

Helen Jantzen To Enter Corps

Prospect - Miss Helen Jantzen, who was graduated this spring from a Portland nursing college, will leave next week to report for duty with the Navy Nurse corps. She will go to Newport, R. I. for eight weeks at the officers' training center, after which she will be stationed for two years at the Navy hospital in Portsmouth, Va.

Miss Jantzen is a Prospect High school graduate having received most of her education in the Prospect schools.

Two Couples Hosts for Musicale

An unusual event took place in Medford Tuesday night when Mr. and Mrs. Otto Frohnmayer, 1656 Spring street, and Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Spaulding, Portland, were hosts for an evening of music at the Frohnmayer's home. The program was given outdoors with the gardens and swimming pool as a setting. The piano and special lights had been arranged at one end of the pool for the musicians and chairs for guests were placed around the pool and on the slopes nearby.

More than 100 were present, the group including family members, guests from the Rogue valley and from several Oregon and California cities.

The program was given by Mrs. Spaulding, Dr. David Campbell, Portland, the Frohnmayer's daughter, Miss Mira Frohnmayer and their second son, John. Mrs. Spaulding is well known in Oregon as a concert singer and Dr. Campbell is director emeritus of the department of music, Lewis and Clark college, Portland, and currently music critic for the Portland Daily Reporter. Miss Frohnmayer is a graduate of the University of Oregon and the New England Conservatory of Music, Boston, and will teach this fall at Pine Manor, Wellesley Hills, near Boston. The school is a two-year college. John Frohnmayer is a student at Stanford university where he sings with a university group.

Rites Held At Home For Couple

Miss Karenlynn Kristine Ruhl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Ruhl, 1316 East Main street, became the bride of Robert Romeo Rojas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Rojas, 332 North Ivy street, in a ceremony July 20 at the Ruhl home.

The Rev. David Brown of First Presbyterian church officiated at the 1:30 o'clock afternoon rites. Garden flowers decorated the home for the double ring wedding.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin frock brocaded with pink flowers and carried a white Bible, a gift from her godmother, with pink orchids.

Miss Kay Lee Ruhl attended her sister. She wore an ecru colored brocaded satin frock and carried pink carnations.

Melvin Hawkinson served as best man.

Following the wedding a reception was held at the Ruhl home attended by 20 relatives and friends. Pink flowers decorated the serving table.

The couple traveled to the coast on their wedding trip. The bride and bridegroom are graduates of Medford High school and the bridegroom, in the U.S. Navy, is assigned to the USS Rupertus at San Francisco, Calif.

Catholic Rites Held

Miss Mary Ann Owens became the bride of Wallace James Martin in a double ring ceremony held July 20 at the Sacred Heart Catholic church. The two o'clock wedding was performed by the Rev. William McLeod, which was attended by more than 100 relatives and friends.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Edwin Owens, 1380 Springbrook avenue. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Martin, 1114 West 11th street.

The bride was escorted to the altar by her father. Her full length gown was fashioned with sheath skirt and full back panel which formed a cathedral train. The gown, of nylon organza over taffeta, had a fitted bodice with scoop neckline accented with embroidery and seed pearls. Her three quarter length veil of silk illusion was held by a crown of pearls and she carried her prayer book with a white orchid and a cascade of stephanotis.

Baskets of white stock and carnations decorated the church.

and Mrs. Charles Black, cousins of the bride, Corporal and Mrs. Craig Walstead, stationed at Oak Knoll hospital, Oakland, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Duggan and family, Klamath Falls, and Mr. and Mrs. Dale Erickson, Grants Pass.

The newlyweds will make their home at 314 North Holly street.

Newlyweds Living In Shady Cove

Prospect - Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Huntley are making their home in Shady Cove following their return from a wedding trip to Lake Tahoe. The couple was married July 20 in the Mt. Rose Wedding chapel in Reno, Nev., with the Rev. William H. Herring officiating.

The bride is the former Sandra Clark and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Clark, Prospect, accompanied the couple to Reno. Mr. Huntley's mother is Mrs. Anna Huntley, Gold Hill.

Pink and white carnations decorated the chapel for the 11 a.m. wedding.

The bride wore a yellow sheath dress and her corsage was of white orchids.

For traveling the bride wore a beige suite with matching accessories.

The bride attended Prospect schools. Mr. Huntley attended Crater High school and is employed by the U.S. Forest service.

Among those attending the wedding were Mrs. H. A. Bishop, grandmother of the bride, and Mr. Bishop.

Goupil Family Visits Gold Hill

Gold Hill - Mr. and Mrs. Albert Goupil, and children, Marna, Yvonne, and Mark from San Jose have been guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ferd Jones this month. Mr. Goupil returned home and Mrs. Goupil, the former Dena Jones, remained for a longer visit. She expects to return home this week end.

A family picnic was held last Sunday at Indian Mary park. Those present for the occasion other than the Joneses and Mrs. Goupil and children were Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Nealy and daughter, Betty Jo, Grants Pass. Mrs. Nealy is a sister of Mrs. Goupil.

Mrs. Bruce (Josephine) Spaulding and Dr. David Campbell, Portland, were in the valley last week to sing and play at a musicale given by the Spauldings and Mr. and Mrs. Otto J. Frohnmayer at the Frohnmayer home, 1856 Spring street. Both musicians are well-known in Oregon. Dr. Campbell is director emeritus of the department of music, Lewis and Clark college, music critic for the Portland Daily Reporter and this summer is conducting a class for graduate students at the University of Portland. He is a member of the Fine Arts Advisory committee for Portland.

Miss Mira Frohnmayer (at left) and her brother, John, both sang during an evening of music which their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Otto J. Frohnmayer, and Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Spaulding, Portland, gave last Tuesday evening in the Frohnmayer garden at their home on Spring street here. The two young soloists were accompanied by Miss Lou Elsa Voegtly, Miss Frohnmayer, who was graduated earlier this summer from the New England Conservatory of Music, Boston, will teach this year at Pine Manor, a two-year college near Boston. Her brother is a student at Stanford university and Miss Voegtly was graduated last month from the University of Oregon.

Committee Head Here

Week end visitors in the Rogue Valley were Kenneth L. Wilson, Olympic committee president, and Mrs. Wilson of Chicago, Ill.

The Wilsons left this morning for Portland en route to Chicago after they and Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Jackson, 117 Greenway circle, toured points of interest in the valley.

Friday they visited Crater lake and that evening accompanied the Jacksons to the Oregon Shakespearean Festival, Ashland, where they saw the play: "Love's Labour's Lost." Saturday Mr. Wilson toured some of the valley's ranches while Mrs. Wilson and Mrs. Jackson visited Jacksonville.

Mrs. Jackson was among those who recently attended a luncheon at the Hilton hotel in Portland honoring Mrs. Wilson.

In October the Wilsons will leave for Nairobi, Kenya, East Africa, where the Olympic committee will meet to select the 1968 games site.

Travelers

Prospect - Overnight guests at the Eugene Burrell home recently were Miss Miange Chanteux and Miss Chantal Fouquart, Paris, France, who are visiting the United States. They have been through Canada and now are on their way through the states and Mexico to Panama.

While here the Burrells took them to see Crater lake.

Californians Guests of Days

Trail - Recent visitors of the A. L. Days, Tiller-Trail road, were Professor and Mrs. Joseph Crunk and Mr. and Mrs. John Swartz, all Los Angeles.

The Crunks have purchased the property adjacent to the Day's place and will move there upon completion of Mr. Crunk's contract with the Los Angeles school district.

The group continued northward for an annual visit to Seattle and British Columbia.

Alumnae Group Names Chairmen

Mrs. J. K. Ness and Mrs. F. L. Brewer Jr. were appointed chairmen of the Panhellenic representatives and Mrs. George L. Lewis and Mrs. Ken Taylor, chairmen of the forms and recommendations committee, at a recent meeting of the Medford Alumnae of Chi Omega sorority.

The meeting was at the home of Mrs. F. L. Brewer Jr., 301 Ardmore avenue.

The Panhellenic tea to be held August 6 was discussed. Miss Marsha Watson will model in the style show, held in conjunction with the tea.

Active members of the sorority from Oregon State university, Willamette university and the University of Washington were introduced.

Mr. and Mrs. Erno Bonebakker, Carpinteria, Calif., were in the valley last week to attend two social events. The visitors were the guests at an outdoor musical program given Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Otto J. Frohnmayer on Spring street, and Wednesday night attended the Feast of Will and the opening night play of the 1963 season of the Oregon Shakespearean festival in Ashland.
