

New Zealand's Bob Charles Wins British Open Playoff

Lytham - St. Annes, Eng. (UPI) - Bob Charles, with deadly chipping and superbly putting, won the British Open golf championship Saturday, defeating Phil Rodgers by eight strokes in their 36-hole playoff.

The 27-year-old New Zealander, the first left-hander ever to win a major international golf championship, turned back America's bid to win the title for the third year in a row with rounds of 69-71-140 - even par - against Rodgers' 72-76-148.

Charles, with 11 one-putt greens, built up a three-stroke lead on the morning 18 and then just when it seemed that the 25-year-old La Jolla, Calif., pro was going to pull it out, the lanky New Zealander put on the pressure to win going away.

Despite erratic drives and missed greens, everything worked right for Charles when he had to call on his chipping irons and his putter. For the chunky, cocky Roger, nothing went right, especially his putter, although he was superior, for the most part, from tee to green.

Charles never trailed.

He built up a two-stroke lead on the front nine, increased it to three at the half-way mark and then made it five with two pars on the first two holes of the afternoon round against two bogeys for Rodgers.

After that, though, it looked like Rodgers was going to pull his game together. He picked up two shots, when Charles drove out of bounds on the 21st hole. He picked up another stroke when Charles three-putted the 23rd for a bogey. Then Rodgers cut his deficit to one stroke by sinking a 25-foot birdie putt on the 24th hole.

That turned out to be his last challenge, for the next three holes decided the championship.

Both happily accepted the playoff with neither making excuses for putts that didn't drop or drives that went astray on the final round Friday which tied them for the lead.

Rodgers, a chunky 5-8 ex-Marine with sandy hair and a wise - cracking manner said "I'm not complaining. Jack Nicklaus had his chance and blew it, so we are both lucky to be here I guess."

Charles, a contrasting 6-foot-2, agreed he, too, was happy and had no regrets.

"There were several occasions on which I thought I'd lost out," he said.

Gained Two Strokes

Rodgers gained two shots on Charles in their head-to-head duel in the second of Friday's two rounds to gain the tie. He shot a one-under-par 34-35-69 to Charles' 35-36-71.

Nicklaus, the Masters champion from Columbus, Ohio, was the leader with nine holes left to play but blew himself right out of the running when he bogied the last two holes.

Even pars would have given him the title outright. As it was, he finished third with a 72-hole total of 278.

The last title playoff was in 1958 when Australia's Peter Thomson defeated Dave Tomlinson of Wales.

Rodgers wound up with 67-68-73-69 - 277 and Charles finished at 68-72-66-71 - 277. That's three under par for the Royal Lytham - St. Annes 6,757-yard layout.

Kel Nagle of Australia, the 1960 British Open champion, finished fourth with 283 and Thomson, a four-time winner of this event, was fifth at 285.

Defending champion Arnold Palmer, never under par on any round, finished at 294, far back in the pack of 47 qualifiers for the last 36 holes.

Dan Berryman Gains Six Blue Ribbons in All-Comers Track

Dan Berryman, Eagle Point, collected six blue ribbons Saturday in the opening all-comers track meet of a summer series at the Medford high stadium.

Berryman, competing in the 10 years and under division, won the broad jump and shot put and his heats of the 70-yard low hurdles and the 75-yard, 150 and 300 runs.

Meet director estimated that 175 boys and girls participated in the morning session for boys through 14 years of age and girls through 16.

In the 11-12 division Jeff Werner, Medford, gained three blue ribbons, taking his 75, 150 and 300 heats.

There were a number of entries who were double winners in the meet which drew athletes from various valley communities and from as far away as Wyoming and Walnut Creek, Calif.

Hunting Archers Group Formed For This Area

The Hunting Archers association is the name of a newly organized group of bowhunters, whose primary objective will be to provide tournaments and hunting expeditions that will appeal to the archer whose principal interest is as hunting weapons.

A constitution and by-laws has been drawn and approved. Currently there are 41 members, located from Brookings to Malin, Oregon and Northern California.

The program consists of occasional field and broadhead tournaments and a yearly championship tournament. All field and broadhead tournaments will be conducted on unmeasured ranges. No mechanical sights, marks or blishments that can be used as an aid in sighting are permitted in any competition.

Education

Big-game hunting awards, organized varmint and big-game hunting parties are all part of the program planned, as well as instruction and education in the proper use of the bow and arrow as an effective, humane - hunting weapon.

Current officers of the organization are president, Ed Badley, Rogue River; vice president, Joe Williamson, Central Point; secretary-treasurer, Vern Struble, Gold Hill; rangemaster, Ray Gibson, Medford, and huntmaster, Corky Collins, Medford.

Any interested persons should contact Struble, Route 1, Box 435B, Gold Hill.

Junior Loop Tussle on Wednesday

A Crater Cubs - Medford Junior League game with a Pee Wee preliminary will highlight this week's activity in Southern Oregon Junior baseball.

The Junior leaguers will play a counting game at 8 p.m. Wednesday at the fairgrounds ball park here. Pee Wee clubs of Medford and Central Point will vie in a non-league game on the same diamond at 6 p.m.

Aim of the doubleheader is to give parents a chance to see what is being done in the summer junior baseball program in the two communities.

In Friday Pee Wee league games Central Point Indians nipped the Prospect Lions 6 to 5. Medford Wildcats downed Phoenix-Talent 12 to 1 and Medford Tigers beat Jacksonville 22 to 0.

At Prospect Russell Pinkham singled home the winning run for the Indians in the top of the seventh inning after Randy Aveline and Warren Cooper had singled.

Mike Larson hit a three-run homer for Prospect and Mike Maurer also homered. Aveline and Jeff Pinkham had two hits each for Central Point. Prospect pitcher Bob Davi fanned 16 and walked three. Crater throwers registered 10 strikeouts and issued six basts on balls.

For the Wildcats Randy Moyer hit a three-run home run in the second inning and Gary Naef homered in two runs in the fourth inning. Moyer had three hits. Medford pitcher Kevin Bethel fanned four and walked four. Jim Dyson, on the hill for Phoenix-Talent, whiffed three and issued two bases on balls.

An Intercommunity League game between the Central Point Rams and Prospect Cougars was halted in bottom of the sixth inning Friday over an eligibility issue. Score was 9 to 8 for Prospect at the time. Gene Farthing, Southern Oregon Junior Baseball commissioner, has ordered the game continued from the point it was halted. This will be on July 30 when Prospect travels to Central Point.

Farthing also ordered the Wildcat-Jacksonville Pee Wee game forfeited to Jacksonville on an eligibility protest.
