

Kimball-Wilson Wedding Held at First Christian

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Gilbert Kimball Jr., who were wed recently in Medford First Christian church have returned from their wedding trip to the Oregon coast and are living at 108 1/2 North Columbus street.

The bride is the former Donna Marie Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Roberts, 1078 Morrow road. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Thomas G. Kimball, 1645 Scenic avenue, Central Point.

The two o'clock afternoon ceremony on June 16 was performed by the Rev. Wendell Wagler.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of Japanese satin brocade designed with chapel train. A Chantilly lace cap trimmed with teardrop pearls held her elbow length veil. She carried a bouquet of white carnations.

Miss Lou Johnson was the honor attendant and Miss Pam Wyatt was bridesmaid. Their sheath frocks were pink taffeta, and they carried carnation bouquets. Miss Johnson's being pink and Miss Wyatt's pink with white. Miss Arley Fairbanks was flower girl.

Miss JoAnn Roberts, sister of the bride, and Miss Linda Downing, Prospect, a cousin, were candlelighters. Their dresses were of aquamarine blue nylon.

David Kimball, Central

Point, was best man, and ushers were Johnney Harris, Grants Pass and Robert Edwards.

Roses and carnations decorated the church.

About 60 guests attended the ceremony and reception given by the bride's parents.

Mrs. Weldon Downing, Prospect, aunt of the bride, served the wedding cake and Mrs. Clyde Kindred poured coffee.

Mrs. Kenneth Janzen was at the punch bowl and the gift table was attended by Miss Jan Johnson. Mrs. Norman Holliday, Klamath Falls, a cousin of the bride, had charge of the guest book.

Among the guests at the ceremony and reception was Mrs. Helen Mayham, grandmother of the bride.

The bride's mother chose a blue sheath dress with matching jacket and the bridegroom's mother wore a turquoise blue dress with jacket. Both had white carnation corsages.

The bride attended Medford High school and the bridegroom was a student at Crater High school. He is employed by Medford Tire service.

Lyle Harrells To Be Honored at Reception

Ashland—Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Harrell will be guests Monday, July 15, at a reception given in their honor at Frames, Etc., 1951 Highway 86, by Mr. and Mrs. Raymond E. Vander-

An exhibit of Mr. Harrell's paintings and drawings will be on display from 8 to 11 p.m. and beginning Monday and each day thereafter, except Sunday, from 11 to 4 p.m. The showing is to continue through August 10 and Saturday, the artist will be in the gallery from 2 to 4 p.m.

Last year Mr. and Mrs. Harrell moved from the San Fernando valley of southern California to Jacksonville where he opened a studio across from the museum. There he teaches both head drawing and oil painting.

Mr. Harrell, who is a native of Illinois, began drawing when he was a child in Bakersfield, Calif., and during World War II was Navy staff artist. After attending college for two years he entered Otis Art Institute, Los Angeles.

In the 1951 showing of contemporary painting in the United States, Mr. Harrell was chosen from 1,144 entrants selected for the show held in the Los Angeles county museum.

Other exhibitions include the Cunningham gallery, Downey, Calif., and the Los Angeles Festival of Arts, where his painting was voted the favorite of the show. Since coming to Oregon he has shown in the Rogue Valley Art Association gallery and at the Public Library of Medford and Jackson county, both in Medford.

Mr. Harrell has been an art and brochure designer for Atomics International, for whom he has also designed Christmas cards. His work for Atomics International was prepared for presentation to Congress, at summit meetings, and at colleges and universities. He has been a member of, and shown in, the Artists Equity gallery, Los Angeles. Included in the showing at Frames, Etc., will be several pieces of terra cotta and wood sculpture by Mrs. Harrell. Registration is now open for classes which Mr. Harrell will teach in basic and advanced drawing, and also in perspective drawing.
