Away

Prospect—Miss Linda Freeland is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Genevieve Staggs, Oroville, Calif., for two weeks.

Chapel in the Pines Is Scene of Wedding

Prospect—In an evening ceremony attended by approximately 80 guests, Miss Vickie Darleen Lycett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lavor Davis, Red Blanket road, Prospect, was married to Richard Melvin Betts, Prospect.

The couple were married by the Rev. John Lenker in the Chapel in the Pines church, Prospect, on Saturday, July 20, at 7:30 o'clock in the evening. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

For her wedding the bride wore a floor length gown of lace designed with a hooped skirt and fitted bodice. Sequins trimmed the scooped neck line and a band of embroidered lace trimmed the skirt ruffles. Her bouffant veil was held by a jeweled crown, and she carried a bouquet of white and yellow carnations.

Wear Yellow
Mrs. George Lycett, the bride's sister-in-law, and matron of honor, Medford, wore a two piece suit of yellow silk.

Other attendants, Mrs. Kern Grieve, Prospect, and Miss Patricia Jefferson, Yreka, cousins of the bride, wore sleeveless dresses of yellow taffeta under lace. Yellow silk scarves were fastened at the shoulder by a silver jewel. All the attendants wore matching white veils and carried bouquets of white and yellow rosebuds.

The flower girl, Debbie Davis, sister of the bride, wore a yellow silk dress trimmed with white lace and a white headband of lace and yellow rosebuds. George Lycett, Medford, brother of the bride, served as best man, and ushers were Kern Grieve, Prospect, and DeWayne Wilson, Trail, cousin to the bride. The bride's cousin, Kenneth Wilson, Trail, was ring bearer.

The church was decorated with yellow and white gladioli for the wedding. Miss Frankie Odom furnished the wedding music, accompanied by Miss Jill Hedgpeth.

Reception Held
At the reception given by the bride's parents at the Prospect Community hall, the wedding cake was cut by the bride's aunt, Mrs. Wayne Wilson. Miss Kay Jefferson and Miss Odom assisted in serving.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Davis wore a pale blue two piece suit and the bridegroom's mother was dressed in a beige two piece suit. Both wore white accessories and white orchids.

Out of town guests included the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Davis, Magna, Utah; Mr. and Mrs. Von Timothy, Utah; Mrs. Velma Jefferson and daughter Kay, aunt and cousin of the bride, Yreka; and Mrs. Helena Edghill, grandmother of the bridegroom, Ashland.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Betts attended Prospect High school, and after a wedding trip to southern California will be at home at Prospect. For traveling Mrs. Betts wore a peach colored box suit with white accessories.

Mr. Betts is employed at S. and W. Logging company.

Airman Visits Parents Here

Sams Valley—Gail Price, U.S. Air Force and former resident of Gold Hill, was a guest in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Price on Pelton lane, Sams Valley, earlier this month. While here he and his parents visited at Oakland, Ore. in the home of the Rev. and Mrs. Gernie Noah and family.

Prior to his arrival in southern Oregon the serviceman had just completed a tour of duty with the Air Force in Turkey, Greece, and France. He is a former Crater High school student.

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Smith and family, Central Point were dinner guests in the Price home, the event being the fourth birthday anniversary of their daughter, Kristi.

KNOW YOUR FURNITURE

ONLY THE RICH KNEW THE TIME OF DAY

Before 1600, you saw a clock only in a public building, or the home of a very wealthy man.

But with the 17th Century Machine Age, clocks began to pour out of factories in many new styles. There was the Bird Cage Clock, the Banjo, Bracket and Grandfather Clocks, to name a few. The Grandfather Clock in its tall case was one of the handso-mest. Constructed of Oak or Walnut, its face and dial were ornamented with cherubs.
