

Red Sox Win Over Twins 7-4 On Stuart's Three-Run Blast

By FRED DOWN
UPI Sports Writer

New York Yankee manager Ralph Houk may have done the Boston Red Sox a favor when he snubbed Dick Stuart for the American League All-Star team.

Houk apparently not only stirred up the hottest controversy of the 1963 All-Star game but also lit a fire under the big first baseman.

In any event, Stuart returned from the two-day vacation resulting from the snub with a pair of homers and five runs batted in, that paced the Red Sox to a 7-4, 10-inning victory over the Minnesota Twins Wednesday night.

Stuart's second homer was a three-run, 10th-inning wallop that ended Minnesota relief ace Bill Dailey's string of 24 consecutive scoreless innings.

Stuart's first homer in the fourth inning was his first round tripper since June 20, and the two runs he knocked in were the first for him since June 28. The two homers and five runs batted in for the night increased his season totals in those departments to 19 and 55.

Wins Ninth Game
Dick Radatz, who was removed for a pinch-hitter in the 10th inning after shutting out the Twins on one hit for three innings, received credit for his ninth win against one loss. The victory moved the Red Sox into third place and dropped the Twins into fifth.

The Los Angeles Dodgers nipped the New York Mets, 1-0, the Philadelphia Phillies drubbed the San Francisco Giants, 10-2, the Cincinnati Reds defeated the Chicago Cubs, 3-1, and the Houston Colts beat the Pittsburgh Pirates 2-0 in the National League.

Stuart and Lou Clinton hit home runs and Frank Malone contributed an RBI-double to the Red Sox' fourth inning outburst. Bob Allison hit his 22nd homer of the year for Minnesota in the fourth and the Twins tied the score with two more runs in the sixth. The other eight AL teams were idle.

Johnny Podres pitched a three-hitter for his fourth shutout and seventh win and batterymate John Roseboro homered in the eighth inning as the Dodgers increased their NL lead to four games with their eighth victory in nine games. Left fielder Tommy Davis saved the win by starting a game-ending double play with an electrifying catch of Frank Thomas' ninth-inning bid for a two-run homer. Carlton Willey was the unlucky loser for the Mets, who have lost 11 consecutive games.

Pace Phil's Attack
Roy Sievers had three hits and Don Demeter, Johnny Callison and Tony Gonzalez led each to lead the Phillies' 14-hit attack. Errors by Jose Pagan and Willie McCovey paved the way for two three-run Philadelphia rallies that brought Cal McLish his ninth win and Billy O'Dell his fifth defeat. McCovey and Orlando Cepeda hit homers for the Giants.

Joey Jay, already a 12-game loser, flashed his 21-victory form of 1961 and 1962 by striking out 10 and yielding seven hits in 8 1/3 innings against the Cubs. Marty Keough's two-run triple in the first inning was the big blow for the Reds against Glen Hobbie. The victory was only Jay's fourth.

Relief star Hal Woodeshick struck out Smoky Burgess with the bases filled in the eighth inning to preserve the Colt victory for Ken Johnson. The Colts got both their runs in the first inning on Ernie Fazio's double, a bunt single by Al Spangier, extending his hitting streak to 14 games, Pete Runnels' single and Carl Warwick's forceout.

Schlee, Sikes Collide In Public Links Tourney

By HAL WOOD
Sacramento, Calif.—UPD—John Schlee, a towering salesman from Memphis, Tenn., kept a date with destiny today when he tangled with defending champion Dick Sikes in the third round of the National Public Links Golf tournament.

Schlee, as hot as the 90-degree-plus weather Wednesday when he was seven under par while winning two matches, has been waiting for two years to get another crack at the all-conquering Sikes.

"He beat me in the semifinals in 1961," said Schlee. "The score was 2-1. But I'm playing much better. I've been waiting a long time to get even."

Sikes, who also owns the N.C.A.A. championship, was four under par in trouncing Dave Hellman, Waukegan, Ill., 6 and 5, and then beating John Kurach, Detroit, 5 and 4. Schlee turned back Jim McMurtrey, San Leandro, Calif., 3 and 2, and then walloped Paul Franke, Louisville, Ky., 5 and 4.

Sixteen Tee Off
There were 16 men who teed off in eight matches this morning and there will be only four left when the quarter-finals are completed tonight.

Among the men who could be mighty tired by then is John Sniffen, a 27-year-old Hawaiian playing out of Everett, Wash., where he is a sergeant in the Air Force.

Sniffen went seven extra holes before beating Hung Soo Ahn, another Hawaiian, on the 25th hole in the first round match.

Maris To Have Surgery Friday
New York—UPD—The New York Yankees, who have been looking forward to the return of Mickey Mantle, today faced the loss of Roger Maris for an estimated 10 days.

Maris will undergo minor surgery Friday at Lenox Hill hospital for a rectal fissure. The operation will be performed by Dr. John Donaldson of the hospital staff.

Mantle has been out of the Yankee lineup since June 5 when he suffered a broken left foot in a game at Baltimore. He planned to rejoin the club today at Los Angeles but may not be ready to play for several more days.

Maris and Mantle have played together in only 23 of the Yankees' 81 games this season. Maris pulled a hamstring muscle in his left thigh during spring training and missed the first seven games of the season. He has since been sidelined several times with a bad back.

Dry Kiln, Colvin Victors In County Softball Frays
Southern Oregon Dry Kiln retained third spot in the Major league standings by beating Central Point Merchants 4 to 2 last evening in the Jackson County Softball association.

Colvin and Associate moved back into a second place knot in the Minor circuit with a 3 to 1 verdict over Medford corporation.

Dry Kiln broke a 1 all knot in the extra eighth inning to beat Central Point. The runs came on a base on balls, wild pitch, a Dick Deffley hit followed by an error, an error on a sacrifice by Wayne Gillaspay and then a sacrifice by Dick Kuschel.

The Merchants scored in the bottom of the eighth when Marv Bohnert got home on a sacrifice fly by Jim Van Zwoil, Colvin rallies.

Central Point outfit SODK nine to four in the game but was charged with five errors to one by Dry Kiln. Carl Dusenbury had three hits and Tom White two for the Pointers. Van Zwoil gave up two walks and struck out 11 pitching for CP. Dry Kiln's Dale Cook walked three and fanned three.

Colvin came from behind in its tussle with two runs in the sixth inning. Jim Tackett, of Colvin and John Shaw of Medco each had three hits. Tackett chucked a seven-hitter with no bases on balls and eight strikeouts. Jack Doraty tossed an eight-hit game for Medco with three free passes and two whiffs.

Chuck Marrs, Tru-Mix Concrete, was the Minor league batting leader, according to statistics compiled through July 1 by Association President Harry Chipman. He had a .481 average for 27 times at bat. Leadership was determined on the basis of at least 18 batting turns.

Tru-Mix Bats .279
Harold Jordan, Keith Schulz Garage, was next with .415 for 41 turns at bat. Jerry Fields, Tru-Mix, followed with .381 for 21 times up.

Tru-Mix led in team batting with a .279 average.

Among the pitchers Ron Weatherford, Tru-Mix, had a 3-0 record.

John Wheeler Logging and Jay Allen Cars play a Major league game at Jackson school this evening. Keith Schulz and Tru-Mix vie in the Minor league at Hawthorne park.

Dairy Maids Entertain
Rogue Valley Dairy Maids oppose Roseburg Lumber Mills this evening in a women's softball game.

The scrap will be at 8 p.m. at Memorial field, White City. Rogue Valley has won from Roseburg 9 to 3 and 15 to 2 in skirmishes this season.

The Maids travel this week end for a Northwest Major league doubleheader. They play at Yakima, Wash., on Saturday.

CELEBRATE—Los Angeles Dodgers' trio whoop it up in dressing room after defeating the Mets 1-0 in New York. John Roseboro, left, hit the game-winning home run while Johnny Podres, center, pitched the three-hit win and Tommy Davis saved all the marbles with a game-saving catch of a drive by Mets' Frank Thomas in the 9th inning.—(UPD).

Tommy Davis Makes Invisible Catch to Spark Off Dodgers' Surprise Double Play Action

New York—UPD—Johnny Podres thought he was trading off the field in defeat but instead walked right into the middle of a game-ending double play that brought him his seventh victory of the season.

The surprise ending to the Los Angeles Dodgers' 1-0 win over the New York Mets Wednesday night resulted from a catch by left-fielder Tommy Davis that can be described as sensational or invisible depending upon where you happened to be in the Polo Grounds.

Pinch runner Al Jackson was on first base and one man was out when Podres delivered the pitch to Frank Thomas. Thomas hit it on a soaring line toward the left field stands and Jackson took off from first base with his head down. Podres took one look toward left field. Then he, too, put his head down and started to walk toward the center field clubhouse.

Funny Thing
"I thought it was gone," he said. "I would have bet anything it was a homer."

Podres had reached second base in his mournful journey toward the clubhouse when a funny thing happened: The ball came flying in from the outfield practically into Podres' glove.

Davis, leaping high against the fence in a haze of smoke and light that made him practically invisible from many points in the park, had hauled down the ball.

Thomas was already around first base. Jackson was nearing third. And there was Podres at second base—Johnny on the spot when Davis' throw came out of the haze.

Podres made the catch of the relay in what was almost self defense and then tossed the ball to first-baseman Ron Fairly to complete the game-ending double play. No pro-

Fishing Fair

Portland—UPD—Here is the week end fishing outlook as prepared by the Oregon State Game Commission:
Southwest: Coos Bay salmon angling improving. Winchester bay good; Gold Beach and Brookings areas excellent to good off-shore. Steelhead fishing poor in lower Rogue and Umpqua. Trout angling fair to good in upper Rogue, Fish Lake, Umpqua river and Howard Prairie Lake.

"THIS HINGE WILL SAVE US $400 A UNIT IN REPAIRS!"
Last year we bought one Dodge truck. Now we own 25 Dodge pickups. Dodge cabs are much more ruggedly constructed. Filmy door hardware on other makes has cost us $400 a unit in fender and door damage, broken windows and windshields. And in one of the other makes, transmission and front spring maintenance in two years has been equaling the first cost of each vehicle. In the short time we've owned Dodges we've found them to be life-savers in controlling costs that were getting out of hand with other makes! Goodie Bar Ice Cream Co., Oakmont, Pa. The toughness found in Dodge truck door hinges extends clear through every model built. And Dodge trucks keep getting tougher all the time, because of our policy of making running improvements in them. But model for model, Job-Rated Dodge trucks are priced lower than most of the competition, right in line with the rest. Ask your dependable Dodge truck dealer for the full price story.
