

Bob Perry Bats Hawaii To PCL Win; Portland Divides

United Press International—Bob Perry's all-expense trip to Hawaii may be a short one, if the outfielder continues his heavy bombardment of Pacific Coast league pitching.

The Los Angeles Angels, going nowhere in the American league, sent Perry down to Hawaii in a seven-ply shuffle early this month.

Perry responded Tuesday night by whacking two homers to lead the Islanders past Seattle 7-4.

Elsewhere around the far-flung PCL Tuesday night, Spokane continued its hot pace with Tacoma hanging tough in second place in their two team Northern Division struggle.

Spokane fell behind Denver 3-0 after one inning, then marched to a 16-4 massacre of the Bears.

Big John Pregenzer's relief artistry brought Tacoma a 9-7 win over Salt Lake City to keep the Giants four games back.

The game was delayed 90 minutes by rain. Unfortunately for Denver, the contest then started.

The third of the Alou brothers may soon be joining the siblings on the San Francisco Giants.

Jesus Alou has brought his average up some 30 points in recent days and Tuesday night contributed a two-run single in the eighth inning uprisings that gave the Giants a win over Salt Lake.

Cap Peterson, Paul Smith and Alou led a 15-hit barrage. Salt Lake hit less but made them count almost as well as they pulled ahead 5-3, then two games of the 89ers with a 2-0 squeaker over San Diego.

Perry and Bobby Knoop were almost the whole show at Honolulu as Perry drove in four runs and Knoop also hit a homer and had two runs batted in.

Jim McLothlin picked up the win, but owed most of his success to relief ace Bob Duhla who pitched 3 2/3 hitless innings.

Joe Moeller looked as though he might not last long at Denver when J. W. Porter, filling in for injured catcher Bob Uecker, clouted a 3-run homer.

But Moeller, now 10-9, was still going strong at the end while four Denver hurlers were bombed for 19 hits by the Spokane sluggers.

Jim Barbieri paced the Indian hitters with two doubles, three singles and a walk.

Cap Peterson, Paul Smith and Alou led a 15-hit barrage. Salt Lake hit less but made them count almost as well as they pulled ahead 5-3, then ted it up 6-8 in the sixth. But Big John Pregenzer came in about that time to subdue the Salt Lake cub while Alou and pinchhitter Don Giles' eighth inning slugging put Tacoma ahead to stay.

Both Oklahoma City-Portland games were 7-inning affairs.

Heavy hitting was contributed by Bob Boyd and Dan Murphy, who had five of the 89ers 10 hits and drove in five of their eight runs.

The nightcap was all Portland as Monty Montegudo tossed a three hitter. Montegudo, the loop's leading strikeout artist, fanned eight and now has an 8-10 record.

Heist's homer accounted for both 89er runs.

The Beavers scored on a solo four master by Johnny Wojcik, a two-run single by Jim Hughes and doubles by Chet Boak and Dick Green.

Bob Baillargeon scattered six San Diego hits and Jay Ward chipped in with his 15th homer to highlight the struggle at Dallas.

Tony Oliva tripled and scored on a roller down the third base line to account for the other Ranger run.

Baillargeon allowed only one man to get as far as third, while Ted Willis was the tough-look loser.

The perennial All-Star football coach said it was "too early" to decide which one of the four would be on the field at the start of the big game.

"Actually we have one too many quarterbacks — it creates a problem. No one quarterback is head and shoulders above the others—they're all good."

Graham said if two or more of his field generals were "about even" before the game, "I might even toss a coin."

The always-optimistic Graham said, "we expect to give them — the Packers — one heck of a battle and with a little luck we can win."

Las Vegas—UPI—The world may sneer at Sonny Liston and, abhor his background, despite the fact that he is the heavyweight champion of the world.

But to Father Edward Patrick Murphy, a parish priest out of one of Denver's poorest districts, Liston is a "great man with a fine future."

"If he lets me down, I'll be quite surprised," the short, husky, white-haired priest said in a low, even voice after Liston's second victory over Floyd Patterson.

"In three years of being close to Liston, Father Murphy has heard the champion's whole story: Born to abject poverty in a starved family of 25 children; set to pitching cotton by the time he could walk; never had a piece of meat or a glass of milk—'unless he stole it from a cow'—until he was 14 years old.

"He admits frankly and humbly that he made mistakes, serious ones," says this knowing little man. "But when he went to the penitentiary Father Alois Stevens started him boxing. That was the start of a long trip out of the gutter in which he unfortunately had been born.

"This is a man who truly loves children," added Father Murphy. "If he is suspicious and withdrawn from adults it is only that he doesn't understand them. This is a man with a fine IQ but he simply has not had the advantages or gained the flexibility which comes with education.

But that, he holds, is a situation with which Liston is learning to cope better and better each day. And Father Murphy believes that Liston now is stable enough that there will be no repetition of his previous indiscretions.

The little priest had a heart attack last year and he smiles reflectively at Liston's advice. "He told me," he said, "to remember that every time you get belted you've got to learn to land on your feet."

Father Murphy honestly believes that, at last, Charles (Sonny) Liston has done just that.

Oregon Wrestlers Win Again

Asahigawa, Japan—UPI—An all-Oregon high school wrestling team won its third match in four starts in Japan Tuesday by defeating a team from schools in the Asahigawa area in Japan's northern island of Hokkaido.

The Americans won by 6 matches to 2.

The results:
110 pounds: Shigeru Nakada decided Rich Heniyoji, Portland, 10-1.

120 pounds: Rick Sanders, Portland, decided Masoyuki Taniguchi, 3-0.

130 pounds: Katsuri Sasaki decided Grant Humphrey, Klamath Falls, 4-2.

140 pounds: Keith Flack, Canby, decided Yugi Shibuya, 7-3.

150 pounds: Don Dykstra, Lebanon, decided Akira Itoh, 7-0.

160 pounds: Rollin Schimmel, Rainier, decided Hiroaki Teramoto, 6-2.

170 pounds: Fred Fozzard, Portland, decided Kenji Kumagawa, 16-4.

180 pounds: Hank Schenk, Silverton, pinned Elji Suzuki, 6-27.

190 pounds: Toshiro Hoshino decided Don Kauffman, Lebanon, 7-0.

Heavyweight: Harold Weight, Portland, pinned Katsuyuki Yasui, 5-04.

Liston Flies Home After Retaining Boxing Crown

By JACK CUDDY
UPI Sports Writer

Las Vegas—UPI—As heavyweight champion Sonny Liston flew home to Denver today, his plans called for a trip late next week to Philadelphia for the probable announcement of his next title defense against Cassius Clay in the Quaker City, Sept. 30.

Big Sonny, who again knocked out Floyd Patterson in the first round at the Las Vegas Convention Center Monday night, will combine pleasure with business on his eastern trip next week, for he and his wife Geraldine plan to spend a few days at Atlantic City, N.J.

Although there was considerable hedging about the Sept. 30th fight at Philadelphia's Municipal stadium during Tuesday's news conference here, persons close to Liston from the Pennsylvania State Athletic Commission.

Meanwhile, Patterson flew back to his home at Seaside, N.Y., in his private plane with a copilot. Despite his second knockout in the first round by Liston in less than a year, Floyd says he plans to continue fighting and to challenge Sonny again in the future. Sonny is 30 years old, 5'10", 210 lbs.

Each fighter was estimated to have earned a purse of about $500,000 Monday night from the gross gate of $286,160 at Convention Center and from the estimated gross of about $1,500,000 from theater, television, movies, radio and other ancillaries.

As president of the new International Professional Promotions, Liston's first official act was to appoint Ben Bentley of Chicago public relations director for International. Bentley was chief boxing publicity man for Chicago stadium a few years ago when the stadium was an outstanding light center.

The Forty Niners Tuesday also held a rugged 45-minute scrimmage. Hickey praised the running of Bob Gaiters, Jim Vollenweider and rookie Mike Lind. He liked Bernie Casey's blocking at tight end and the defensive work of Abe Woodson, Mike Dowdle and Don Colchico.

WEST IN, ONE OUT
West Liberty, W. Va.—UPI—The Pittsburgh Steelers have announced that two players were coming and one was going through the National Football League's revolving door.

Defensive linebacker Clenden Thomas and linebacker Ken Kirk have ended their holdouts and are on the way to camp, but rookie Bill George of Murray State has been placed on waivers, the Steelers said.

US Women Track Squad in Training

Warsaw—UPI—The forecast here was much the same as it turned out in Moscow last week end: Victory for the United States men's track and field team and defeat for the girls.

The American girls flew in from Moscow Tuesday and will join the men in training today. However, their chances of victory in this Saturday's dual track meet with Poland are not considered good.

"I think our girls will have an easy victory," wrote a local sports columnist, and not one American cared to challenge the statement. The Yank girls lost all 11 events to their Russian counterparts last week end.

The American men's team is expected to beat the Polish men, but not by a runaway. Even U.S. men's coach Payton Jordan gives the Poles a chance.

"The squad after today's training is finally in top shape and I know we will do better here than in Moscow," Jordan said after a workout Tuesday. "It is possible, though, that Poland could beat us," he added but quickly explained that he expected a clear-cut U.S. victory.

Managers Will Pick Stars of International

New York—UPI—The International All-Star team which will meet the world champion New York Yankees at Buffalo, N.Y., Aug. 19, once again will be selected by the Triple A circuit's managers.

Only the starting lineup will be picked by the 10 club managers. In all they will vote for 10 men, including a right-handed and left-handed pitcher. They will be barred of course, from voting for players on their own teams.

Players picked on the most ballots will make up the starting lineup, according to an announcement made today by league President Tommy Richardson. The All-Star team manager will be selected within two weeks and he will pick an additional 10 players to round out the squad.

Three of the seven previous All-Star games have been won by the International League. After losing the first three games, the International League All-Stars defeated Pittsburgh in 1951, Milwaukee in 1960 and Cleveland in 1961. Last year they lost to Baltimore.

NWL Broncs Take First Place By Topping Yakima 12-10

The Northwest league played another round in its game of musical chairs Tuesday night and the Lewiston Broncs wound up on top.

The Broncs, who won the first half, topped Yakima 12-10 in 10 innings to move into first place a half-game ahead of Yakima and Salem.

Wenatchee downed Salem 4-1, and Tri-City edged Eugene 3-2 in other games.

Lewiston won its game when Bill Meyer hit a two-run homer in the bottom of the 10th. The Broncs had tied it with three runs in the ninth highlighted by a two-run homer by Wayne Norton.

Dick Smith of the losers hit a solo homer in the second.

Pat Rogan with relief help from Dick Wanz pitched Tri-City to its win over Eugene. Rogan gave up solo homers to Howie Wood and Denny Lundgren and Wanz had to come in and end it with a strikeout with a man on second and two out in the Eugene ninth.

Tri-City got its eventual winning run in the third when Charlie Strange, who has hit in 16 straight, singled in Brown Taylor.

Wenatchee got a pair in the second and another marker in the third on Mo Morhardt's solo home run, plus another run in the eighth to take Salem. Billy Connors went all the way for the win.

Forty Niner End Conner Is Sidelined

Moraga, Calif.—UPI—San Francisco Forty Niner end Clyde Conner, a veteran wingman who caught 24 passes last year, will be sidelined for the next six weeks.

Conner Tuesday fractured his left clavicle while diving on a loose ball. He was taken to St. Mary's hospital where he is expected to remain for only a few days. But coach Red Hickey does not look for his return to the lineup until early September.

The eight-year veteran will be replaced by Dale Messer, heretofore a defensive halfback.

It was the second serious injury suffered at training camp. Second year passer catcher Ray McFarland suffered a shoulder separation in his first full workout.

The Forty Niners Tuesday also held a rugged 45-minute scrimmage. Hickey praised the running of Bob Gaiters, Jim Vollenweider and rookie Mike Lind. He liked Bernie Casey's blocking at tight end and the defensive work of Abe Woodson, Mike Dowdle and Don Colchico.

Sonny and advisor Jack Nilon say that announcement of the fight has been delayed until next week, at least, in order to first obtain complete approval from the Pennsylvania State Athletic Commission.

Meanwhile, Patterson flew back to his home at Seaside, N.Y., in his private plane with a copilot. Despite his second knockout in the first round by Liston in less than a year, Floyd says he plans to continue fighting and to challenge Sonny again in the future. White House Lot Valued at $1,000
New York—UPI—One tax problem President Kennedy should never have to worry about is trying to dig up enough money to pay his house taxes every year.
The 18 acres of downtown Washington on which the White House is located are valued at only $1,000, according to Tax Foundation, Inc.
