

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond A. Abbott

Wisconsin Rites of Interest

Butte Falls - Mrs. Elga Abbott, Butte Falls, and her daughter, Mrs. William Hartlerode Jr., Ashland, have returned to the valley following a trip to Wisconsin where they attended the wedding of Mrs. Abbott's son, Raymond A. Abbott.

The wedding was held at Evangelical Lutheran church in Mt. Horeb, Wis. The bride is the former Miss Karen Jean Maurer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Shore, Blue Mounds, Wis. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Abbott, Butte Falls.

The Rev. Ruben Mostrom officiated at the afternoon rites. The bride wore a gown of Chantilly lace and peau de soie; French silk illusion veil, and carried red and white roses.

Mrs. Arkie Diehm was matron of honor. The other attendants were Miss Marcia Ingell, Mrs. Hugo Fink, Miss Paulette Opsal, and Valerie Jean Shore. They wore frocks of mint green silk organza and carried baskets of daisies. Ronald Czernota was best man and Stewart Yankton and Richard Paulmann were groomsmen. Seating the guests were Robert Richards and Robert Jenkinson. Mark Opsal was ring bearer.

A reception followed the May 4 rites in the fellowship hall of the church.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Butte Falls High school and attended Southern Oregon College. He is in the U. S. Air Force stationed at Traux Field. They will make their home in Madison Wis.

Medford Group Meet in Eugene

Several Medford women were in Eugene recently to attend the forty-seventh annual state convention of the United Spanish War Veterans and auxiliary.

Mrs. Marry Barneburg from the Medford delegation, a past department president, served as installing officer for the auxiliary. Also participating in the ceremonies were Mrs. Alice Smith, Medford, assistant guard, and Mrs. Bertha Nelson, Medford, door guard.

Auxiliary department officers installed by Mrs. Barneburg were Mrs. Minnie Steele, Springfield, president; Mrs. Renne Grosh, Grants Pass, senior vice president; Mrs. James Vandersteen, Medford, patriotic instructor and Mrs. Smith guard.

Mrs. Barneburg was appointed drill captain.

Visitors

Prospect - Visiting at the Halvor Garden's home are Mrs. Garden's daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Martin and children, Kathy, Shelly and David. With the Martins are their married daughter, Mrs. Lorea Redin and her brother-in-law, Kim Johnson, all from Anaheim, Calif.

An exhibit of art pieces from the collection of Lloyd B. Halverson, Medford collector, now at Fontaine's Framing Studio and Gallery, 329 South Grape street, has been extended through July. The public is invited without charge. Pictured above as they viewed the exhibit last week are Mrs. Keith Francis, Talent, and Robert G. Vannoy, Ashland. Mrs. Francis, an artist, is a member of the Southern Oregon Society of Artists and has exhibited work in the local area. Mr.

Vannoy, of the Mark Antony hotel staff, recently resumed painting and the picture which they are holding is one of his works. The Halverson exhibit includes a number of rare paintings, sketches, etchings and prints. One sketch by Raphael was done in circa 1517 for a ceiling corner mural. The large oil painting shown above is a landscape by Thomas Cole, major American artist who worked in the first half of the nineteenth century.

Members Honored By Society

The Epsilon chapter of the Delta Kappa Gamma society, an international honorary organization for women educators, honored members of other chapters attending summer school at Southern Oregon college, at a dinner meeting Wednesday, July 10, at North's Chuck Wagon in Medford.

Guests included the state treasurer, Miss Jennie Calhoun, Omega chapter, who brought greetings from the Northwest Regional conference, and Miss Dorothy Norris, Alpha chapter, Cleveland, Ohio, who is teaching a workshop called education of the gifted at Southern Oregon college.

Summer session guests were the Misses Mary Gundersen, Jeannette Jackson, Mable Jackson, Marianna Kerr, Idamary Kurtz, Vera Ochs, Goldie Peterson, Hazel Stansell, and Lucille West.

Miss Florence Allen welcomed the guests and local chapter members and then presented Dr. Dorothy Stolp of Southern Oregon college Theater Arts department, who talked to the group about European drama. Dr. Stolp spent seven months studying theaters abroad, mainly in England. She stressed the availability of plays in Europe as being much greater than in this country and many more theater opportunities exist abroad. Most cities maintain one or two repertoire theaters, she said.

Mrs. J. L. Fader presented gifts from the chapter to three Epsilon members who retired from the teaching profession this spring. These were Miss Florence Allen, Mrs. Mabel Sims, and Mrs. D. R. Sloan.

A note was read from Epsilon chapter's scholarship recipient, Miss Dianne Carter. Mrs. Keith Woodward, who is president of the local chapter as well as state executive secretary, reported results of the Northwest Regional conference held in Rapid City, S.D., in June.

Floral arrangements of roses and daisies decorated the tables. The hostess committee consisted of Miss Allen, chairman; Mrs. Raymond Morris; Mrs. J. B. Hawkins, Miss Gladys Owen and Miss Bertha Stephens.

After a summer recess the society will hold a fall planning meeting at the home of its president, Mrs. Keith Woodward, in Grants Pass on September 21.

Welcome Wagon To Meet Thursday

The monthly social meeting of the Welcome Wagon club of Medford, will be held Thursday, July 18 at 8 p.m. in the Girls Community club. All newcomers are invited to attend.

Six members of the Grants Pass Welcome Wagon club were among those who attended the annual summer luncheon at the Rogue Valley Country club recently. Mrs. Rolland Reed was winner of a prize, with Mrs. Porter Lombard, winner in bridge and Mrs. Charles Skroch, in pinocle.

For an unusual taste in salad dressing, mash one banana into a cup of mayonnaise.

Exhibition of Rare Art Works Being Continued

Art pieces from the Lloyd B. Halverson collection which have been on view at Fontaine's Framing Studio and Gallery, 329 South Grape street, will continue to be shown through the month of July. Hours are 8:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m., Monday through Saturday and 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., on Sundays.

The public is invited to view the exhibit without charge.

The showing includes 18 pen and ink drawings by Hamilton Alde, (Paris 1862 - London 1906); "Polynesian Woman" by Madge Tennant, a renowned artist working in Hawaii and represented in major English and American museums; drawings by James M. W. Turner, (1775-1851); a rare miniature on copper of Oliver Cromwell, as a young man by Jan Mytens, the younger, done in the seventeenth century; "Floral" by A. E. Harriman, English pupil of Henri Fantin-Latour, the famed French floral artist, and "Marin County California, A Cloudy Day" by Carl Jonnevold, well-known nineteenth century Bay area painter.

Also included are drawings by Pietro Da Cortona, Abraham Bloemaerts, E. Duncan and Raphael, the latter a sketch for a ceiling corner mural done, circa 1517; Japanese prints by Hokusai and Toyokuni II; an etching by Thomas Gainsborough and oil paintings by R. G. Vannoy, Oronzo Gasparo and George M. Clarke.

Talent Camp Fire Group Now on Outing

Talent - About 40 Camp Fire Girls of this area planned to attend nine days of camping in Camp Ya-ia-wah-noah at Wagner Forks Youth camp west of Talent, which opened July 12. The camp has been used each summer for the past 12 years by such groups.

The girls are required to take turns at camp cooking, wood gathering, keeping the camp clean and other chores. Eight local women volunteers are supervising the group.

Several Horizon club members, who act as junior counselors, with their advisor, Mrs. Ray Burnett, spent the day previous to the opening preparing the camp for the girls' arrival.

The camp also accommodates Bluebird groups from seven to nine and other girls.

The camp formerly leased from the Forest service by the Talent Federated Women's club, has been sold to the Jackson County court for a permanent picnic and camping area.

Traveling Art Exhibit Here

An exhibit of 18 water color works of Pacific Art Guild members of Astoria, Ore., went on display last week at Mon Desir Dining Inn, Southern Oregon Society of Artists officers have announced. The showing is sponsored by the local group and includes seascapes of the Oregon coast and some abstract paintings.

The exhibit is on an exchange basis with the society which has been invited to show pictures in Astoria in September. The paintings now at the inn are matted in various sizes. They are a part of a traveling exhibit and are for sale, the officers noted.

Ashland Alumni Banquet Slated

Ashland - Alumni from as far away as Florida and Hawaii are expected to arrive in time to attend the annual Ashland High School Alumni banquet July 20. Receiving special honors will be graduates of 50 years ago.

General chairman for the event in the Mark Antony hotel banquet hall is Robert Wright, who announced yesterday that reservations must be made by July 18, either at his office in the hotel or with the alumni secretary, Mrs. Camille Root, 560 Sixtyfour boulevard.

Wedding Held at Home Of Bride's Parents

In a ceremony held in the home of the bride's parents against a background of roses and daisies, Miss Cassandra Anita Satterfield became the bride of Robert Russell Gates, 920 North Central avenue.

The double ring evening rites, performed by the Rev. Leo Wine of the Faith Tabernacle, Ashland, were attended by 27 guests. It was held June 29 at 8 o'clock.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Delmer R. Satterfield, 857 Lone Pine road. Mr. and Mrs. L. Russell Gates, Seattle, are the parents of the bridegroom.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a ballerina length gown of nylon chiffon over taffeta with a bolero jacket trimmed in satin. Her pink veil was shoulder length and was held by a pink pearl band. She carried a bouquet of pink carnations and rosebuds.

Mrs. Robert E. Meyers, aunt of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a pink nylon dress with matching lace bolero and gloves, and a pink and white nylon headband.

Her corsage was of pink carnations.

Henry Alan Dahlke, Hamilton Air Force base, Calif., was best man, and David Ross Bascom served as usher.

At the reception Mrs. Francis E. Johnson cut and served the cake and Mrs. Pearl Crow poured coffee and punch. Mrs. Meyers helped with the gifts and Miss Mary Edna Gates was in charge of the guest book.

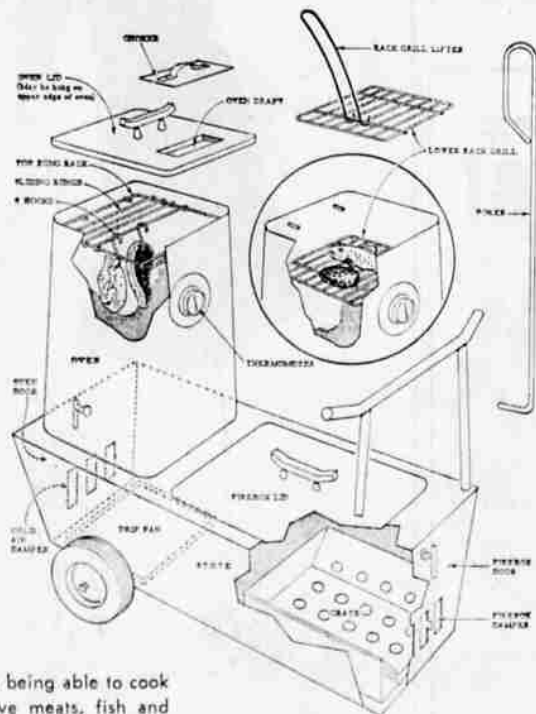

The bride attended Medford High school and is a student at the Medford School of Beauty.

The bridegroom, a graduate of Medford High school, is employed at Weisfield's Jewellers. The couple will be at home at the North Central address.

Among the out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Gates, grandparents of the bridegroom, Rodger and John Gates, uncles of the bridegroom, Miss Mary Edna Gates, cousin of the bridegroom, all of Puyallup, Wash., and Mrs. Carol Fredericksen, aunt of the bridegroom, Tumwater, Wash.

From Ancient China To You Comes a Whole New World of Adventures In Cooking and Eating

TRADER VIC'S CHINESE OVEN

Imagine being able to cook and serve meats, fish and poultry in your own home, with the same incomparable flavor and succulence as that served in TRADER VIC's world famous restaurants. That enjoyment can be yours. Come in and let us tell you more about this fantastic oven.

FULLY EQUIPPED READY TO USE NO EXTRAS TO BUY

Terms

Corner 6th & Fir Streets

Plenty of Offstreet Customer Parking

BIG PINES LUMBER COMPANY

Ph. 773-5333

SPECIAL 139⁵⁰

New Fabrics Are Here... More Are Coming!

WE NEED ROOM

DRESS FORMS
Regular $21.95 NOW $19⁹⁵

Rent A Sewing Machine $1 A Week

FUR TRIMS by the Yard

Mink Buttons Fur Appliques

CORDUROY
40"-24" 88¢ yd.
Colors.....

We Sharpen Scissors and Pinking Shears

MORSE SEWING CENTER
219 South Central • Phone 772-2739

Newberrys PRICE BUSTERS

OPEN SUNDAYS 10 a.m.-5:30 p.m.

Bring the whole family... shop in all 54 big departments, where the selection is wide... the savings big. Treat the family to a delicious luncheon at our:

ROGUE SIDEWALK CAFE

SUNDAY & MONDAY ONLY... Charge It

PRINTED COTTON

- Wide Selection-fine quality
- All cotton
- Washable
- 36 in.-lengths to 8 yards

4 Y D S 99¢

TERRY CLOTH

- All snowy white
- 100% cotton
- 36" width

67¢ yard

PRINTED PETTIPONT

- 100% washable cotton
- 36-45" width
- Reg. 67¢

54¢ yard

SHOPPING CENTER ONLY
635 E. JACKSON - ACRES OF FREE PARKING