Episcopal Rites Held

When Miss Nancy Anne Ticknor, Woodburn, became the bride of Gerald Garth Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Goldenpenny, 15 Vancouver avenue, she not only had her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold W. Ticknor, at the ceremony, but also her American Field Service mother, Mrs. Otto Schait, with whom she lived for a year in Zurich, Switzerland.

The wedding was held June 29 at 2 o'clock in the afternoon at St. Edward's Episcopal church in Silverton. The Rev. Everett Hall, Woodburn, officiated at the double ring rites attended by more than 300 guests.

Mrs. Don Miller, Corvallis, played the organ wedding music and accompanied the Woodburn High school girls' trio, Miss Dora Ann Ostrom, Miss Lavonne Widmer, and Miss Sandi Bedwell. Soloist was Professor Donald Gleckler of Willamette university.

Pink and white gladioli decorated the church.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of white silk nylong organza over taffeta. It was fashioned with fitted bodice accented with beaded sequins, scoop neckline and three-quarter length sleeves. The bodice and a front panel in the full skirt were of embroidery. The skirt formed a chapel train.

Her French silk illusion veil was held by a crown of seed pearls and crystals and she carried a bouquet of baby pink elf roses and stephanotis. Her heirloom point lace handkerchief, which belonged to her great grandmother, had been carried by her mother at her wedding.

Miss Shirley Timian, Corvallis, was maid of honor. The other attendants were Mrs. John Ticknor, sister-in-law of the bride, and Mrs. Paul Nagel, both Portland, Miss Marlene Grassens, Honolulu, Hawaii, cousin of the bride, and Miss Sandra Hunt, Woodburn.

They wore pink embroidered batiste sheath dresses with headresses of pink roses and tulle and matching accessories. They carried nosegay bouquets of pink and white daisies.

Niece Is Flower Girl
Miss Nikki Messer, Medford, niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl. She wore a pink embroidered batiste frock and carried a white basket of pink rosebuds.

Kent Parson, Salem, served as best man. Groomsmen were John Ticknor, Portland, brother of the bride; Terry Gray, Salem; Ronald Little, Madras, and Clinton Peterson, Mapleton.

Acolytes were Douglas Augustus and Tom Wadsworth. For her daughter's wedding and reception which followed at St. Mary's Parish hall in Woodburn, Mrs. Ticknor chose a pink embroidered silk sheath dress with matching accessories. Mrs. Goldenpenny wore a lavender brocade sheath dress with matching accessories. Their corsages were pink roses.

Reception Held
Mrs. Paul Foster, San Francisco, aunt of the bride, and Miss Dorothy Johnson, Arlington, Va., aunt of the bridegroom, cut and served the wedding cake. Pouring were Mrs. R. A. Grassens, Mrs. Paul Wadley, Mrs. William Wadley, Yakima, Wash., all aunts of the bride. Mrs. Kent Parson was in charge of the guest book. Mrs. John Lacey, Woodburn, and Mrs. Hattie Paris, Stayton, were at the gift table.

The couple traveled to San Francisco on their wedding trip, the bride wearing a blue knit suit with matching hat, black patent leather accessories, and a white orchid corsage.

The bride is a graduate of Woodburn High school and attended Oregon State university. She is employed as a bookkeeper at the Bank of Oregon. The bridegroom was graduated from Medford High school and Willamette university where he was affiliated with Phi Delta Theta fraternity. He is music instructor at the Woodburn Junior and Senior High schools.

Among the out of town guests were Mr. Goldenpenny, Medford; Miss Heidi Schait, Zurich, Switzerland; Miss Blanche Brattin, Arlington, Va.; Mr. Foster, San Francisco; and William Wadley, Yakima, Wash., uncle of the bride.

The evening prior to the wedding Miss Dorothy Johnson, Arlington, Va., was hostess for the rehearsal dinner held at the Marion hotel in Salem. It was attended by 42 relatives and friends. During the event the Woodburn High school girls' trio also sang; they are students of Mr. Johnson.

Philip Hansen To Give Show

Aslund - Philip Hanson, well known West coast actor, will present a one man show, "The Rebels" Tuesday, July 16, at 2 p.m. in Churchill hall auditorium on the Southern Oregon college campus.

The first half of the Hanson show is devoted to the patriots, who created America's form of government.

"They are called patriots now," Mr. Hanson says, "but they were rebels in 1776."

Mr. Hanson's performance of famous historic speeches includes Patrick Henry's fiery "Give me liberty, or give me death," and the comments of John Adams, Thomas Jefferson, Benjamin Franklin, and Thomas Paine.

The humor expressed by famous patriots will also be featured in "The Rebels" together with Longfellow's well known poem, "Paul Revere's Ride."

Parents Tell Betrothal News
