YMCA Bus Trips Are Scheduled

The 'High Road to Adventure' is the title given to a series of bus trips for boys, planned by the Medford YMCA.

Fathers are invited to participate whenever possible. Registrations must be received by the Medford YMCA one week before each trip.

On Aug. 24, the YMCA tour will go to Jacksonville. The boys will visit the Carbetta Aquarium, the Jacksonville Museum and the Pioneer Village. Stagecoach rides will be available.

A trip to the Applegate area has been scheduled for Aug. 28 for swimming and fishing. There will be stops to view the old diggings of early day mining and a ghost town.

Lifeguards With Group. Guides and lifeguards will accompany the boys on all the trips.

The Crater lake camping trip for boys 11 to 15 is planned for Aug. 17 and 18. It will include a launch trip around the lake, hikes to Boundary Springs and Mt. Scott, fishing and campfire sessions.
