

Social Events Planned For Meeting of Dentists

A brunch and style show were on the calendar this noon for women whose husbands are attending the annual summer meeting of the Oregon State Dental Society. The Southern Oregon district of the Dental Society is hosting the meeting and the auxiliary to the Jackson County Dental Society gave the brunch and show.

Mrs. Abner O. Clark is president of the auxiliary, and Mrs. Bruce Stanley was general chair man of the brunch given at Rogue Valley Country club. Mrs. Billy Blackstone was commentator for the style show, staged by Burelson's store.

About 75 women attended the event. Swimming at the Country club and in the pools at members' homes was planned for this afternoon.

Tonight the dentists and their wives will attend a banquet at the Country club. Cocktails will be served at 7 o'clock and dancing will follow.

Saturday morning golf is on the program for the women and at 10 a.m. a tour of historic Beekman house, Jacksonville, and Eugene Bennett's studio, also Jacksonville, are planned. At noon a no-host luncheon will be held at the Country club.

Saturday afternoon some of those here for the convention will take a boat trip down the Rogue river, and in the evening a group will attend "Love's Labour's Lost" at the Oregon Shakespearean festival, Ashland.

Postal Picnic To Be Sunday

Postal employees of Medford have planned the annual picnic for Sunday, August 4, at the Diamond lake cabin of Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Fagone. The cabin is located on Route 102 on the west side of the lake.

Branch 143 of the National Association of Letter Carriers is the host group and will provide ice cream and punch. Others attending are asked to take potluck food for a picnic dinner, table service, card tables and chairs. Dinner will be at noon.

Games, boating and swimming are planned.

Invited to attend are all postal employees and their families, retired postal employees and their families and members of the women's auxiliary to the branch.

Guests Visit Jacksonville

Jacksonville — Guests at the home of Mrs. Helen Maples, on C street, are her daughter, Mrs. Jean Archer, Mrs. Archer's cousin, John Tankley, and Otto Miller, all of Huntington Beach, Calif. The group also is visiting Mrs. Archer's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Moore and son, Michael, 612 Sterling road.

Mrs. Archer entertained Monday evening at a tacos dinner served in the patio of Mrs. Maples' home. Attending were some 20 relatives and friends.

The visitors, with Mrs. Maples and Mr. and Mrs. Moore and son, made a camping trip Tuesday and Wednesday to Howard prairie. Thursday was spent visiting the Jacksonville Museum and other local historic points. Earlier they toured the Beekman house where Mrs. Maples is a hostess.

On Sunday the group will entertain Mrs. Maples at dinner in observance of her birthday. They plan to leave by the coast route stopping in San Francisco en route home.

Calendar

Friday: 8 p.m. — Westonka council, Degree of Pochontas, Redman hall.

8:30 p.m. — Derby Hoedowners, Derby Community hall.

8:30 p.m. — Square and round dance workshop, VFW hall, Shady Cove.

Saturday: 8:30 p.m. — Hoedown, Country Square, Talent.

Anne Lise To Sing

Ashland — Anne Lise, a Danish soprano, will appear in concert at Southern Oregon college Tuesday, August 6, at 2 p.m. in Churchill auditorium.

She studied at the Royal Conservatory in Copenhagen under Svend Methling and in Milan, Italy, under Maestro Pias. In 1952 the singer came to the United States and in 1955 gave a concert in Salem, Ore., where she made her adopted home and later married.

Her excellence is now attracting a rapidly expanding following — compensating for the initial handicap of her modesty, her strict insistence on singing only good music and her refusal to change her personality (as suggested once by a Hollywood agent).

Her serious musical aptitude is coupled with a spontaneous, unique Danish humor that reminds some of Victor Borge. This infectious humor made her a memorable and hilarious "Mrs. Peacham" in the Salem Pentacle theater production last August of "The Three Penny Opera."

The public is invited to attend this concert free of charge.

Charlie" is the story of a man who dies and then returns to earth as a woman; Lauren Bacall and Sydney Chaplin starred in the Broadway production. The play runs through Saturday, August 3; curtain time is 8:30 p.m. and tickets are available at the door.

On washable fabrics, sponge lipstick spots with carbon tetrachloride and wash in warm water, then wash in soapy hot water. For coffee stains, stretch area over a bowl and pour boiling water through stain from height of several feet. Men will be wearing red (browns and greens are expected to be lower in popularity) in sportswear next winter. Red stretch will be especially strong. Women, too, will be brighter—in ruby and even scarlet, report fashion sources.

Master Point Sessions Slated by Bridge Clubs

Three master point plays are scheduled for this week by bridge clubs of the area. The Medford Duplicate club play will be held Tuesday evening, August 6 in the Girls Community club.

Riverside Bridge club members will conduct their session Wednesday afternoon and Bear Creek club's play will be Thursday evening.

A series of contests sponsored by the Medford Duplicate club is at the half-way mark with four more sessions to be played. At the club's regular session July 30 the north-south winners were Mrs. W. W. Stevenson and Chester Reavis, 136 points. Continuing winners in that position were Mrs. Leland Clark and Mrs. Frank Baker, 125; Dr. L. D. Wanek and George W. Rhode, 123; and Mrs. George Dean and Col. D. H. Barber, and Mrs. George Coddling and Berg Marlen, who tied for fourth place. They scored 108½ points.

The east-west winners were Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Sanderson, 123; Mrs. Lawrence Buonocore and Mrs. J. Wall, Spokane, Wash., 122½; Lt. and Mrs. W. F. Cole, San Francisco, Calif., 122, and John Russell and Ralph Meegan, 121.

Thirty-two Riverside Bridge club players competed at their July 31 regular play, when Mrs. S. T. Richardson and George Selig, San Francisco, took first place in the north-south position. They had a score of 100 points.

Tying for second and third places were Mrs. B. B. Hughes and Mrs. George Coddling, and Mrs. G. B. Torgerson and Mrs. Fred Rehling, with 93½ points.

East-west winners were R. T. Meegan and C. M. Crews, 110½; Mrs. R. A. Naumes and Mrs. Noelle Elliott, 105½, and Mrs. A. K. Trout and Mrs. Del Clifford, 87½.

DAV, Auxiliary To Hold Events

Jackson county chapter, Disabled American Veterans, and auxiliary will meet with Grants Pass for a joint picnic Sunday, August 4, at 2 p.m. at TouVelle State park.

The Trench Rats and Alley Cats, the fun order of the DAV, will meet Sunday, August 4, at 9:30 a.m. at the home of Mrs. Hazel Rawles, 345 Apple street.

Mrs. Rawles will serve a Hawaiian breakfast for a nominal fee, and the proceeds will go to the Camp White hospital fund.

The organization represents Klamath Falls, Roseburg, Grants Pass and Medford.

Past Commanders club of the DAV auxiliary will meet Monday, August 5, at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Effie Reynolds, 21 North Peach street.

Refreshments will be served by the hostess following the business session.

Use Meat Thermometer

Meat authorities agree that a meat thermometer is the most accurate means of testing the "doneness" of roasts. To use the thermometer properly, home economists with the Gas Appliance Manufacturers association suggest inserting it into the raw meat so the bulb reaches the thickest part of the lean meat and does not rest in the fat or too near a bone. When the desired internal temperature is registered, push the thermometer a little deeper into the meat. If the temperature drops, you know that more cooking is needed.

WORK SMARTER — NOT HARDER

By BERNICE STRAWN

Not enough time! Some people manage to find reasonable solutions to this problem.

For instance, one of the world's greatest orators was born with a weak voice and lisped. To overcome his handicaps he practiced with pebbles in his mouth, recited while running uphill, and rehearsed before a mirror to correct his gestures.

If perseverance brought success to him, it can also help us to manage time. We could analyze and weigh the jobs we try to do in a day. Are they all necessary? Should we learn to say "no"?

We don't expect to have luxuries on a limited income without careful planning. Likewise, living on 24 hours a day requires a time budget and the will to stick to it.

For economical cook-outs, our Extension service food marketing specialist, Mrs. Zelma Neugart, recommends broiler-fryers. They're in good supply now.

Her ideas for cooking smarter sound good to us. You simply sprinkle each half of the chicken with smoke salt, then baste with melted butter or margarine. Broil slowly. Allow 1 to 1½ hours for halves of a 2½ pound bird.

Vases with cloudy film and mineral deposit can be cleaned with hot suds plus a little water conditioner or softener. Let stand for several hours.

A little ammonia or soda is also helpful. If necessary, loosen soil with a bottle brush. Add a few grains of rice to narrow neck vases and shake.

Calories do count, including those in sugar on frozen fruits. If you're freezing your own, why not pack some without sugar, suggests Virginia Weiser, OSU Extension nutrition specialist.

Peaches, apricots, apples and cherries darken unless you give them special treatment with ascorbic acid or one of the anti-browning products you'll find in grocery stores.

Before you buy fruits for freezing, Miss Weiser says to check on the variety, because some freeze better than others. OSU extension bulletin, "Freezing Preservation of Fruits and Vegetables," gives you details. Write us for your free copy.

To remove clear tape from paper or cardboard without tearing the surface, heat the tape with the point of a warm iron. This softens the adhesive and tape pulls off.

Return
Talent — Mr. and Mrs. Ben Furch returned Sunday from a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dow, and family, Hillsboro. Mr. Dow is Mrs. Furch's son.

A group of women from Oswego, Ore., who come to the Rogue valley each summer for performances of the Oregon Shakespearean festival were here last week end. Three of the seven women in the group pictured here are (left to right) Mrs. Kenneth Goodall, Mrs. George Heilig and Mrs. Elizabeth Salway Ryan. Mrs. Goodall, a tree lance writer, is author of "Oregon's Iron Dream" and Mrs. Ryan, on the staff of the Oswego newspaper, is a former president of Oregon Press Women. The three are pictured at Mary's Casa where they had dinner before attending the evening's performance at Ashland.

Prospect Woman Leaves for Trip

Prospect — Mrs. John Freeland has left for Oroville, Calif., where her daughter, Linda Freeland, has been visiting a grandmother for the past two weeks.

Before her departure guests at the Freeland home were Jeffe Staggs, her uncle from Los Angeles, and Mrs. Donna Donahue and son Garry, and Mrs. Katy Nielsen, all Oroville.
