Seven Men Hold Answer To Yacht Abandonment

San Francisco - UPI - Seven men, with the answer to why they abandoned a $250,000 luxury yacht in the Pacific, were aboard a Navy submarine today somewhere off the Southern California coast.
 They include a retired admiral and six crewmen, who left the 104-foot motor yacht Freedom II on the high sea southwest of here Wednesday for the doubtful safety of a 14-foot outboard motorboat.
 There reasons for leaving the yacht were not expected to be revealed until late Saturday night when they arrive in San Diego aboard the submarine USS Razorback, which plucked them from the ocean shortly before midnight Wednesday.
600 Miles off Coast
 The yacht was abandoned about 600 miles off the California coast while en route to San Diego from Honolulu under the command of retired Vice Adm. Gerald Bogan, one-time commander of the U.S. First Task Force.
 The Navy identified other members of the Freedom II's crew as William Pratt, W. J. Prouty, T. G. Reeves, W. J. Tapert, R. C. Groves and D. A. Meek. No home address were immediately available.
 The yacht, which carried such fancy stores as champagne, pate de foie gras and filet mignon, apparently sank after drifting for several hours.
 The Navy picket ship USS Galahad, which searched for the stricken vessel Thursday, reported by radio that "when last sighted by the USS Razorback, Freedom II was down by six feet at the bow."

Electronic Lung Keeps Ward Alive

London - UPI - Dr. Stephen Ward hovered near death today, still in a coma 48 hours after he took an overdose of sleeping pills in an apparent suicide attempt.
 The 50-year-old society osteopath, convicted of vice charges by a Criminal Court jury Wednesday, was being kept alive only by an electronic lung in St. Stephen's Hospital.
 A hospital spokesman said Ward, who tried to kill himself just a few hours before the jury found him guilty, is "critically ill."
 As Ward moved toward death, the last of his many girl friends, singer Julia Gulliver, 22, vowed to make public the names of his many former friends who deserted him at his trial.
