Palmer, Snead Take Over Lead In Western Open Golf Tourney

Chicago —UPI— Sam Snead and Arnold Palmer charged from behind Saturday to overwhelm slumping Fred Hawkins and share first place with 18 holes to play in the $50,000 Western Open golf tournament. Snead, who would become the oldest man ever to win a PGA tourney if he can capture this one — 51 years and two months — tallied a three under par 68 on the 6,867-yard Beverly course for a 54-hole total of 207, six under par. Palmer, golf's leading money winner with five tourneys wins this year, shot a four under par 67 for the same total. Palmer dropped an 18-foot putt for a birdie on the last green to equal the best round of the day and step into the deadlock. Hawkins, a 39-year-old El Paso, Tex., pro who has won only one tournament in 16 years on the tour, set the pace for the first round with a 67 and at the midway point with a 68 for a 135 card, when Snead was four strokes behind at 139 and Palmer five strokes off at 140. But Hawkins started giving ground to par on the second hole Saturday and wound up with a five over par 75 for a 54-hole total of 211, four strokes behind the pace-makers. Hawkins, though, held third place with a one-stroke margin over Lionel Hebert who had a 72 for 212, and two strokes on National Open champ Julius Boros, who took a 74 for 213. Only four players — Snead, Palmer, Gardner Dickinson

Coates Goes From 3-0 To 3-2 Rapidly

By DAVE ROWE
 UPI Sports Writer
 On Wednesday, Jim Coates, San Diego pitcher, had a perfect 3-0 record. On Thursday his record was 3-1 and Friday it was 3-2.
 Coates lost his second game in as many nights in a relief role Friday night against Dallas-Ft. Worth. He replaced Sammy Ellis in the ninth inning with the score tied at 0-0. In the 10th he gave up a home run ball to Jay Ward with two men on base to lose the 3-0 verdict. Ted Sadowski went the route for the Rangers to gain his eighth victory against as many losses. The low-hit affair saw Dallas-Ft. Worth collecting but four hits to three for the Padres. In other Friday PCL games, Spokane downed Portland 5-3, Hawaii nipped Tacoma 3-1, Seattle edged Oklahoma City 2-1 and Denver and Salt Lake split a double header, both games being overtime. The Bears won the opener 3-2 in 8 innings and the Bees the nightcap, 7-6 in 12.
MEETS OLYMPIC TEAM
 Grand Forks, N.D. —UPI— The University of North Dakota hockey team, which edged Denver 5-4 for the NCAA championship in March, will play the U.S. Olympic team as part of its 23-game 1963-64 schedule. The Sioux, members of the Western Hockey association, will play 14 league contests.

Terrell Decisions Folley At Garden

By JACK CUDDY
 UPI Sports Writer
 New York —UPI— Heavyweight contender Ernie Terrell, Chicago giant, speared veteran Zora Folley with long left jabs and shook him with rights Saturday night in their nationally televised fight at Madison Square Garden for a unanimous 10-round decision and his eighth straight victory. The bout was so one-sided that many of the 2,200 fans booed in the seventh round and at the finish. Terrell carrying 204 pounds on a six-foot-seven frame, threatened to put away 31-year-old Folley of Chandler, Ariz., in the second and fourth rounds when long left jabs and whistling rights to the head had the seventh ranking contender staggering briefly. Folley, 203½, looked like a small boy fighting a man in many of the sessions because of Ernie's towering height. Terrell, 24, not only landed by far the most punches but he also leaned over his six-foot-one opponent and strapped his long arms about Zora and tied him up tightly at close quarters. Terrell, ranked eighth among contenders, was hurt only once. That was in the eighth round when Folley landed his best punch of the night, a left hook near the end of the session and knock-

Grants Pass defeated Ashland 6 to 5 in Southern Oregon junior baseball last week to its slim hopes in the junior league race. Going into the final week of play this week, the Crater Cubs have a 6 and the mark while Grants Pass is 5 and 2. The two teams meet Wednesday on the Cubs' home field. Grants Pass will have to beat the Cubs and then hope that the Cubs lose to Ashland Thursday in order to get a tie. Grants Pass plays only the one game this week. Any combination of one Cub win or Grants Pass loss will give the Central Pointers the title. In the lone intermediate game last Friday, Prospect defeated Phoenix-Talent 6 to 5. Friday pee wee league action saw Prospect beat Phoenix-Talent 7 to 6 and the Central Point Braves, who have clinched the league crown, defeat the Medford Wildcats 6 to 5. The Central Point Stars lead in the intermediate league by one game over the Medford Yankees. They have clinched at least a tie for the championship of the league. Each team plays one game this week. A Star loss coupled with a Yankee win would knot the lead. Linescores and this week's schedule:

Thursday Is Entry Deadline

ROUGH COMPETITION
 Chapel Hill, N.C. —UPI— Opponents Kentucky, Indiana, Notre Dame, and New York University top the 1963-64 basketball schedule of the University of North Carolina. Coach Dean Smith's Tar Heels will have eight lettermen returning from last year's club which posted a record of 15-6.

Skaters Compete In Roller Events

Portland, Ore. —UPI— About 1,400 of the best skaters in the United States and Canada began competition Saturday in the North American roller skating championships. The eight-day program began Friday with a parade through the city and the "Roller Spectacular of 1963" at the city's Memorial Coliseum. Final events on the first day of the program include the junior fours, novice men's, intermediate pairs, novice dance and juvenile "B" girl's classes. The senior men's five-mile speed event concludes the competition. One of the entries in that race is Ed Perales, Torrance, Calif., the defending men's speed skating champion. World Skating Congress champions Paul Boehm and Pamela Cornwall, Houston, Tex., and Adolph Wacker and Linda Mottice, Canon, Ohio, also are entered here. Boahm
