Yankees Drop Angels 8-4; Ford Counts Twelfth Win

By FRED DOWN
UPI Sports Writer

Anything seems possible for the New York Yankees these days so why can't Whitey Ford go on to equal the American league record of 16 straight victories and join the 200-win club before the season is over?

The 34-year-old left-hander is approaching both goals with a string of 12 consecutive triumphs that have increased his career total of victories to 194. His season record is 16-3 and the way the Yankees support him it looks like he can go on winning forever.

Ford has gone nine innings only five times in those 12 straight victories but the Yankees have supported him with excellent late-inning relief help and what's more important, runs – lots of 'em. They haven't scored less than three runs in any of the 12 games and have totaled 67 for an average of 5.6 runs per game.

Shout those figures at Roger Craig, the luckless New York Met pitcher who has lost 15 in a row and 17 in all, and he'll tell you in a few thousand words why it's great to be a Yankee.

Ford won his 12th straight and 16th of the season Wednesday when the Yankees drubbed the Los Angeles Angels, 8-4. Johnny Blanchard, subbing for Roger Maris, drove in four runs with two singles and his fourth homer in three days to lead the Yankees' 15-hit attack. Ford retired after seven innings but Hal Reniff and Bill Stafford closed out the win for him.

Ford's winning streak is the longest in the American league since he won 14 straight in 1961. The AL record of 16 straight is shared by Walter Johnson, Smokey Joe Wood, Lefty Grove and Schoolboy Rowe.

The Minnesota Twins picked up a half-game on the leaders with a 9-0 and 5-0 sweep of a twi-night doubleheader with the Cleveland Indians. The Chicago White Sox defeated the Detroit Tigers, 3-1, the Kansas City Athletics downed the Boston Red Sox, 5-2 and 7-6, and the Baltimore Orioles beat the Washington Senators, 8-5, in other AL games.

Dick Stigman pitched a seven-hitter and Jim Kaat a six-hitter as the Twins double-blanked the Indians and crept within 8½ games of the runaway Yankees. Don Mincher hit two homers and Rich Rollins and John Goryl one each to lead the Twins' 11-hit attack in the opener. Jimmy Hall hit a tie-breaking ninth - inning homer as the Twins scored five ninth-inning runs in the nightcap after being shut out by Dick Donovan.

Ron Hansen drove in all three runs with a two-run homer and a sacrifice fly to help the White Sox' Gary Peters register his ninth win with an eight-hitter. Rocky Colavito homered for the Tigers' run.

Orlando Pena pitched a seven-hitter and had two hits himself for the A's in their opener. The A's won the nightcap on the strength of a five-run third inning featured by doubles by Wayne Causey, Jerry Lumpe and George Alusik. The A's have won nine of 12 games with the Red Sox this season.

Jackie Brandt, Johnny Orsino and Bob Johnson hit homers and Dick Hall pitched 6⅔ innings of shutout relief for the Orioles, who handed Washington's Jim Duckworth his eighth setback. Minnie Minoso hit a grand slam homer for the Senators.

All-Comers Track Event To Be Held

The third in a series of five scheduled summer all-comers track meets will be held Saturday, July 27, at the Medford senior high stadium.

Events for the day will begin at 9 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. and then from 5:30 p.m. to 8 p.m.

Boys 6 to 14 years of age and girls 6 to 16 years will take part in the morning events, and competition for boys 15 to 16, high school boys and the open divisions will run in the evening.

Meet supervisor, Dean Benson, adds that the meet is open to anyone interested and has asked for volunteers to serve as meet officials either in the morning or evening or at both times. Those willing should report to him ahead of the starting times.

Some 450 athletes from as far away as Alabama have participated in the previous events. The first meet was held on July 13 with 245 competitors entered for the day-long running.

Baseball Clinic Slated Tomorrow

A clinic for all Southern Oregon baseball players between the ages of 8 to 14 years will be held at the Crater High football field on Friday, July 26 from 8 a.m. to 12 noon, and again on Saturday, July 27 from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m.

The Friday session will cover hitting and sliding. On Saturday, the lessons will include fielding, bunting and baseball strategy.

Nine trophies will be given to outstanding players in the Saturday events following the lessons at 1 p.m.

Cost of the clinic will be 50 cent per entrant and participants are asked to bring their own gloves, shoes, and bats if they have them.

Instructors for the two day events are Mike Glines and Dan Miles. Further information on the clinic may be obtained by contacting Mike Glines at 664-1812.

All little leaguers under the Recreation Insurance program will be covered for the event.

Tri-City Downs Emeralds 10-7

United Press International

Things looked pretty rosy for the Eugene Emeralds in their Northwest league game with Tri-City Wednesday night until Terry Tackett stepped in and spoiled the show.

The Emeralds grabbed a 6-0 lead in the top of the second and added another run in the third but Tackett in relief blanked them over the final six frames and Tri-City came on for a 10-7 win.

In other games, Wenatchee beat Salem 3-2 and Lewiston took Yakima 4-3 in 14 innings.

Eugene got its six in the second with the aid of a three-run homer by Howard Wood and a two-run blast by Bill Barraclough. The Emeralds added another in the third on Steve Selfky's solo homer.

Tri-City, however, got three in the second and tied it with four more in the third on Brown Taylor's solo homer and a three-run shot by Eddie Crawford. The Angels went ahead to stay with an unearned run in the fifth as Tackett allowed but five hits in his 8 2-3 innings.

Wenatchee edged Salem in the ninth when Glenn Beckert's single plated Spencer Davis. Bill Ballou went the distance allowing Salem six hits including a solo homer by Jim Campanis.

Wayne Norton ended the Yakima-Lewiston overtime when his single with the sacks loaded sent over the winning run. Norton also contributed a two-run homer during a three run Lewiston outburst in the first. Wenatchee tied it with three in the seventh to send it into overtime.

Indians Edge Jacksonville

The Central Point Indians, playing on home grounds, broke through a three way tie that existed among teams in the Pee Wee little league standings Monday by edging out Jacksonville 7-6.

Strict Use Made Of Candlestick

San Francisco (UPI) – Chances of the Kansas City Athletics of the American league coming to the Bay area in the next year or two seemed dim today.

President Horace C. Stoneham of the San Francisco Giants told Mayor George Christopher he could not grant a request that any other baseball team be permitted to use Candlestick park.

The A's have been rumored to be headed for nearby Oakland, which hopes to have a stadium complex completed in a couple of seasons.

Christopher conferred with Stoneham Wednesday concerning the possibility that an Oakland team could use Candlestick park in the meantime.

The mayor said Stoneham pointed out to him that one of the cornerstones of the stadium contract that brought the Giants west from New York was exclusive use of the stadium.

American League All-Stars Down National Team 10-5

The American league of the Medford Recreation department's Sandblower baseball teams took the 'pennant' last night in the third annual all-star game by downing the National league 10-5 at the Jackson county fairgrounds.

Wining pitchers who hurled for two innings each for the Americans were Wayne Beale, Dennis Bailey and Larry Priebe.

The American league got off to a good start in the first inning when Terry Smith hit a line drive out into the fielders' territory only to score a home run and bringing three men on base across the plate.

Umpires for the game were Dan Miles and Mike Glines.

Medford Girl Edged in Golf Semi-Finals

Portland – (UPI) – Medalist Jan Ferraris of San Francisco and Leslie Holbert of Seattle blasted their way into the sem-finals of the Pacific Northwest Golf Association junior girls tournament Wednesday.

Miss Ferraris edged Sue Lance, Medford, on the 19th hole after coming from three down in the last four holes. She shot three consecutive birdies and a par to even the match and then scored an eagle on the 19th.

Miss Holbert ousted defending champion Cathy Braiker, Scottsdale, Ariz., 6 and 4.

Wendy Mooberry, La Grande, also moved into today's semifinals with a 3 and 1 decision over Mary Wolfe, Portland. The other winner Wednesday was Spokane's Peggy Conley, who edged Pat Reeves, Everett, Wash., 3 and 2.

AMERICANS LOSE
Hilversum, Holland – (UPI) – Three Americans – Ed Rubinoff of Miami Beach, Fla.; Jim McManus of Berkeley, Calif., and Dorothy Head Knode, a former Californian now living in Tokyo – were eliminated Wednesday in the Dutch International tennis tournament. Rubinoff defaulted his third round match to Ken Fletcher of Australia, while McManus and Mrs. Knode were defeated by Aussies John Newcombe and Kay Denning, respectively.

Western Open Golf Tournament Begins

Chicago – (UPI) – A field of 130 including almost every name player and 43 of the top 50 money winners, opens up at Beverly Country club today in the first round of the $50,000 Western Open which will pay a minimum $10,000 to the winner.

There was no outstanding favorite in the field, although there was speculation that National Open winner Julius Boros might take command since the 6,867 yard par 71 course would favor his game.

But PGA winner Jack Nicklaus, leading money winner Arnold Palmer, and Champagne Tony Lema, fourth in earnings this year, also were rated as dangerous.

The course, though not of unusual length, has five par three holes with fairly uniform length on the other 13. But observers anticipated that the entire field would have trouble with the greens, fairly large but rolling and usually extremely fast.

Recent heavy rains, however, have made the course moist and while the greens have held pitches well, they have slowed up. Barring additional rain, though, they could be a constant tournament problem, changing in speed every day as they dry out.

The course record of 65, which has stood for 35 years, was not regarded in danger. The mark was set by Tommy Armour in 1928 and has been equalled only twice, both times by host pro Charlie Penna.

The tournament prize probably will be increased if crowds equal the anticipated turnout. Last year the total was boosted to $55,000 with $11,00 to winner Jacie Cupit and officials intimated the same figures were possible this year.

"OUR CHICKS GO DODGE AT HALF-FARE FOR FUEL!"

"Our business is hatching chicks and delivering them when they're one day old. We use a Dodge-Perkins SP500 (a special diesel-powered school bus) to do the job. This unit is equipped with special ventilating and heating equipment to assure the safe transporting of baby chicks over long distances. Our profit is based on guaranteed live delivery of the chicks on time. If our truck breaks down, heavy losses may occur. But our Dodge-Perkins doesn't break down. It travels up to 3500 miles a week, sometimes as far away as Virginia and New York. The Dodge is seven months old and has already gone 63,000 miles. All it's cost in maintenance is $750.11. That breaks down to 1-1/5 cents a mile. And it's cut our fuel bill 50% in comparison with a gasoline-powered truck doing the same job!" South Georgia Hatchery, Douglas, Georgia. There's a tough Dodge truck to handle just about any trucking job, from baby chicks right on to the biggest, heaviest loads. And model for model, Dodge trucks are priced lower than most of the competition, right in line with the rest. Talk to your dependable Dodge truck dealer. About his liberal new finance plan. See how little it will cost to put a Dodge Job-Rated truck to work for you!
