prospect hit off Bill Bailey who walked no one and fanned three.

LINESCORES:

CP Stars	410 305 3—13 12 0
Prospect	010 000 0— 1 7 1

Dick Sikes Opens Golf Defense

By HAL WOOD

Sacramento, Calif. – (UPI) – Dick Sikes, one of the world's top amateur golfers, teed off against Dave Hallman of Dekalb, Ill., in quest of his third consecutive National Public Links golf title.

With the NCAA championship already tucked away, the tall, thin youth from Wichita, Kan., is playing at the peak of his game and is rated the favorite to go all the way.

However, medalist Johnny Joseph of Hayward, Calif., is hot and also could be the man to beat. He tangled with Wallace Smith of Pontiac, Mich., in another feature match.

Joseph qualified with a 141 total for 36 holes of play to win the medal honors by one stroke from Leroy Beasley of Dallas, Tex. His foe today qualified with 152.

Sikes, playing it cozy, qualified with 145. His opponent, Hellman, had a 152.

In another featured pairing, Beasley goes up against Jim Everman, the Bellingham, Wash., mailman.

The team title went to a trio of shotmakers from Toledo, Ohio, who posted an aggregate of 443 Tuesday to win by three strokes from Long Beach, Calif., which came in with a 446.

Playing on the winning team were Hubert Farmer, Leonard Pletras and Andrew Holmes.

City Tennis Tournament August 3-4

The city tennis tournament, sponsored by the Medford park and recreation department, will be held Aug. 3 and 4.

This meet for residents of the Medford community will have six divisions. There will be men's singles and doubles and mixed doubles.

Deadline for entry is Thursday, Aug. 1. Tournament information sheets may be obtained from Ron Singler and John Root, who also will accept entries. Singler's telephone number is 773-1458 and Root's is 773-3155. Entry fee must be paid before the first match.

To Go To National

Ken Myers, Kathy Smith, Mary Gordenier and Jeanne Salade, all of Medford, who won their divisions in the recent Oregon Junior Chamber of Commerce tennis tournament, will leave here Friday to take part in the national Jaycee tourney at Provo, Utah. They will be accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Singler, who have been named to travel with the Oregon delegation to Utah.

A group of Medford boys and girls will oppose a Grants Pass team here on Thursday.

Still Openings In Golf Classes

The Medford City Recreation department has announced that there is room remaining for anyone interested in the golf instruction given by the department at the Cherry Lane Park Golf course this summer.

There are openings available in the program for two or three entrants in all morning classes and in the 1 p.m. and 7 p.m. to 8 p.m. classes.

A two-weeks session for beginning golfers will open July 22 with instruction from 8 a.m. to noon, the department stated.

Registration for the classes can be made at the Cherry Lane course during the day.

Play Starts In British Open Golf

Lytham-St. Annes, England (UPI)–Phil Rodgers, 25-year-old pro from La Jolla, Calif., shot a three-under-par 67 to take the early first-round lead in the British Open golf championship today while favored Arnold Palmer floundered to a 76.

By HENRY W. THORNBERRY

Lytham-St. Annes, Eng. – (UPI) – Jack Isaacs of Langley Field, Va., was the first of seven Yanks off the tee today in the opening round of the British Open golf championship, which Arnold Palmer is a 2-1 favorite to win.

Isaacs, not expected to make the cut Thursday for the final two rounds on Friday, teed off in a twosome with England's John Elliss. Following him to the first tee in order were fellow Yanks Doug Sanders, Phil Rodgers, World Seniors champion Herman Barron, Palmer, Jack Nicklaus and Bob Marshall.

Long Sand Dune

The 72-hole tournament is being played over the 6,836-yard Royal Lytham and St. Annes course, often described as "one long sand dune with patches of grass." A total of 120 players made up the field for the start, but that will be cut to the low 45 and ties for the final two rounds.

Palmer shot a final tuneup round 66, four under par, Tuesday and bookmakers promptly refused to accept any more bets on him. "I played real well and I feel good," said Palmer, who is shooting for his third consecutive British Open crown.

Masters champion Nicklaus, who played Tuesday in a partnership with Rodgers against Palmer and Gary Player of South Africa, was a 5-1 pick to win the title. Player was 6-1, Peter Thomson of Australia 8-1, and Rodgers and Kel Nagle of Australia 10-1.

Winstone Gains European Title

Cardiff, Wales – (UPI) – Howard Winstone, the new European featherweight champion, will have to develop a punch if he hopes to dethrone world titleholder Sugar Ramos.

Winstone, a 24-year-old Welshman, won the European crown Tuesday night by stopping Italy's Alberto Serti with only five seconds remaining in the 14th round of a scheduled 15-rounder before 15,000 cheering countrymen at Maindy stadium.

Referee George Gondre halted the bout because Serti was bleeding from a cut over his right eye.

It was the 40th victory in 41 pro bouts for Winstone, who completely outclassed the 30-year-old Italian but failed to score a knockdown.

DeSylvia Hired At San Mateo

Portland – (UPI) – Tom DeSylvia, recently resigned Portland State college head football coach, announced Tuesday he has accepted a coaching and teaching position at San Mateo, Calif., High school.

He will be assistant football and head tennis coach and teach physical education and driver training. He is scheduled to leave Portland next month.

DeSylvia went to Portland State last year after compiling a successful football coaching record at Jefferson High school.
