

Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Vinton Keys

Patricia Gossman Wed To Dennis Vinton Keys

Central Point - In a double ring ceremony held at the Medford Friends church, Miss Patricia Louise Gossman became the bride of Dennis Vinton Keys.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Gossman, 438 Gibson road, Central Point, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Keys, 4860 Hope drive, Central Point.

The Rev. Jack Willcuts officiated at the evening ceremony, attended by 100 guests, which was held Saturday, June 29 at 7 o'clock in the evening.

The bride was dressed in a floor length gown of Chantilly lace and tulle over taffeta with a fitted bodice and scoop neckline embroidered with iridescent sequins. A band of embroidered lace trimmed the front pleum and the tulle ruffles on the skirt. The hemline was trimmed with sequins.

Her bouffant veil of hand-rolled silk illusion in elbow length was held by a miniature crown of pearls and iridescent crystals. She carried yellow roses encircled by white carnations.

The maid of honor, Miss Jessie Lucille Cavin, wore a dress of pink lace over taffeta. Miss Bernice Gardner, bridesmaid, wore a gown of pink chiffon over taffeta. The dresses had sashes which were tied at the back, and both the maid of honor and bridesmaid carried bouquets of pink roses encircled with white carnations.

Kathren Poulson, niece of the bridegroom, and Rhonda Gossman, cousin of the bride, both Medford, served as flower girls. They wore pink lace dresses over taffeta and carried baskets with pink and red rose petals.

T. D. Keys, brother of the bridegroom, was best man, and Michael and Marvin Poulson, Medford, twin nephews of the bridegroom, were ring bearers.

Wayne McDonald and George McDonald, Medford, served as ushers. Miss Darlene Paulson, who was candlelighter, wore a green semi-formal dress of lace over taffeta.

Arranges Flowers
Flowers were arranged by Mrs. Richard Arndt.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Gossman wore a blue and green sheath dress and Mrs. Keys was dressed in a pink sheath frock. Both had white accessories.

The reception which was attended by some 70 guests, was given by Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Thomas, 1684 Minear road, Medford.

Security Club To Honor Members During Luncheon

During the July 31 meeting club officers will be installed. Mrs. Ed McCracken was pianist for last week's meeting when the group sang.

All interested persons are invited to the weekly meetings, held each Wednesday from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m., with luncheon served at 12 noon.

From Holland
Ashland - Visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Dunn, 4400 Highway 66, is Mrs. Dunn's father, F. A. Moes, of Amsterdam, Holland. Mr. Moes plans to return home after spending some time in India and New Zealand with two sons.

Couple Returns Home After Trip to Coast

Applegate - Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Lanis Kenney, whose wedding took place June 22 at Trinity Episcopal church, Ashland, have returned from their wedding trip to the Oregon coast. They are at home at 277 Laurel street, Ashland.

The bride is the former Julia Ann Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George R. Brown, Applegate, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Roger L. Kenney, Helena, Mont.

The ceremony was performed at two o'clock in the afternoon by the Rev. Duane S. Alvord. About 150 guests attended. The altar was decorated with yellow and white gladiolus.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length dress made with lace bodice over satin and skirt of peau de sole fashioned in shepherdess style. Her elbow length veil was held by a diamond shaped panel of pearls with a pearl drop and she carried a bouquet of yellow and white roses.

Miss Stephanie Anderson, Medford, was maid of honor, Miss Penny Cantwell, Grants Pass, was bridesmaid and Miss Nancy Brown, sister of the bride, was junior bridesmaid. They wore street length dresses of yellow and cream taffeta brocade fashioned with bell skirts. Their headresses were silk roses and they carried bouquets of yellow roses.

Thomas Kenney, Helena, Mont., brother of the bridegroom was best man, and another brother of the bridegroom and Everett Winters, Ashland. Acolytes were Douglas Burdick and John Zupan.

Everett Winters, the soloist, was accompanied by Mrs. Glenn Taylor, organist.

The bride's mother wore a yellow silk dress with elbow length jacket and petal hat in shades of brown and yellow with bone colored accessories. The bridegroom's mother chose a blue lace dress with blue straw hat and blue accessories. Both wore white carnation corsages.

A reception was held in the church parish hall. The wedding cake, baked and decorated by Mrs. Norman Klavano, was cut and served by Mrs. Winters with a cake knife presented to the bride and bridegroom by Mr. and Mrs. Raoul Maddox.

Presiding at the punch bowl was Mrs. Lee Kenney, sister-in-law of the bridegroom and pouring coffee was Mrs. Thomas R. Brown, Thermal, Calif., aunt of the bride. Miss Sue Kenney, sister of the bridegroom had charge of the guest book.

Others assisting with the reception were Mrs. Lee Brown, Grants Pass, cousin of the bride, Mrs. Francis Krouse, Miss Madeline Meadors, cousin of the bride, and Miss Linda Pittcock, all Applegate. Friends of the bridegroom serenaded the couple at the reception with band numbers. The group included Dr. B. H. Cope, Raoul Maddox, David Wight, Richard Cottle, Robert Reinholdt and David Fortmiller.

For her wedding trip Mrs. Kenney wore a salmon colored suit with white accessories. She is a graduate of Southern Oregon college and will teach at the Ashland High school this fall. The bridegroom is a graduate of Montana State university and is band instructor at Ashland Junior High school.

Out of town guests included Mrs. Theodore Fish, Tulelake, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. Thomas R. Brown, Thermal, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Brown and daughter, Judy, Grants Pass.

The Past Chiefs club of Pythian Sisters will meet at the home of Mrs. Walter Michael, 475 Charlotte Anne road, Tuesday July 23 at 1 p.m. A potluck luncheon will be served with Mrs. Ida Ireland as co-hostess. A business meeting will be conducted.
