Art Classes Plan Tea

Youngsters completing the art classes sponsored by the Rogue Valley Art association will exhibit their work at a tea for parents and others interested in children's art Tuesday, July 23, at Rogue gallery, 220 West Main street.

Tea will be served from 10 a.m. to 12 noon, and children may be registered at that time for the next series of classes.

Aim of the classes, according to the instructor, Mrs. Janet Schmitz, is to stimulate the students' creative growth through experiences in the use of paint. Emphasis is put on what the student gets from the art experience rather than on the final product.

Children between the ages of 7 and 12 may be enrolled in the classes, which will be taught Tuesday and Thursday mornings in the Medford library.

Cost of materials for the course is approximately $4, and a registration fee is charged.

Persons desiring further information about the classes may telephone Mrs. Schmitz at 772-4754.
