CITY POLICE OFFICER CHARGED WITH RAPE
A Medford city police officer, Charles William Eagle, 26, of 246 Winema Way, was arrested on a morals charge Friday night and lodged in Jackson county jail.

Eagle, who joined the city police about six months ago, was arrested on the complaint of the parents of a 15-year-old Medford girl.

Acting Police Chief Clyde C. Fichtner confronted Eagle with the charge Friday night. Under questioning, Eagle admitted having been intimate with the girl, who had been the family baby-sitter.

At the end of the interrogation, Eagle was dismissed from the city police force and was taken to county jail. He was arraigned in district court this morning on a charge of rape and his case was continued for two days so he could consult with an attorney. Bail was set at $5,000.

Appointments Made to Committee
Three new appointments to the Committee for Capital Improvements were announced today by Medford Mayor James Dunlevy.

Named to the committee were Jerry Latnam, 815 Park st.; Mrs. Carol Haupt, 222 Valley View dr.; and L. E. McEachron, 1100 Barnett rd.

Mrs. Alice Rutter, who had been appointed to the committee when it was first formed about two weeks ago, has informed Mayor Dunlevy she will be unable to serve.

At a meeting last Thursday morning, the group elected Councilman Richard Travis as its chairman and decided to meet every Tuesday morning at 7:30 o'clock.

A trip to Eugene to view the civic center there and hold discussions with city officials is planned for Tuesday, July 23, by the committee.

Man Cited After Sunday Accident

Two area men were slightly injured early Sunday when the car in which they were riding collided with a truck at Stewart and South Riverside aves., according to Medford city police reports.

Hurt, but not requiring hospitalization, were the driver, Robert Preston Jones, 21, of 113 Laurel st., and a passenger in his car, Richard Louis Schroeder, 21, of box 442, Footh Creek. Driver of the truck was Floyd Havnear, 34, Sacramento, Calif.

Investigating officers said the collision occurred as Jones attempted to turn left from Highway 99 onto Stewart ave. Jones was cited for making an improper turn.

Three vehicles, one of them parked, were damaged in an accident about 8:30 p.m. Saturday in front of 54 Mace rd. Drivers involved were Virgil Lee Jarman, 42, Central Point, and Richard George Brown, 34, of 1847 Easy st.

The parked car, which was registered to Chester Ernst, 2940 Crater Lake ave., was damaged when it was struck by the Brown vehicle as Brown attempted to pass the Jarman car, according to reports. No citations were issued, and no injuries were reported, officers said.

Labor Officials to Meet Here Tuesday
Federal and state labor officials will meet with the local Fruit Growers League Tuesday, July 16 at 1 p.m., at the League office, 768 South Grape st. The meeting is open to valley orchardists to discuss possible solutions to the pear picking problem expected this season.

No details were available as to what would be discussed here Tuesday.

Analysis shows there is no important difference in the nutrient content of a light or dark shelled egg.

4-H NEWS

Antelope Livestock
The Antelope Livestock 4-H club held a meeting July 11 at the home of Don Anderson. The meeting began by judging sheep and beef animals. Then the business meeting was held. It started about 8:30 p.m. with pledges and minutes being read.

Under new business Ron Anderson said that he had brought clippers to shear animals with and that they would be the club's.

President Jary Hansen talked about the float that was supposed to have been made for the Fourth of July. He also told the club that Henry Owens donated tickets to the club for the Kay Brothers circus which will be at the Armory in Medford.

Under new business a committee was appointed for the fair. The committee will meet tonight at 7 o'clock at the home of Don Anderson.

A painting committee was appointed and the fair was discussed further. Bills were passed.

A report was given on the Josephine county fair by Cheryl Swain.

The next meeting will be Aug. 2 at the home of Howard Hansen at 7 p.m. The sheep club will be in charge.

The meeting was adjourned and the clubs met individually after the meeting. Dixie Schaeffer, Medford, was a guest.

Group Continues McKinley Assault

Talkeetna, Alaska-UP - Seven mountaineers from Harvard were continuing their climb up 20,230 foot Mt. McKinley today, no longer the objects of an air search.

Veteran bush pilot Don Sheldon popped his light plane through a cloud cover at the 17,000 foot level Sunday and spotted the climbers for whom a search had been conducted since last Wednesday.

Sheldon reported that all members of the expedition were in good condition and port on the Talent prefair. Mark Williamson and Cathy Carlson explained the proper filling out of record books and Mary Williamson gave a report on the history of the rabbit.

Our meeting was closed with a lesson on rabbit judging, and Mrs. Stragey had a picnic for the club members. Don Pinkham, Reporter.

Gold Hill Livestock
Before the meeting of the Gold Hill Livestock 4-H club, members viewed Joe and Laura Thomas' pigs. They explained each pig's background and answered questions.

The tenth meeting was called to order by Bill Jones, president, at the Thomas residence. Roll call was answered by project reports. Secretary Peggy Martin read the minutes of the previous meeting.

Laura Thomas gave a report on "Conduct At The Fair."

Fair committees were appointed consisting of Joe Thomas, herdsman for the pig barn; Marie Jones, Peggy Martin, and Don Gail are in charge of the sheep barn, and Candy Gail and Don Gail, the beef barn.

Bob Gail announced that the club would enter 14 pigs, 7 sheep, and 6 beef animals in the fair, Aug. 13 to 17.

The next meeting will be July 22 at Bob Gail's home. Mrs. Thomas served refreshments.

Dog Bite Case to Open in Court

The case of Wheeler against Wilson scheduled before Circuit Judge Edward C. Kelly was postponed to be reset on Aug. 1. It is an action brought by John Wheeler to recover damages from a fire, which was allegedly set.

Uncontested divorce actions were being heard by Circuit Judge James M. Main in the other court.

The first dog bite case to enter circuit court in a long period of time will begin before Judge Kelly Tuesday. The action was brought by Betty Jo Lay as guardian for Vickie Sue Lay, who was allegedly bitten by a dog, owned by Alex and Iva A. Logler, operators of the Agate Dairy on Oregon rd., on Nov. 14, 1960.

The complaint states that the seven-year-old child was "attacked" by the dog. The plaintiff seeks $7,500 general and $2,000 punitive damages.
