

COMING
THURSDAY

MEDFORD  TRIBUNE
 DOWNTOWN MEDFORD SECTION — WEDNESDAY, JULY 24, 1963

POW WOW

DAYS
 SALE in DOWNTOWN MEDFORD

THURSDAY
 FRIDAY and SATURDAY
 July 25, 26 and 27

INDIAN DANCERS

Authentic Indian dancers, who are now performing at the Pioneer Village in Jacksonville, will present their colorful dances in the First National Bank Parking Lot Friday Night from 7:30 to 8:30 and Saturday Afternoon from 2:00 to 3:00 o'clock. This is an added feature of Downtown Medford's big Pow Wow Days Sale and entertainment you won't want to miss. Be sure to bring the children and see these interesting and exciting Indian dances!

HEAP BIG SAVINGS!

— Plus —

FREE

Entertainment

You will want to see the Indian dances . . . and if you are a thrifty Buck or Squaw, bring along your papooses and make big Pow Wow in Downtown Medford this week-end! You'll save heap big wampum because the merchants of Medford are on the warpath and scalping prices right and left. Downtown Medford's trading posts are piled high with things, and once you see them you won't need smoke signals to get the message.

park & shop

CORRALS
 For Pintos and Cars!

. . . There are lots of them throughout the village . . . conveniently located close to the trading posts you want to visit. Tie us to a hitching post in one of these Park & Shop corrals! No Wampum needed.