Wimer - Mr. and Mrs. Pa- Quakenbush, Wimer, were honored on the occasion of their fiftieth wedding anniversary at an open house for which Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Carr, Table Rock road, were hosts.

About 100 friends and relatives called on the couple and they were presented gifts. Both Mr. and Mrs. Quakenbush are longtime residents of the valley. They both came here with their families in 1906 from Wisconsin and both attended Talent schools. They were married July 3, 1913, in Talent.

Workshop Topic To Be Foreign Aid

The assets and limitations of foreign aid legislation now before congressional committees will be discussed at the League of Women Voters workshop Tuesday, July 16.

The session is the second in a series of four meetings the non-partisan voters group is holding this month to study proposed legislation for economic aid abroad. Other sessions are set for Tuesdays, July 23 and 30. All are from 10 a.m. to noon in the Public Library of Medford and Jackson County.

Last Tuesday the group discussed the proposed Mutual Security Act for 1964, which is now before committees. Mrs. Clara Hinsey summarized major aims of the proposed act and Mrs. F. W. Bogard, study chairman, reviewed the League of Women Voters' position on foreign economic aid.

The national group's criteria for "sound and effective" aid calls for "long-range planning, self-help by the recipient countries, improved coordination, staffing and administration, and adequate financing of aid."

Other League members leading Tuesday's discussion were Mrs. Victor King, who summarized the relation of the United Nations to the proposed legislation, and Mrs. Dunbar Carpenter, who spoke on the Alliance for Progress aspects. Mrs. L. C. Jensen was session moderator.

Next Tuesday's session will include a review of League background studies and a discussion of the Clay committee's report on U.S. foreign aid programs.

All women interested in the non-partisan study of government are invited to participate in the League, Mrs. Ogden Kellogg, president, stressed.

New Church Is Scene Of Goin-Mallery Rite

Central Point — In the first wedding ceremony to be held in the newly dedicated Assembly of God church, Phoenix, Miss June Voila Mallery became the bride of James Ray Goin.

The 11 o'clock morning ceremony was performed by the Rev. Harold W. McDonald in the presence of 75 guests on July 3.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph F. Mallery, Route 1, box 370, Central Point. Mr. Goin, of Route 1, Box 348A, is the son of Mrs. Chester Lassen, Olympia, Wash., and the late Ray F. Goin.

For the double ring rite, the bride wore a floor length satin and lace gown with a long veil held by a small lace cap. She carried white roses on a white Bible.

Mr. Bates, Ashland, was best man of honor, wore a pink taffeta dress with white accessories. The bridesmaid, Miss Jane Grubbs, wore a green rayon dress with white accessories.

Vicky Atkins, Citrus Heights, Calif., was flower girl and ring bearer — was Grant Mallery, brother of the bride. The flower girl wore a yellow dress.

Joe Bate, Ashland, was best man, and William Goin, Phoenix, brother of the bridegroom, served as usher.

Mrs. Harold McDonald played the wedding music and Frank Grimm, Gold Hill, was soloist.

The bride's mother chose a green dress and the bridegroom's mother, a blue suit. Both wore white accessories.

At the reception held in the Phoenix Community hall, Mrs. William Goin and Mrs. Dan Goin, both sisters-in-law of the bridegroom, cut and served the cake made by Mrs. William Goin.

Mrs. Richard Guches and

Mrs. Melvin Guches, sisters of the bridegroom were in charge of the guest book.

Later that day a dinner was given for the couple by Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bates at their home in Ashland.

The bride was graduated from Crater High school, and is self-employed in leather garment work. The bridegroom attended schools in Glendale, Ore., and is employed at Double Dee Lumber company, Central Point.

After a trip to the Oregon coast, the couple will be at home in Central Point.
