Three Citations Issued Following Accidents in City

Three drivers were cited by Medford police Thursday following investigation of five vehicle accidents. No injuries were reported, officers said.

Betty Ann Robinson, 23, of 518 Alberts rd., was cited for failure to yield the right of way after her car collided with a vehicle operated by Anita Chan Graves, 1902 Elm st., about 3:30 p.m. at Third and Front sts.

Vehicles operated by Leonard Dennis Williams, 24, of 2017 Suzanna st., Darrell Lee Edwards, 28, of 220 Beatty st., and Milton Francis Gordon, 33, of 715 Pine st., were involved in a rear-end collision about 4:10 p.m. on Crater Lake ave. near Stevens st.

A two-car collision about 5:34 p.m. at Main and Elm sts. involved vehicles operated by Eddie Martin Olson, 79, of 1119 West 10th st., and James Arthur Ward Jr., 33, Fort Jones, Calif.

Detlef Joseph Eisman, 16, of 121 Vernada st., was cited for violation of basic rule after his car slid on loose gravel and turned over about 11:30 p.m. at Keeneway and Eastwood dr.

A citation for violation of basic rule was issued to Robert Raymond Buckley, 20, of 331 South Ivy st., after he was involved in a three-car collision about 5:04 p.m. on West 11th st. near South Grape st. Other drivers were Evelyn Lorraine Riskey, 43, of 142 South Peach st., and Gwendolyn Ethel Weaver, 34, of 1040 Murray st.

Police Get Warrant For Burglary Suspect

Medford police have obtained a warrant for the arrest of Arnon Cornelius Huisman, 18, charging him with the burglary of the Brave Bull restaurant, 1206 North Riverside ave., June 10.

Huisman is in custody of the Portland police department. He was arrested there after burglary tools were found in his possession.

City detectives said Friday they understand Huisman is also wanted by Grants Pass for questioning about a burglary there.
