

Top Entertainers To Join in March

Hollywood - (UPI) - Several top entertainment personalities plan to march on the nation's capital next month in support of civil rights legislation.

The delegation - actors Charlton Heston, Marlon Brando, Tony Curtis, Mel Ferrer, Tony Franciosa, Peter Brown and Burt Lancaster and director Billy Wilder - announced Wednesday they would march on Washington Aug. 28 "to express our support for the civil rights legislation now before Congress."

"We will march because we recognize the events of the summer of 1963 as among the most significant we have lived through, and we wish to be a part of these events, and of this time when promises made a century ago will finally be kept."

COLOR WISE

New York - (UPI) - Greens and blues are important summer and fall drapery colors, according to a survey of the decorative fabrics markets by Home Furnishings daily. Rust and orange are next in popularity.

Dr. Stephen Ward Still Unconscious After Pill Overdose

London - (UPI) - Dr. Stephen Ward, convicted Wednesday of vice charges, remained "grievously and critically ill and unconscious" today, more than 24 hours after taking an overdose of drugs, a hospital bulletin announced.

The bulletin said Ward was operated on "to replace a temporary airway tube" this morning.

Ward tried to kill himself Wednesday a few hours before his case went to the jury and still does not know that the jury found him guilty of two vice counts that could bring a 14-year prison term.

The 50-year-old society osteopath, whose friends included the rich and famous of Britain, introduced some of them to call girls and touched off the scandals of the century.

The medical bulletin said: "Dr. Ward's condition remains comparatively unchanged, that is to say, he is still grievously and critically ill and is still deeply unconscious."

"A slight operation is called for to replace his temporary airway tube and this is being undertaken at the moment." Ward was rushed to St. Stephen's hospital while the trial proceeded. The jury found him guilty of two vice counts - living off the earnings of prostitutes Christine Keeler and Mandy Rice-Davies - and acquitted him of three others.

He will be sentenced when and if he recovers. His lawyers said they would appeal the conviction.

A London newspaper asked today whether Ward might be a "fall guy" and whether the trial had brought out everything about those in high positions involved in the scandal.

Ward himself, in a newspaper interview he granted the night before his suicide attempt, charged that Lord Astor "crucified me" by not speaking up for him.

Sewer Ditch Cave-In Kills Man in Redding

Redding, Calif. - (UPI) - A trencher operator died here Wednesday five hours after he was buried in a sewer ditch cave-in.

The death of Donald Bedford was tentatively attributed to a heart attack following shock. He had been taken in a semi-conscious state to a hospital after fellow workers dug him from the 10-foot ditch.

FLYING LOW

New York - (UPI) - The travel agency industry estimates 30 per cent of all air travelers to Europe this year will fly under low-price charters or group fares, more than double the number last year.

MINIATURE GOLF COURSE OPENS - During opening ceremonies Saturday at the new Golf-O-Rama on Stewart ave, Ron Caperna, golf pro at the Rogue River Country club wins the honors and gets ready to tee off while Ivan Harrington, president of the country club, Mrs. William Cowning of the country club's Women's Golfers association and Mayor James Dunlevy wait their turn. The foursome officially opened the 36-hole course. The course is open from 9 a.m. until midnight every day, Richard E. Randolph, owner, noted.

MARINE RETIRES - First Sgt. Betty Schultz, 39, completes work on the personnel board before retiring from active duty at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot at San Diego, Calif. She is the youngest woman to be retired from the Marines. (UPI)
