Navy Couple Wed in Cave Junction Rites

Cave Junction — Mr. and Mrs. John Edmond DeMeyers will make their home in Mt. View, Calif., following their return from a wedding trip to the Oregon coast.

Their wedding was an event of July 8 at the Cave Junction Community church at 8 o'clock in the evening. The Rev. Gene Denning officiated at the double ring rites.

The bride is the former Betty Lou Carter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer L. Carter. She is an aviation store-keeper airman in the Navy WAVES. Mr. DeMeyers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hale, Highland, Mich., is an aviation metalmith second class in the Navy. Both are stationed at Moffett Field, Calif.

White Shasta daisies, pink roses and greenery decorated the church for the wedding attended by 90 relatives and friends. Mrs. Walter Elchler played the organ wedding music and accompanied Lyle Smith, uncle of the bride, soloist.

Wears White Lace

The bride wore a floor length gown of white lace over slipper satin. It was designed with fitted bodice with a pleated neckline band which formed cap sleeves, and full tiered skirt with a short train. Her fingertip length veil was held by a lace and satin rossette and she carried a nosegay bouquet of peace and fashion roses. Mr. Carter escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage.

Mrs. Vivian Deaton was matron of honor and Miss Shari Carter was junior bridesmaid for her sister.

They wore pink chiffon frocks on the same style as the bride's and carried nosegay bouquets of pink roses. Their colonial hats were of pink carnations and net.

Kim Carter was flower girl for her sister. She wore a pink taffeta and white lace frock with pink net and carnation hat. Candlelighters were Jean and Craig Smith, cousins of the bride. Jean wore a green dress with pink flowers in her hair. They carried pink tapers with pink rosebuds.

Bertil P. E. Eliasson, Oakland, Calif., served as best man and seating the guests were David Denning, Dan Demersman and William Minnear. Ring bearer was Lyle Carter, brother of the bride.

Pink and Silver

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the church. Pink roses in silver bowls and pink candles in silver candelabra decorated the serving tables. Mrs. Robert Robin and Mrs. William Howland cut and served the wedding cake. Mrs. Fay Arrants presided at the punch bowl and Mrs. Lillie Martin poured coffee. Mrs. Max McNaught, Mrs. C. O. Overholser, Jefferson, Ore., and Mrs. Smith, Klamath Falls, were at the gift table.

The bride attended Illinois Valley High school. Mr. DeMeyers attended Highland, Mich., High school.

Among the out of town guests were Mrs. Mabel Jackson, Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. Homer M. Smith, Grants Pass, grandparents of the bride; Mrs. Eliasson, Oakland, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Tom

Miss Rinker Bride Of William Laton

Ashland — Miss Judith Kay Rinker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Rinker, 2100 Valley View road, became the bride of William Richard Laton in a double ring ceremony held June 29 at First Presbyterian church.

The Rev. B. J. Holland officiated at the 7 o'clock evening rites attended by 50 relatives and friends. Mrs. Kenneth Thompson, 2215 Highway 66, Ashland, is the bridegroom's mother.

Mr. Rinker escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. The bride wore a ballerina length frock of white organza and lace over satin. It was embroidered with seed pearls and her elbow length veil was held by a pearl crown. She carried a bouquet of white rosebuds.

Miss Gloria Quackenbush, Talent, was maid of honor. She wore a pink chiffon frock and carried pink rosebuds.

Eric Rinker, brother of the bride, was best man. Albert Williams, cousin of the bridegroom, seated the guests.

Mrs. Rinker chose a pale blue dress with white accessories and pink rose corsage for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Thompson wore a pale pink dress with white accessories and a blue and pink rose corsage.

A reception followed the ceremony at the church. Miss Susan Williams and Miss Lucille Thompson served the cake and punch. Miss Carol McCammon, Salem, was in charge of the guest book and Miss Meryle Clark, Burbank, Calif., was at the gift table.

For traveling to southern California on their wedding trip, the bride wore a turquoise raw silk suit and white accessories. Her corsage was of pink rosebuds.

The bride is a graduate of Southern Oregon college and is a second and third grade teacher in the Eugene public schools. The bridegroom, a graduate of Crater High school, also attended Southern Oregon college and the University of Oregon.

Among the out of town guests who attended were Mrs. Edna Keeler, Klamath Falls, grandmother of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Harris, Klamath Falls, aunt and uncle of the bridegroom; Mrs. Virginia Smith and daughters, Judy and Pat, Salem, and Mr. and Mrs. Donald K. Ford, Grants Pass.

Panhellenic Events Announced

Rogue valley Panhellenic council members met for luncheon July 10 at the Rogue Valley Country club for the purpose of planning a style show and evening dessert party. The event will honor young women interested in rushing activities upon entering college in the fall. The meeting was called by committee chairman, Mrs. Monty Penwell.

Aviatrix Is Subject Of Program

The program of the Southern Oregon Philatelic society at the meeting on Thursday, July 11, was given by Clyde Smith of Ashland, telling of his meeting with Amelia Earhart during his years as a mail carrier and a member of the West Coast Air Mail society at Oakland, Calif.

He exhibited photos of her, her plane, and of her husband. He also showed clippings taken from the Oakland papers at the time of her flight from Honolulu to San Francisco and others.

For many years, Mr. Smith fought to have a stamp issued honoring this women aviator without success, as did many of the stamp societies he belonged to.

Birthday Party Honors Boy

A surprise party for Dwight Peck was held in his honor by his father, Jack W. Peck, 1459 Brookdale avenue, at Sugar Loaf beach, Shasta lake, Calif., recently.

About 20 guests celebrated the boy's fifth birthday.

Dwight is also the son of Mrs. Beverly Peck, Ashland.

Smith, Independence, Ore.; Mr. Overholser, Jefferson; and Mr. and Mrs. Burt Gainer, Waldport, Ore.

The evening of July 2 the bride-elect was honored at a bridal shower at the home of Mrs. Deaton with Mrs. McNaught and Mrs. Martin as cohostesses. Nearly 40 guests attended.
