Monbouquette Has Victory Over Every Rival AL Team

By FRED DOWN
UPI Sports Writer

Bill Monbouquette became a star pitcher when he learned to curb his temper. So now it's the Boston Red Sox' American league rivals who feel like tossing tantrums.

The fiery, 26-year-old Frenchman from Medford, Mass., is controlling his temper and his curveball so well this year that he (1) is the first major league pitcher to beat every rival team this season and (2) figures to be the Red Sox' first 20-game winner since 1953.

At the same time he's playing a major role in keeping the Red Sox within shouting distance of the first-place New York Yankees in the AL race.

Monbouquette completed the cycle-beating very rivad team—Thursday night when he pitched a three-hitter that gave the Red Sox a 2-0 victory over the Minnesota Twins. Bob Tillman and Eddie Bressoud homered in the third and eighth innings to produce the Red Sox' runs.

Yanks Hold Lead

The Yankees maintained their five-game lead with a 3-2 10-inning win over the Los Angeles Angels, the Chicago White Sox topped the Detroit Tigers, 6-3, the Cleveland Indians downed the Kansas City Athletics, 8-6, and the Baltimore Orioles beat the Washington Senators, 7-4, in other AL games.

Monbouquette struck out 17 batters in a game in 1961 and pitched a no-hitter in 1962 but is en route to by far his best season in the majors. He struck out eight and walked only one to beat Dick Stigman. Mel Parnell, who turned the trick in 1953, was the last Red Sox 20-game winner.

Ford Wins Tenth

Whitey Ford gained credit for his 10th straight win and 14th of the season when Joe Pepitone's double and Elston Howard's single snapped a 2-2 tie in the 10th. Hal Reniff retired the Angels in the bottom of the frame, sealing Los Angeles' ninth straight loss.

Mike Hershberger's two-run double and Jim Landis' two-run triple featured a six-run third inning that enabled the White Sox to remain five games behind the Yankees. Jim Brosnan retired pinch-hitter Gabe Brown with two out in the ninth to preserve Gary Peters' sixth win. George Thomas had a pair of hits for the Tigers.

Johnny Wyatt walked in the tie-breaking run and wild-pitched an insurance run home to cap Cleveland's three-run eighth-inning rally. Willie Kirkland homered for the Indians and George Alusik, Ken Harrelson and Doc Edwards connected for the Athletics.

The Orioles ended the Senators' seven-game winning streak with a six-run seventh inning in which Al Smith doubled and Jim Gentile, Brooks Robinson, Jackie Brandt and Russ Snyder singled. Dick Hall, who pitched one inning, got credit for his fourth win while Ron Kline suffered his fourth setback.

Local Legion Crew Downs Grants Pass In Division Chase

Mock Ford Team Out Of Running for Title

American Legion junior baseball's Area 4 Southern division chase has been narrowed to a two-way affair.

Medford's Legion aggregation bounced the Grants Pass member of the circuit 8 to 2 at the fairgrounds here last night to knock the Mock Fords out of the running for the title.

The victory cut down the loop leadership of the Klamath Falls Falcons to a single game over Medford. Grants Pass was pushed into a third place tie with Central Point.

Batting performance of Medford's Dan Miles was the feature last night. He blasted three consecutive ground rule doubles, bouncing the ball over the outfield barrier.

Medford's Stuart Young pitched a four-hitter, walking two and striking out 10. He was also a big gun with the bat, smashing three singles and driving in three runs. Ken Phipps had two hits and knocked in two runs. Mike Neathamer hit safely twice and Jim Calhoun brought in two runners with a single and sacrifice flyout.

Forsgren Gets RBIs

Grants Pass got to Young for three singles and a walk in the fourth inning and that's when the Mocks put across their runs. Larry Forsgren's bases loaded blow drove the tallies over. Rich Wolney and Bill Standley got the frame's other hits.

The Medfords ran up run No. 1 in the first inning. Ron Edmonds singled but was forced out by Miles, who advanced on a hit by Neathamer and an error and was singled home by Calhoun.

Miles led off with his first double in a three-run third panel. Neathamer singled again and Calhoun belted with his sacrifice. Tom Barker, Phipps and Young followed with consecutive hits, Young batting home two. Two bases on balls, a Miles' two-bagger, a fielder's option and Phipps safety figured in the two-run fourth with Phipps banging the markers across.

14 Hits for Medford

Mike Barnes' bunt hit, a Jack Mullen sacrifice, a walk and the third Miles' double were the ingredients for a fifth inning score. In the sixth Phipps got on base on an error and stole second base. He tabulated on Young's single.

Medford tagged Jerry McCormack with 14 hits in six batting turns. The GP chucker walked three and fanned two. McCormack last month beat Medford in a five-inning non-league no-hitter.

The local club played without error.

The two clubs met last night for the last time this season. It was the second win for Medford over GP. The Mock club won three from Medford.

The Medford's meet Central Point on Sunday in a twinbill beginning at 6 p. m. at the county fairgrounds.

CP's Cubs Defeat GP

Central Point—Central Point Crater Cubs rallied with four runs in the fourth inning yesterday and went on to defeat Grants Pass Golden Rule All-Stars 9 to 5 in a Southern Oregon Junior league game at Grants Pass.

Gary Frohreich doubled and Ray White, Greg Beman, Don Patterson and Dan Cesaro each singled in the big canto. There were two errors and a base on balls.

Beman had three hits for Crater and Patterson and Frohreich each two. McLaughlin homered for Grants Pass and Gettle tripled. Frohreich went to the mound in relief for the Cubs in the second inning with one out. He walked the first player he faced then struck out the next six. Frohreich whiffed 10 and walked three in 5 2/3 innings. He gave up the triple to Gettle.

Grants Pass beat Ashland 9 to 8 on Wednesday.

Maloney Pitches Win No. 14 for Cincinnati Reds

By FRED DOWN
UPI Sports Writer

Strike for strike and win for win, Jim Maloney is a match for Sandy Koufax — and that's no baloney.

Big Sandy, the Los Angeles Dodgers' flame-thrower, holds the National league's season strikeout record of 269 and with a 14-3 record is well on his way toward a 25-victory season.

There's no inclination in Cincinnati to question Koufax's talents, but the good burghers of the Ohio city point with pride to the fact that Maloney's current 14-3 record matches Koufax's mark and that Jim has struck out proportionately more batters this season. Koufax has 150 strikeouts in 156 innings while Maloney has 129 in 128 innings.

A 6-foot, 2-inch, 200-pound righthander from Fresno, Calif., Maloney won his 14th victory of the season Thursday night in beating the Chicago Cubs, 7-3, after the Reds dropped the 11-inning opener of the twi-night doubleheader, 7-0.

Something of a hard-luck pitcher in previous seasons, Maloney's 1963 win total is only three short of his total victories in three other years with the Reds. At the moment, he's potentially the Reds biggest winner since Bucky Walters posted 27 victories in 1939.

Reds Break Tie

Maloney yielded all the Cubs' runs in the sixth inning but the Reds broke a 3-3 tie with four runs in the eighth with the aid of a two-run double by rookie Pete Rose. Vada Pinson had two doubles and a single and drove in two runs for the Reds in the nightcap.

Dick Ellsworth pitched an eight-hitter and struck out eight in the opener, which the Cubs won with a parade of 13 batters to the plate in the 11th. A two-run double by Ken Hubbs, two defensive lapses by Charlie Neal and a two-run triple by Don Landrum keyed the big inning.

The Los Angeles Dodgers nipped the New York Mets, 4-3, the San Francisco Giants shaded the Philadelphia Phillies, 4-3, the Pittsburgh Pirates downed the Houston Colts, 3-0, and the Milwaukee Braves beat the St. Louis Cardinals, 5-3, after a 6-3 defeat in other National League games.

Mets Lose Again

Don Drysdale yielded a pair of homers to Jesse Gonder but got his 11th win for the Dodgers on the strength of a three-run fourth-inning rally and Ron Perranoski's sturdy close-out relief. The win was the fourth in a row for the Dodgers and the loss the 12th straight for the Mets.

Juan Marichal received credit for his 14th win against four defeats when Bob Bolin came to his rescue after Tony Gonzalez hit a triple and Roy Sivers homered in the ninth to close the Phillies' gap to one run. Willie McCovey hit his 24th homer and Jim Davenport had two RBI-singles to lead a 10-hit attack that dealt 10-game winner Ray Culp his seventh loss.

Don Cardwell pitched a two-hitter for the Pirates, who scored once in the fourth inning and added two insurance runs in the eighth on Donn Clendenon's two-run double. Dick Farrell suffered his seventh loss for the Colts.

Bill White's two-run homer and Dick Groat's double sparked the Cardinals' decisive five-run seventh-inning rally in their first game, but the Braves kayoed ex-teammate Lew Burdette in seven innings and took the nightcap behind Bob Shaw's nine-hitter. Lee Maye and Hank Aaron homered for the Braves.

LA's Dodgers Burning To Win

New York—UPI—The fired-up Los Angeles Dodgers suddenly are burning to win this one.

They haven't lived down completely yet the fact that they blew the pennant last year, and if they ever should blow it again this year in the face of their present four-game lead, every last one of them will promptly volunteer to make the first rocket trip to the moon.

"None of us have forgotten what happened last year," said big Don Drysdale, who needed Ron Perranoski's help Thursday night but still gained his 11th victory as the Dodgers dealt the Mets their 12th straight defeat, 4-3.

All Remember

"Everyone in the country remembers it," added the big hard-throwing right-hander. "So do we. We're determined not to let it happen again."

Dodger first-baseman Ron Fairly said he felt the same way as Drysdale.

"We want to win this one and we want to win it badly," he said.

"No, I wouldn't say we have dedicated ourselves to winning this one especially for Walt Alston," he explained in answer to a question.

"We try to win as a team," Fairly said. "If we win, he wins, too. He gets the same full share we do. He certainly is doing all he can and so are we."

CP Studs, Medford Contend on Sunday

American Legion junior baseball here on Sunday will be a twilight-night affair.

Medford and Central Point Cheney Studs will be foes in a doubleheader starting at 6 p.m. at the Jackson county fairgrounds ball park.

First game will be a five-inning non-counter and the second tussle, which will begin about 8 p.m., will be for seven innings and will count in the Area 4 Southern division standings. This twinbill will wind up the season for the Studs. Medford has the Klamath Falls Falcons to play here next Tuesday.

Other Sunday contests will take the Klamath Falcons to Ashland and the Klamath Falls Hawks to Grants Pass. These games will be in the afternoon.

Crucial Games

Sunday play is crucial for Medford and Klamath's Falcons, the only teams left in the division title running. The Falcons (9-1) lead Medford (8-2) by a full game.

Coach Bill Askwith has named Larry Pepper to start for the Cheneys in the Sunday counter. Choice for the first fray will be from among Bob Corliss, Larry Mason and Wayne Clay. Coach Cliff McLean has indicated that Bill Enyart will pitch the main game for Medford.

The evening event will provide opportunity for those who have other activities during the week end and earlier in the day Sunday to attend the games.

Askwith reported yesterday that Studs' first baseman Howard Tomlinson, who hurt his ankle in the Tri-City game Wednesday, suffered a sprain.

Tru-Mix, Wheeler Nab Tilts

John Wheeler Loggers nicked Jay Allen Cars 2 to 0 last night to pull even with the Carmen in the Major league of the Jackson County Softball association.

Tru-Mix Concrete beat Keith Schulz garage 6 to 1 for its fifth straight victory against no losses in the Minor league.

Wheeler scored once each in the sixth and seventh innings. In sixth the run came on two errors and Milan Kurtz sacrifice flyout. Outfielder Tom Perdue made a sensational catch of the fly to rob Kurtz of an extra base hit. Jack Brown singled and Don Jaquette tripled him home in the seventh inning.

Jack Brown swatted three of the four Wheeler hits. Bill Welch tripled and Willie Barnum singled for Jay Allen. Kurtz, pitching for Wheeler, fanned 12 and walked one in the two hitter. Jay Allen tosser Jim Reinholtz allowed no bases on balls.

Three In Third

The three-run third was the big Tru-Mix scoring inning. Bob Custance had three hits and Ron Weatherford and Fred Britt each two for Tru-Mix. Custance doubled twice and Weatherford once.

Mort McIntyre and LeRoy Clay had two hits apiece for Schulz. Clay had a two base hit.

Ron Weatherword chucked a six-hit game for the Mixers with one walk and four strikeouts. Don Cain of Schulz permitted four runs, six hits and two bases on balls in four innings pitched. He whiffed two. Norm Lankford allowed three hits, two runs and a walk in two cantos, finishing for the Garagemen.

Tru-Mix faces Colvin and Associate at Jefferson school and Jay Allen opposes Southern Oregon Dry Kiln at Hedrick Junior high in this evening's 6:30 o'clock games.

Wheeler Logging has a 7:30 p.m. non-league doublebill scheduled against Kingsley Air Force base on Saturday at Memorial field, White City.

SPORTS FANS!

I BET YOU DIDN'T KNOW

by Paul Lea

In the history of sports, only one man has been both a major league baseball manager, and the head coach of a major league pro football team . . . Do you know who he was? . . . Answer is Hugo Bezdek, who managed the Pittsburgh Pirates in 1917, '18 and '19 . . . And, later was head football coach of the then Cleveland Rams in 1937 and '38.

The All-Star baseball game recalls one of the greatest pitching performances of all-time, when Carl Hubbell struck out, in order, five of the most fearsome hitters of the day . . . It happened in the 1934 All-Star game . . . Can you name the five sluggers Hubbell fanned in a row? . . . They were Babe Ruth, Lou Gehrig, Jimmy Foxx, Al Simmons and Joe Cronin.

Do you know where the word "Olympics" comes from? . . . It's from the Greek "Olympiad," which means every four years . . . And, in the ancient Greek times, as today, the Olympics are held every four years.

I bet you didn't know Paul Lea Motors, Medford's Rambler dealer, can sell you a new or used car, arrange financing, service the car of your choice and have you drive away in the car of your choice, within one or two hours time, if you are in a hurry and tell Tom Davis—Lea Motors sales manager, that you must be on your way at a certain time.
