Amelia Earhart Commemorative Stamp on Sale

Atchison, Kan. (UPI)—A first issue air mail stamp went on sale here today to commemorate the aerial feats of famed aviatrix Amelia Earhart and the 66th anniversary of her birthdate in this northeast Kansas town.

Postmaster Gen. J. Edward Day came to town for the occasion, along with Sen. Frank Carlson and Peps. William Avery and Bob Dole, Kansas Republicans. A military band from Scott Air Force Base, Ill., boomed out martial tunes.

Large Sale Seen. Atchison Postmaster John E. Smith predicted 750,000 of the commemorative stamps would be sold. He said it would be the largest single sale of air mail stamps on record.

Folks in Atchison, all 13,000 of them, enjoy seeing the name of their hometown on Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railway cars. They brag about having the only alcohol distillery in the state. But Atchisonians are most proud of Amelia Earhart.

Actor Objects To Name Change

Los Angeles - (UPI) - A German-born real estate salesman wants to change his name to Peter Lorre, but Peter Lorre doesn't want him to.

Lorre's attorney was in court Tuesday to object to the petition in which Eugene Weingand, 29, wants to change his name.

Weingand told the court his friends think he looks like the famed actor and call him by that name and because of that he has begun to use it.
