Benton Wins On Decision

New York – (UPI) – Veteran middleweight George Benton gave away just about everything but experience to younger, heavier Allen Thomas Saturday night, but that was enough to gain him a unanimous 10-round decision in their nationally televised bout at Madison Square Garden.

Benton, fifth ranked in the middleweight devision, came into the ring a slight favorite and made the odds look good as he boxed and counter punched his way to victory.

At 30, he was giving away eight years to Thomas, 10th ranking light heavyweight from Chicago, who had lost only once before last night and was carrying a 19-bout unbeaten string. Thomas, under contract to make 165 pounds for this bout, actually weighed 164½ to Benton's 162.

Referee Mark Conn called Benton a 6-4 winner, while Judges Frank Forbes and Joe Armstrong had the Philadelphian ahead, 6-3-1, and 8-2, respectively.

Aussie Grabs Lead In Third Round of PGA Golf Tourney

Dallas – (UPI) – Bruce Crampton, the 27-year-old "Iron Man" from Australia, grabbed the third round lead in the PGA golf championship Saturday with a six under par 31-34–65 for a 208 total while Arnold Palmer's hopes died when he fell 12 strokes off the pace.

Crampton, who has played more tour tournaments the last two years than any man in golf ,on this blazing day ignored 105 degree heat as he smashed his way to a two stroke lead over 1958 champion Dow Finsterwald and three ahead of masters champion Jack Nicklaus.

Blew Jack

His sun-blistered scoring featured a day in which Palmer, trying for the only big one which has eluded him, blew his hopes with a 73 for 220; Gary Player blew his stack at a photographer and unknown Dick Hart, the assistant pro from Hinsdale, Ill., blew a three shot lead he had carried into the third round with a "tight collar" 76.

Finsterwald shot a 33-33–66 with a putter which was as hot as this scorching day while Nicklaus fired a 69 to finish one stroke behind slender Dow. Another shot away at 212, one under par for the distance, was young Dave Ragan.

At even par 213 came Billy Maxwell with 69, Doug Ford with a 71 and Doug Sanders with a 70. And one over par at 214 were Dave Hill and Al Geiberger with 69's, Sam Snead with a 70, Julius Boros with a 73 and the broken-hearted Hart with a 76.

Art Wall fired a 66 which moved the former Masters champion into the 215 bracket with Mason Rudolph, who had a 71, and Bill Johnston of Phoenix with a 72.

Player shot a 32-35–67 which he said "might have been a 63 or a 64" if he hadn't been upset by a photographer when he was lining up a six foot putt for a par on the 15th hole.

"Don't you realize you could cost me the tournament?" Player shouted at the photographer. "Don't you have any feelings?"

Gary blew the putt and then, still upset, three-putted the 16th from 30 feet — missing the second time from a mere one foot.

That put him at 216 along with Jim Ferrier and Tommy Jacobs, who shot 70, Wes Ellis with a 71 and Manuel de la Torre with a 74.

Champagne Tony Lema, who had been making a big run at the front, zoomed to a 76 which placed him at 217 along with Shelley Mayfield, Dan Sikes, Big Mike Souchak, British Open champion Bob Charles, Paul Harney, Bo Wininger and Earl Stewart.

Billy Farrell and former U.S. Open champion Gene Littler were at 218; former winner Jerry Barber at 219, and at 220 along with Palmer were former champion Jackie Burke and Don January.

Mills Snares Golf Crown

Cincinnati, Ohio –(UPI)– Mary Mills, an unshakeable 23-year-old Mississippean who turned pro less than a year ago, Saturday won the U. S. Women's open golf tournament by four strokes with a 4-under-par 288.

Undaunted by stiff winds, soggy greens and a bevy of veteran pros the slow talking blonde from Gulf Hills, Miss., fired a par 73 on the last round of the championship and staved off threats from Louise Suggs and Sandra Haynie, who tied for second at 292.

Going into the final round three strokes ahead of veteran Miss Suggs, Miss Mills played par golf over the first 17 holes but almost chipped a shot into the woods from the 18th tee.

The ball landed less than a foot inside the fairway and she recouped to shoot a par four on the hole, which proved troublesome to both second place finisher. The Mississippean birdied the No. 3 hole with a 3½ foot uphill putt, bogied on the 6th when the wind carried her ball into a sand trap at the edge of the green, birdied on the 12th and had a bogie on the 13th.
