National Director To Speak Here, At Youth Camp

The Rev. Owen C. Car, national director of Christ Ambassador youth groups for Assemblies of God, will arrive in Medford Saturday and will be guest speaker at First Assembly, 1108 West Main st., for Sunday's 11 a.m. worship service. Prior to serving as national director with headquarters in Springfield, Mo., Mr. Car was district president of Christ Ambassadors for five years in the state of Kansas.

Sunday at 7:30 p.m. the Rev. David Jenkins, Medford, will speak at the evangelistic service. Mr. Jenkins is a graduate of Southern California college, Costa Mesa, and recently moved to this area. The boys and girls annual summer camp, which has been in progress this week, ends today and the Christ Ambassadors teen-age camp gets underway Sunday at 4 p.m. Camp site is in the Cascades, eleven miles from Butte Falls. Approximately 125 teenagers have registered for the camp to be held from July 14 to 19. Mr. Car, CA national director, will be camp evangelist and the Rev. Marion Ravan, Salem, president of the CA's in Oregon, will be camp teacher. The annual camp for youth will be directed by the Rev. Gene Rightmeyer, Grants Pass, assisted by the Rev. Gene Willis, Loretta, Ore.

The Rev. R. E. Cull, local pastor, announced that on Friday, July 19, at 7:30 p.m., the MeLa-Tones, a girls vocal trio from Evangel College, Springfield, Mo., would present a sacred concert at First Assembly of God. The trio is composed of the Misses Glenda and Wanda Shows and Sandra Persons. Pianist is Miss Sharon Ramsey. During the twelve weeks tour, the MeLa-Tones will appear at youth camps and Assembly of God churches throughout the West and Alaska. The public is invited and no admission charge will be made.

Three Churches List Activities

Central Point - The Rev. Donald Krug, new minister of Central Point Presbyterian church, will speak Sunday at the 11 a.m. worship service on "Life Worth Living". Mr. Krug, who arrived in the valley from Westminster Presbyterian church in Sacramento, Calif., will be installed as pastor Friday, July 26, by the Southwest Oregon Presbytery.

Sunday's music will include a solo, "Jesus Whispers Peace" by Mrs. Fred Kuest. Mr. and Mrs. Krug and their three children are living at 20 Crater Lane, Central Point.

Rogue River - The Rev. F. W. Hopkins, Grants Pass, Hope Community Presbyterian church, Fourth and Broadway sts., Rogue River, will speak Sunday at the 11 a.m. worship service. His topic will be "In Remembrance". Jacksonville - The sacrament of holy communion will be observed during the 11 a.m. worship service at the First Presbyterian church, Jacksonville, Sunday. The Rev. King K. Jones will continue his series of sermons on the Lord's Prayer with a communion meditation "Give Us This Day Our Daily Bread".

Young people who will participate in the Presbytery's Trail conference to be held in California's Trinity Alps next week will be present in the service.

Mrs. Dave Allen will sing the solo "The Lord's Prayer". Monday at 9 a.m. the second week of Vacation Bible school will begin in the church. Children from age four through those who have completed sixth grade are welcome to attend.

Witnesses List Coming Activities

"What Is Armageddon?" This question is asked and answered in a lecture given by J. Churchill, Yreka, Calif. Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses, Sunday afternoon here. Mr. Churchill is a representative of the Watchtower, Bible and Tract society.

The lecture will be given at the Medford Kingdom hall of Jehovah's Witnesses, 2402 Jacksonville highway, at 4 p.m. Other meetings are also held throughout the week at the Kingdom hall. On Tuesdays at 8 p.m. a one hour Bible study is held. A lesson in public speaking is given each Friday at 7:30 p.m.

Sermon Series to Continue Sunday

The Rev. Charles R. McDonald, pastor of St. Luke's Methodist church, 2320 Siskiyou blvd., will continue his series of sermons Sunday on the theme of "Our Mission Today". The topic for Sunday will be "God's Mission and His Son".

During the summer church school and worship are each scheduled for 9 a.m. Ralph Humphrey is the church organist.

Congregational Summer Plans Are Announced

The members and friends of the Congregational church will meet for worship at 10 a.m. Sunday at the Hoover Grade school on Siskiyou blvd. This is the temporary meeting place of the church while plans are being made for the construction of a new sanctuary and educational unit at the corner of East Jackson st. and Berkeley Way.

The Rev. Robert W. Tull, minister of the church, will preach a sermon entitled "To Live With Only Partial Knowledge." Music will be offered by the church organist, Mrs. Raymond Powers.

During the worship hour, child care will be provided for children younger than three years of age in the school health room. Three, four and five year olds will meet in the school band room. First through fourth graders will attend the opening portion of the service of worship and then be dismissed to their class activities for the rest of the hour. Those in fifth grade and beyond are invited to attend the entire adult service.

Beginning on Monday, Mr. Tull will be on vacation for a month. During his absence the members and friends of the Medford Congregational church will worship with the members of the First Congregational church, Ashland, at their 10 a.m. service. No service will be held at Hoover school on the last two Sundays of July or the first two of August. Services will resume on Sunday, Aug. 18, at 10 a.m.

Former Pastor To Be Sunday Speaker

Central Point - The Rev. George Simon, former pastor of the Community church, Bly, will be the guest speaker at the 11 a.m. worship hour and the 7:30 p.m. gospel hour at the Community Bible church, Fourth and Alder sts., Central Point, Sunday.

Mr. Simon is a graduate of Crater High school and a member of the Central Point church. He took his theological training at the Simpson Bible college, San Francisco. For the past few years he has been the pastor of the Bly church and is now under appointment to the Christian and Missionary Alliance church, Aberdeen, Wash.

Eastwood Events Are Announced

Sunday at Eastwood Baptist church at the 11 a.m. worship service the Rev. Clifford J. Young will speak on "The Coming Elijah," using Mark 9:9-13 as his scriptural background.

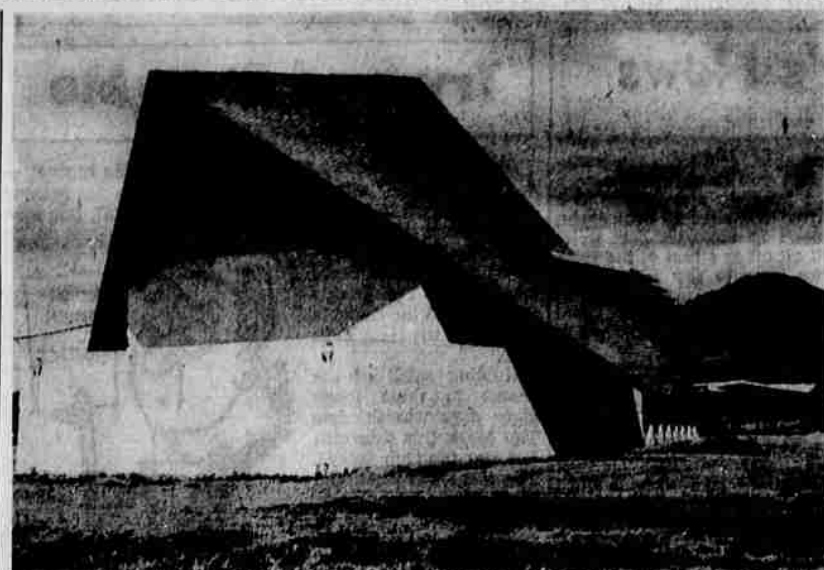

His children's message will be "The Oyster." Music will be furnished by Carroll Graber. Immediately following the Sunday morning service, there will be a short business meeting to approve purchase of draperies and furniture for the church school. Following the business meeting the congregation has scheduled its annual all-church picnic at Tou velle park.

The Baptist Youth Fellowship has just held its annual election of officers. Sharen Young is its new president.

At the 7:30 p.m. service Sunday the pastor will speak on "The Healing of an Epileptic," using Mark 9:14-29 as scriptural background.

Christian Science Lesson Topic Told

Communion service will be held Sunday at First Church of Christ, Scientist, 100 Windsor ave., at 11 a.m. The first reader will read the church tenets. The Bible lesson on "Sacrament" will include verses from Matthew 5. Young people up to the age of 20 are invited to attend Sunday school.

NEW CHURCH - Services will be held in the new Christian church building Sunday at 1900 Crater Lake ave. for the first time. The structure, of contemporary design, soars to 49 feet at the peak of the bonnet. The sheltering overhang of the sanctuary roof protects the colored glass from the direct sunlight, allowing an even flow of light in the chancel area. The octagonal center portion (right, rear) provides easy access to either the sanctuary or church school areas from the entryway. In the parking area to the right is the 70 foot steel cross. (Knackstedt photo).

First Christian To Hold Services in New Church

The First Christian church will hold services in their new building at 1900 Crater Lake ave. for the first time Sunday.

The Rev. Fredrick Ross Evans has chosen for the title of his sermon "Look for the Cross and You Will Find the Church."

The hours of the services have been changed. The services will be at 9:45 and 11 a.m. Church school classes will be given in two sessions, at 9:45 and 11 a.m., coinciding with the times of the worship services. Coffee hour will be held after the second service.

At the 9:45 a.m. service the carillon choir will sing a traditional Irish melody, "Be Thou My Vision." The chancel choir will sing Beethoven's "The Heavens Resound" at the 11 a.m. service. The Rev. Wendell Wagler, the assistant minister, directs these choirs.

Advent Christian To Hold Picnic

The annual Sunday school picnic of the First Advent church will be held Sunday at 11:30 a.m. The morning worship service will begin at 10 a.m. with the pastor, the Rev. Fred O. Sapp Jr., giving the message. Following this service the congregation will go to the Donald Clark home on Houston rd. in Phenix for the all day picnic.

An evening bonfire service is also planned at the picnic. Sunday school classes will not be held Sunday.

Saturday at 8 p.m. the Men's Fellowship is sponsoring the film, "California - World in a Week." A sing-along will proceed the film. Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. a service will be led by Dr. Arthur Pottle, representative of the denominations Bible school, Berkshire Christian college, in Berkshire, Mass. He will be accompanied by a girl's quartet, the Hymnones, from the college.

Wednesday the prayer meeting service will be led by Chuck Anderson, representative of Aurora, Ill., college, which is the denomination's liberal arts college from which the pastor was graduated.

East Side Church Schedules Events

Activities Sunday at East Side Church of Christ, 132 Vancouver st., will begin with a Bible school study on the history of the Bible. This study will begin at 9:45 a.m. At 10:45 a.m. Mr. Jean M. Shelley, minister, will speak on "Jesus Teaches Gratitude."

The church will hold a picnic following the morning service at McKee Bridge on the Applegate river. Each family is to take their own table service and a dinner to share. The service at 7 p.m. will be a Bible study of II Corinthians 1.

Senior young people of the high school grades will attend camp next week. They will leave from the church at 9 a.m.

St. Peter's Lists Sunday Activities

"Kingdom Blessings, Opportunities, and Needs" will be the theme of Sunday's services at St. Peter's Lutheran church, 1020 East Main st., according to the Rev. John E. Simon, pastor of the church.

Two identical services will be conducted at 8:15 and 11 a.m. The services will be somewhat shortened in order to give Al Huntemann an opportunity to report to the worshippers on the recent convention of the Northwest District of the Lutheran church - Missouri Synod at Portland, which he attended as delegate.

The Walther League of St. Peter's, consisting of the teenage young people, will join other Walther League groups from the Southern Oregon zone at St. Paul's Lutheran church, Grants Pass.

Church school at St. Peter's continues at the usual time, 9:30 a.m. The summer schedule is in effect until September.

Medford Presbyterians Announce Topics, Music

The sermon at the First Presbyterian church Sunday will be delivered by the Rev. David Brown, assistant pastor. His topic will be, "Jesus Christ, Lord of the Conscience." Mrs. Rose Ellen Uhren will be heard singing, "God So Loved the World" for both the 9:30 and the 11 a.m. services.

An Adult Bible class conducted by Mrs. Jack Sides meets each Sunday at 10:45 a.m. in the pastor's study and Mrs. Robert Brewer will conduct a study of Colossians 4 Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. in the Fireplace room.
