Yankees Keep On Winning

By FRED DOWN
UPI Sports Writer

It looks like an old-fashioned New York Yankee runaway – perhaps the easiest since the Yankees themselves romped by 12 games in 1947.

That's the picture in the American league today with the world champions 7½ games in front of the pack and just starting a long home stand where they almost always are at their best.

The Yankees made it four in a row on their current home stand when they whipped the Los Angeles Angels, 8-4, Monday night and opened a 7½-game lead on the idle second-place Chicago White Sox. No other major league games were scheduled in either league.

Ralph Terry, the World Series hero of 1962, staggered the full nine innings on the strength of an an early Yankee assault that produced a 7-0 lead after three innings. Terry was tagged for 12 hits – including Lee Thomas' two-run homer in the fourth inning and Bob Sadowski's two-run single in the eighth – but evened his season record at 10-10.

The White Sox will have a chance to gain ground tonight when they play a twi-night doubleheader in Detroit. Other AL games have Los Angeles at New York, Minnesota at Cleveland, Washington at Baltimore and Kansas City at Boston.

In tonight's National league games, Pittsburgh is at Los Angeles, New York at San Francisco, St. Louis at Milwaukee and Philadelphia at Houston. Cincinnati is at Chicago in an afternoon game.

The Twins defeated the Braves, 5-2, and the Cardinals beat the Kansas City Athletics, 4-3, in Monday night exhibition games at Milwaukee and Kansas City, respectively.

Garibaldi, on the other hand happened to be on the hill when his mates were not hitting much. Salt Lake won it 4-3 in the 12th with Garibaldi going all the way and dropping a five-hitter to even his record at 9-9. Fred Burdette won in relief for the Bees.

Warsaw – (UPI) – America's not too happy track and field stars began prepping for this week end's dual meet with Poland, confident of victory but aware that the Poles are capable of pulling some surprises.

"We will do better here than in Moscow," said Amateur Athletic Union President Louis J. Fisher, "but there will be keen competition from the Poles."

Tennis Players Come Home, Tell About National Tourney

Pert Miss Mary Gordenier of Medford returned Sunday after netting second place in the National Junior Chamber of Commerce tennis tournament in Provo, Utah, last week.

Mary, along with three other Medford players who won their divisions in the recent Oregon Junior Chamber of Commerce tournament and Mr. and Mrs. Ron Singler, left for Provo, Friday, July 12, to attend the National Jaycee tourney.

In the opening round of the national tournament Mary drew a bye. She then advanced to the quarter finals on a default by Mary Parsons of Indiana. On Wednesday she won her quarterfinals match over Judy Davis of Oklahoma 6-2, 6-0. On Thursday, she won the semi-finals over Christine Wimpling of Missouri 6-4, 4-6, 6-1.

On Friday, though, she was upset by the other semi-finalist winner, Pat Metz of Carmichael, Calif., 6-3, 6-3.

Three other Medford titlists in the state tourney who accompanied Miss Gordenier on the Provo trip were Jeanne Salade, Ken Meyers and Kathy Smith.

Miss Salade entered in the Novice division for girls under 18, defeated Susan Kinley of Oklahoma 6-0, 6-0. Following that match she lost to Jane Farley, also of Oklahoma, 6-2, 6-0.

Ken Meyers defeated Scott Bristol of Vermont 6-3, 8-6 to place himself in the running for the quarter finals. Meyers then defeated Steve Norman of West Virginia 6-3, 6-3. In the semi-finals, however, Meyers was beaten by Charles Fritz of California 6-3, 6-4.

Kathy Smith was defeated in the beginning rounds Tuesday fy Leora Trice 6-0, 6-0. Miss Smith was entered in the regular 18 and under division. Her opponent, Miss Trice of Baton Rouge, Louisiana, is presently ranked number 13 by the United States Lawn Tennis association.

The annual Jaycees tourney was the tenth so far to be held at Brigham Young university and it was also the third year that girls' competition has been included at the national level.

Gaming Petition Theft Dispute Argued in Court

Olympia, Wash. –(UPI)– Action in the Washington gambling referendum dispute shifted to the State Supreme Court today following a Superior Court decision that the issue should be submitted to the voters.

Thurston County Superior Court Judge Charles T. Wright ruled Monday that Secretary of State Victor A. Meyers was within his legal rights when he certified the referendum to the ballot in spite of the theft of the supporting petitions.

Wright said that if the crime was permitted to keep the issue off the ballot, it would have the effect of "placing a premium on the commission of a felony."

To Appeal Decision

Seattle attorney John E. Hedrick said the decision would be appealed to the state's highest court.

Hedrick had urged Wright to issue an order which would keep the referendum off the November, 1964, general election ballot. He said state law does not permit a referendum to be submitted to the people unless the secretary of state had conducted a name-by-name check of the signatures on the petitions.

But Wright said the people's right of initiative and referendum were supreme under the state constitution. He said no statute could be permitted to interfere with that right.

RUSSIANS IN CHURCH

London – (UPI) – The Rev. Falkner Allison, bishop of Winchester, arrived in London from Moscow Monday and said he was amazed to see a "fair" number of young persons in Russian churches.

Mrs. F. L. Cronin of Portland shot a 78 to take medalist honors in the women's division and defending champion Fred Siegel of Spokane and Hugh McCredie of Portland fired 76s to tie for medalist honors in the senior men's division in qualifying play.

Match play in the men's and seniors' division was scheduled today. There was no action in the women's division.
