College Students Wed; Now in Cave Junction

Cave Junction—Mr. and Mrs. Leland H. Rosenberg, whose marriage was a recent event in St. Matthias Episcopal church here, are living at Forest lodge motel. They made their wedding trip to a summer cabin near Redmond, returning by way of Portland, Coos Bay and Eugene.

The bride, the former Miss Arlene Louise Gibbons, is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Gibbons, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Donald Rosenberg, all Cave Junction.

The Rev. Albert Sayers, Grants Pass officiated for the June 29 rites read at 10 o'clock in the morning. About 50 guests attended.

Mr. Gibbons gave his daughter in marriage. Her floor length gown was of satin brocade with rounded neckline and three-quarter length sleeves. Small bows trimmed the circular cuffs. A white rose held her fingertip veil and she carried a bouquet of white orchids and stephanotis with a white Bible.

Miss Myrna Gibbons, a sister, was honor attendant and Miss Phyllis Beard, Taklma, Ore., was bridesmaid. Flower girls were Melinda, Peggy and Gayle Rosenberg, sisters of the bridegroom. Chris Basham lighted the candles.

The attendants wore pink gowns similar to the bride's gown, and carried crescent shaped bouquets of white orchids.

The flower girls' dresses were of pink shantung also similar to the one worn by the bride.

Gordon Lowell, Myrtle Creek, was best man. Ushering was Jerry Gibbons.

A bouquet of mixed flowers decorated the altar and white bows were used on the pews.

Mrs. Lester Basham was organist.

The reception, given by the bride's parents, was held in the Parish hall. Mrs. Dollie Rosenberg, and Mrs. W. C. Gibbons, grandmothers of the bridegroom and bride, poured and Mrs. Harry Showhan, an aunt of the bride, served the wedding cake. Mrs. C. O. Haggard served punch and Miss Linda Ellison was in charge of the guest book.

The bride's mother wore a green floral print dress with matching accessories and the bridegroom's mother was dressed in a light blue suit. Both had pink rose corsages.

Both the bride and bridegroom were graduated in 1960 from Illinois Valley High school and both will be senior students at Oregon State university in the fall. The bride is majoring in home economics and the bridegroom is studying business administration.

For the wedding trip the bride chose a blue and white striped suit with white accessories.

Cornett-Jones Ceremony

Rogue River—When Miss Janice Louise Jones became the bride of Joseph Howard Cornett in a ceremony held at Hope Presbyterian church, heirlooms of the Jones and William H. Breeding families, of which the bride is a descendant, were used at the reception which followed.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morris M. Jones, East Evans creek and granddaughter of Mrs. Robert E. Breeding, Brookings, who attended the rites. The Breeding family was one of the first settlers in this area.

The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Cornett, Grayland, Wash., who traveled here for the ceremony.

The Rev. Henry Holsinger, pastor of the Wimer Community church, officiated at the double ring ceremony attended by 150 relatives and friends. The evening rites were held at 8 o'clock June 29.

Baskets of white and lavender gladioli, calla-lilies, rhododendron and fern decorated the church and white satin bows marked the pews ends. Mrs. Robert R. Gail played the organ wedding music.

Wears Lace
The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of lace and tulle over taffeta. It was fashioned with fitted bodice, scalloped neckline and long sleeves. The full tiered skirt was trimmed with lace. A cascade of lace ruffles formed a panel in back and her fingertip length veil of silk illusion was held by a tiara and lily of the valley. She carried a nosegay of white chrysanthemums encircling a lavender orchid. Her jewelry was a solitaire pendant, a gift from the bridegroom.

Miss Linda Jo Britton, Roseburg, was honor attendant. She wore a lavender brocade sheath dress with matching veil held by a cluster of white rosebuds and lilies. She carried a nosegay of lavender chrysanthemums.

Cheryl Lynn Schuitz was flower girl for her cousin. She wore a white lace dress over lavender taffeta and head-dress similar to the maid of honor's. She carried a white basket filled with small lavender orchids.

Michael Alves, Brookings, served as best man. Seating the guests were Robert Jones and Allen Jones, brothers of the bride, and Delbert Schultz, her cousin.

For her daughter's wedding and reception which followed Mrs. Jones chose a pale yet low tissue wool suit with white accessories. Mrs. Cornett wore a rose dress with matching accessories. Their corsages were white chrysanthemums.

The reception was held in Barnett hall at the church. Mrs. Elvis L. Schultz, assisted by Miss Marketh Palmerton cut and served the tiered wedding cake. Mrs. Charles B. Britton, Roseburg, aunt of the bride, cut and served a cake she had baked and decorated. Miss Florence Oliver, assisted by Miss Charlene Crabousk, presided at the punch bowl.

Mrs. Harold Vickers poured coffee from an heirloom silver coffee urn which has been in the Jones family for more than 200 years and was a gift to the bride's parents from her paternal grandmother when they were married 35 years ago in Rogue River. Other pieces of heirloom silver from the Breeding family were used on the serving tables.

Miss Christine Moore was in charge of the guest book and Miss Grabouski and Miss Oliver were at the gift table. Becky Britton and Nancy Breeding, cousins of the bride, passed bags of rice.

The couple traveled to the Oregon Caves Resort on their wedding trip, the bride wearing a blue and white suit with white accessories and the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

Among the out of town guests were Miss Pamela Cornett, Grayland, Wash., sister of the bridegroom; James Breeding, Wolf Creek, great-uncle of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Leo Buller, Tacoma, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Norman W. Jones and Connie, Klammath Falls, and Mr. and Mrs. Luther Slaughter and Steven, Billy and Susan, Springfield. Mr. and Mrs. Gary Coates, Brookings, honored the newlyweds at a reception held July 6. The couple are making their home in that city on Chetco avenue.

The bride attended Rogue River schools and was graduated from Rogue River High school. He attended schools in Ocosta, Wash., and served in the U. S. Navy for six years. He is employed by Brookings Plywood plant.

Freeze Sandwiches For Week's Supply

Make lunch box packing a breeze by preparing a week's supply of sandwiches at a time. Wrap the sandwiches individually in moisture-proof material, then freeze.

In the morning pack the sandwiches, still frozen, into sacks or lunch boxes. They'll thaw to delicious just-made freshness by lunchtime.

Newlyweds Make Home In Ashland

Ashland—Mr. and Mrs. Joseph S. Bates have returned from New Mexico and Texas where they made their wedding trip following their recent marriage in Ashland Faith tabernacle. The bride, Miss Elsie Lorraine McDougall, is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. McDougall, 767 East Main street, Ashland.

The bridegroom, who has been living at Phoenix, is a son of Mrs. T. R. Bates, Pep, N.M., and the late Mr. Bates. While on their trip, the newly married couple visited his mother and also attended a reunion of the bridegroom's relatives at La Mesa, Tex.

They now are living at 105 1/2 Bush street, Ashland.

The Rev. Harold McDonald of the Phoenix First Assembly of God church performed the ceremony June 10. About 120 guests attended the 6 o'clock evening rites.

Father Gives Bride
Mr. McDougall gave his daughter in marriage. The bride's floor length gown was of lace and net over satin. The lace bodice was designed with long sleeves and the full tiered skirt was made with tiers of ruffles. Her lace elbow length veil was held by a rhinestone crown. She carried pink rosebuds and white carnations on a white Bible.

Mrs. Vernon Harper, Loy-alton, Calif., was matron of honor for her sister and bridesmaids were the Misses Rebecca Peters and Joanna Peters, twin sisters. Brenda Harper, a niece of the bride, was the flower girl and Jur-tis Wine carried the rings.

The attendants wore pink taffeta gowns with bell hats were white and they carried pink and white carnations.

Leo Schmelzer was best man and Eugene Bates, Talent, a cousin of the bridegroom, and Calvin Walker, Medford, were ushers.

Candles were lighted by Carolyn Williams, Talent, and Terrie McDougall, both nieces of the bride.

Pink and white gladioli decorated the church. Alfred Lee Saunders, Medford, was soloist and the Rev. Leo Wine, organist.

The bride's mother wore a blue and white print dress and her corsage was of pink carnations.

Mrs. Saunders had charge of arrangements for the reception held in the tabernacle reception room. Pink and white decorations were used. Miss Beverly Maynard registered the guests.

The bride attended Ashland High school and the bridegroom attended schools in Dora, N.M. He is employed by the Cal-Ore and Superior Roofing company as a salesman.

Church Women Will Begin New Study Series

A new study series for groups of the Women's fellowship of First Christian church is to begin Tuesday, July 23. "Church Spires in City Skyscrapers" is the topic taken from the interdenominational mission study for July through December.

Purpose of the study is for recognition by churches of the responsibilities and challenges presented as city life changes when persons move to suburban areas. Churches in this country and Canada are using this study guide.

McCracken group will meet at 10 a.m. for brunch, with Mrs. A. W. Denny, 2995 Madrona lane and the Weare group will meet at that hour in the home of Mrs. Frank Chapman, 1041 West Fourteenth street.

The group which will meet at 1 p.m., are Clark, Mrs. Jack Houston, 1111 Dakota avenue, for dessert luncheon; Swander, Mrs. Ruby Hicks, 1001 Murray street; Troxell, Mrs. Asa Lemon, 181 Vashiti way, with Mrs. Lester Childs, co-hostess.
