

Dodgers Lose Doubleheader To Braves; Giants Win One

By DICK JOYCE
UPI Sports Writer
You say you were thrown out of both ball games Sunday for umpire-baiting? Your team lost a doubleheader and you were hit in the face with a beer container?

Chin up, Walter Alston, your Los Angeles Dodgers are leading the National league by six games and you have a nine-game home stand coming up.

In the sixth inning of the first game by umpire Tom Gorman. In the first inning of the nightcap, umpire Stan Landes gave the Dodger manager the thumb. And then a Milwaukee fan belted Alston with a paper beer container.

Giants Rest Up After Disastrous Road Journey

San Francisco—UPI—The San Francisco Giants have all day Monday to think about how they are going to catch the league-leading Los Angeles Dodgers. Tuesday night they will see how their plotting and planning works out.

Sunday San Francisco pitched out 16 hits off four Cincinnati pitchers to take a 10-5 win and salvage one of the three games with the Ohio club. Included in the barrage, biggest in two months for Alvin Dark's troops, were home runs by Jim Davenport, Felipe Alou and Orlando Cepeda.

The Siskiyou Sports Car club held an Eclipse Auto cross at the Medford Armory Sunday, July 21.

In the contest Dark had to use only two pitchers—some-what of a switch to the three, four and five he has been using. Billy O'Dell went 3 2/3 innings, gave up three runs and six hits. Bob Bolin came in and gave three hits in 5 1/2 frames to cinch his fifth triumph against three losses.

Class D winner was Bill Brooks driving a Porsche, followed by Dean Spears, second, and Bob Ferns, third.

The Giants wasted little time jumping on 13-game winner Jim O'Toole. They got six hits and five runs in three innings to hand the Red twirler his sixth loss. The first six Giant regulars garnered 15 of the 16 hits.

McGUIRE SIGNS

Boston—UPI—Connie McGuire, former Southeast Oklahoma State star, has signed his first professional contract with the Boston Celtics of the National Basketball association.

On Saturday Elvin Tappe's lads blasted Bob (No-Hit) Radovich 15-0 while Cal Konce shutout the Indians on five hits. Then Sunday Danny Ozark started another ace, Joe Moeller but he didn't last two innings. The Bees jumped on him and two relievers for 11 runs and after three frames held a 16-0 lead.

Nicklaus Wins PGA Golf Title

By LEO H. PETERSEN
UPI Sports Editor
Dallas—UPI—Jack Nicklaus, at 23, figured today he was "a grown man."

For now he has won 'em all that he set out to win when he turned professional golfer a year and a half ago. He won the U. S. Open in June of 1962, and the Masters last April.

After that victory he said he didn't think he still had arrived. "Wait until I win the PGA," he declared. "When I win that one, I'll consider myself a man."

He won that Sunday when he broke the hearts of those chasing him with a 30-foot birdie putt on the 15th hole of the heat-seared Dac Country club course before a 110-degree sweat-soaked crowd of 12,500.

Portland Takes Pair From Dallas-Ft. Worth

Although Spokane has some of the top pitchers in the Pacific Coast league, they haven't puzzled Salt Lake City batters a little bit.

The triumph swelled his bankroll $13,000 to a total of $75,140, leaving him only $10,815 behind Golden Boy Arnold Palmer, who finished in a tie for 40th place — and $410 prize money — as once again he failed to win the only major golf tournament that has eluded him.

It gave Nicklaus more than golfing gold, too — for it gave him golfing glory. He became only the fourth golfer in history to win the three big ones — the Open, Masters and PGA — putting him into the ranks of the game's greatest — Ben Hogan, Byron Nelson and Gene Sarazen. But none of them did it like Nicklaus. It took them a year — it took Nicklaus only a year and a half.

That 15th hole birdie in the scorching heat turned back the bids of two 27-year-olds, Dave Ragan and Aussie Bruce Crampton. They had been charging Nicklaus down to the wire until that big putt on the 15th.

Detroit's Lary Pitches Win Over Angels; Yanks Nab Two

By NORMAN MILLER
UPI Sports Writer
It was an old familiar baseball tableau: Veteran Frank Lary of the Tigers struggling along the comeback trail to save his pitching career while young Al Downing of the Yankees jauntily strode the road to World Series gold and glory.

There was satisfaction for both Sunday.

The 32-year-old Lary scored his first victory in more than a year when he pitched a four-hitter as the Detroit Tigers defeated the Los Angeles Angels, 8-2.

It was a long time between major league victories for Lary, who returned to the Tigers three weeks ago after a stretch with Knoxville of the Sally league, where he had been sent to pitch his ailing shoulder back into shape.

Lary struck out five batters and walked only two in pitching the distance. A 13-hit Tiger attack with four stolen bases, and four Los Angeles errors, all helped. Angels starter Dean Chance aided Lary's cause with an error during Detroit's three-run sixth inning.

Meanwhile, Downing pitched an odd game in which he struck out 10 batters and walked nine before tiring in the ninth inning and requiring relief from Hal Reniff. This was the fourth straight game in which Downing fanned 10 or more hitters. Harry Bright hit a two-run homer for New York.

Bobby Richardson's one-out, 11th inning single off old Early Wynn produced the Yankee's nightcap victory and stretched the Indians' losing streak to nine games. Wynn who scored the 300th win of his career eight days ago, entered the game in relief after Woody Held's tri-
