Relatives Arrive Here For Rites

A number of persons from out of town were in Medford this week end to attend the marriage rites July 12 of Miss Judith Ayres and Thomas Jay Morris in St. Mark's Episcopal church.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Ayres Jr., 12 North Groveland avenue. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Morris, 240 Sunrise avenue.

From San Bernardino, Calif., were Mrs. Mina Austin, grandmother of the bride; Mrs. Blossom Van Dorly, and Randy, the bride's aunt and cousin, and Mrs. Thomas Reed, a cousin of the bride, and her children, Kevin and Kabot.

Other relatives of the bride from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Elwin Austin and children, Joey and Linda, Crescent City, Calif.; and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Austin, Weed, Calif., a great aunt and uncle. Friends of the bride's family, Ed Angel and his daughter, Miss Susan Angel, were here from Bakersfield, Calif.

The bridegroom's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Leatherman and their daughters, Lisa and Lori, arrived from Brownsville, Ore.

The bridegroom's parents were hosts for a rehearsal dinner Thursday evening in the patio at their home. Among the guests were the bridegroom's grandmother, Mrs. Sylvia Shreve; his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Schade Jr., and their children, Eric and Kristine; the Rev. and Mrs. George R. V. Bolster and Mr. and Mrs. Stuart McQueen.

Rites Held At New Age Church

Central Point - Miss Joan Carol Lofland was married to Michael Craig Redhead by the Rev. D. E. Millard in an evening ceremony attended by about 50 guests. The wedding was held at the New Age church, Eagle Point, July 9, at 8 o'clock.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lofland, Route 1, Box 54, Central Point, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Robert Redhead, 241 West Vilas road, Central Point.

The bride, given in marriage by her parents, wore a brocade white taffeta suit with white accessories. Her brocade pillbox hat held a short veil and she carried white orchids and carnations on a white Bible.

Mrs. Robert Manasco, her matron of honor and sister, wore a pink and white brocade cotton dress with white accessories and a pillbox hat. Her corsage was of pink rosebuds.

Lynn Redhead, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Wedding music was played by Mrs. Genevieve McCorkle at the organ and Mrs. D. E. Millard at the piano. Mr. Millard was soloist.

At the reception in the banquet hall, the cake was cut first by the bride and bridegroom and serving was continued by Mrs. Wayne Gallagher. Punch was served by Miss Joyce Johnson, who also had charge of the guest book.

Both the bride and bridegroom were graduated from Crater High school. Mr. Redhead is a member of the armed forces stationed at Ft. Gordon, Ga., where the couple will make their home, after a short wedding trip to the Oregon coast.

Among the out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Basil Robinson, Myrtle Creek, an aunt and uncle of the bridegroom, and Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Waterman, Vallejo, Calif., grandparents of the bride.

Russells Visit Here

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Russell of San Francisco were recent visitors in Medford and Jacksonville, continuing here from Dunsmuir, Calif., where Mr. Russell, president of the Southern Pacific lines, was called on business.

They stopped in Jacksonville, where Mr. Russell made his childhood home with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Jeremiah Nunan, and toured the Jacksonville museum. In Medford they were guests of Mrs. Lewis Ulrich.

Miss Walker Bride Of David Caldwell

Miss Barbara Lea Walker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Walker, 2446 Happy Valley drive, became the bride of David Roy Caldwell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis W. Caldwell, 860 Washash avenue, in a ceremony held July 3 at First Methodist church.

Dr. George G. Roseberry officiated at the 8 o'clock evening rites attended by 150 relatives and friends. Mrs. Gary Tippetts was soloist and Mrs. Leslie Boardman played the organ wedding music.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of Schiffl embroidered organza over taffeta. It was fashioned with basque bodice, scoop neckline and three-quarter length sleeves. The full skirt was bell shaped in front and two self fabric bows in back accented the chapel train. Her bouffant veil of handrolled silk illusion in elbow length was held by a cap of silk organza roses trimmed with pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of pink and white rosebuds.

Attended by Sisters

Mrs. Diane Johnston was matron of honor for her sister, Miss Janet Walker, another sister, was bridesmaid. They wore lavender satin brocade frocks in afternoon length and their short veils were held by white velvet circlets centered with lavender satin brocade roses. Mrs. Johnston carried a cascade bouquet of lavender and white gladioli and Miss Walker's bouquet was of pink and white gladioli.

Five year old Leslie Payant was flower girl. Her frock was of the same material as the other attendants and she carried a basket of pink roses.

Dennis Lundgren served as best man and groomsman was Berry Scruggs. Seating the guests were Douglas and Gregory Elliot, cousins of the bride. Ross Payant was ring bearer. Candlelighters were Gerry Douglas and Billy Root, cousins of the bridegroom.

For her daughter's wedding and reception which followed at the church, Mrs. Walker chose a blue and white silk jersey dress with matching jacket and white accessories. Mrs. Caldwell wore a blue floral dress with a white mohair jacket and accessories. Their corsages were pink rosebuds and white carnations.

Church Decorations

White, lavender and pink gladioli decorated the church for the wedding and white satin bows marked the pew ends. At the reception pink candles and roses decorated the tables.

Mrs. Burnath Morgan and Mrs. Clinton Phelps cut and served the wedding cake. Mrs. David Peterson and Mrs. Roy Sander poured punch. The reception was under the direction of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the church.

The couple traveled to the Oregon coast on their wedding trip, the bride wearing for traveling a white Schiffl embroidered cotton sheath dress with pink trim, pink mohair coat and pink and white accessories. Her corsage was pink rosebuds. They are making their home at 203 Elm street, Apartment 2.

The bride attended Medford High school and Robertson School of Business. Mr. Caldwell attended Medford High school and Oregon Technical institute in Klamath Falls. He is employed by Dick Knight company.
