Foxley-Sleeter Rites Held

One of the summer's largest weddings was held July 26 when Miss Roberta Ann Sleeter became the bride of Edward George Foxley Jr., in 4 o'clock afternoon rites in First Presbyterian church.

Dr. D. Kirkland West performed the ceremony.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Robert William Sleeter, 39 South Berkeley way, and the late Dr. Sleeter, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Edward George Foxley, Salem. Mrs. Mamie Sleeter, Rogue Valley Manor, is a grandmother of the bride.

Dr. Richard L. Sleeter, Portland, gave his niece in marriage.

The bride's gown was Chantilly-type lace and silk organza over satin. The fitted bodice with scoop neckline and long sleeves was of lace and the front of the sculptured bell skirt was trimmed with alternating floral and banded lace panels. Fullness from pleats at the back formed the fabric train. Her veil was held from a circle of orange blossoms and pearls. She carried a bouquet of white gladioli.

Sisters Attend Bride

Miss Christine Sleeter was maid of honor for her sister and bridesmaids were Miss Ellen Sleeter, another sister, and the Misses Lou Elsa Voegtly and Claudia Hoover. All wore street-length dresses of green lace and satin and carried bouquets of white chrysanthemums.

William Y. Burton Jr., Portland, served as best man and seating the guests were Steven Reeder, Klamath Falls and Portland; Peter Bergreen, McMinnville and Portland, and Gregory Milnes, Medford and Salem.

Mrs. Norman Thames played the organ, and Miss Mira Frohnmayer sang Gounod's "Entreat Me Not To Leave Thee."

Bouquets of white gladioli decorated the church.

About 200 guests attended the ceremony and the reception given by the bride's mother in the garden of the Sleeter home. Mrs. Otto Frohnmayer greeted the guests.

Mrs. William Barker and Mrs. Oscar Heyerman poured the punch. Mrs. A. N. Potter and Mrs. Charles Barnes served the wedding cake and Mrs. Dunbar Carpenter poured the coffee. Miss Sharon Carr had charge of the guest book.

The bride's mother wore a pink dress with lace trimming and matching hat and accessories. Both had white orchid corsages.

The couple made their wedding trip to Victoria, B.C., Canada. The bride's traveling attire was a blue and white silk dress which she wore with blue knitted cape and white accessories.

They will live in Portland.

The bride is a 1963 graduate of the University of Oregon where she majored in medical technology. The bridegroom is entering his third year in the University of Oregon medical school. He was graduated in 1961 from Willamette university. The bride is a member of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority, and the bridegroom of Phi Delta Theta.

Out-of-town guests included the bridegroom's parents; Walter Fawcett, grandfather of the bride, and Miss Helen Fawcett, an aunt, both Vallejo, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Fawcett, an aunt and uncle, San Jose, Calif.; Mrs. Rae Hamilton, another aunt from San Francisco; Mr. and Mrs. Mark Andrews and son, Tom, cousins, and Mrs. Gilbert Foster, an aunt, Napa, Calif.; Mrs. Howard Momen, Sacramento and Mrs. Richard L. Sleeter, and daughter and son, Carolyn and Richard Sleeter.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Christensen, 183 White Oak drive, were hosts for the rehearsal dinner the evening before the wedding.

Following the wedding reception a family dinner was served at the Colony restaurant.

Home Rites In Ashland Wed Couple

Ashland—Janet Irene Bushnell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Bushnell, 265 Third street, became the bride of Harold Bell Jr., Medford, in a morning ceremony performed July 19 by Bishop William Davis of the Church of Latter Day Saints, at his home on Upper Clay street.

For her wedding the bride wore a white taffeta brocade frock and carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations. She was attended by her sister, Mrs. Evelyn Sollee, whose dress of cocoa brown was accented by a white carnation corsage.

William Bushnell gave his sister in marriage and the bridegroom's uncle, Reg Dyer, served as best man. Pink gladioli decorated the Davis home for the service which was attended by more than 30 relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. George Engel were hosts for a reception held in their home at 142 Church street.

After a honeymoon in southern California Mr. and Mrs. Bell are at home in Ashland at 32 Granite street.

The bride attended the Albany, Corvallis and Ashland schools. Her husband was educated in Louisiana and is employed in Medford as a tile setter. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Vandersypen, 324 Murphy road, Medford.

Recent Party Honors Bride

A wedding shower was given recently in honor of Mrs. Charles Haas at the home of Mrs. Max Weston, Brownell motel.

Assisting Mrs. Weston with serving were Mrs. Gilbert Hill and Mrs. Dan Haas.

Decorations for the occasion were pink gladioli, lily of the valley, and pink candles.

The punch bowl was encircled with wedding bells and wedding rings.

Attending were Mrs. Robert Hord, Mrs. Gilbert Hill, Mrs. Charles Johnson, Mrs. Floyd Morrison, Mrs. George Haas, Mrs. John Ring, Mrs. Max Hooping, Mrs. Frank Wooten, Mrs. Henry Lindstrom, Mrs. John Keaveny, Mrs. John Luttrell, Mrs. Claude Dodge, Mrs. Dan Haas, Mrs. Erma Clutter and the Misses Yvonne Ring, Mary Ring, Alberta and Carmin Hall and Terri Diederich.

Mrs. Dan Haas was in charge of the game hour.

The recent bride was presented cards and gifts from those attending.

Visitors Leave For Portland

Mrs. Rodney O. Fety and daughter, Miss Claudia Jean Fety, left Friday for their home in Portland after being here for several days. Mrs. Fety, formerly of Medford, is the former Miss Jean Platt.

During their stay they visited Mr. and Mrs. Leo E. Hoag, 357 Havana street; Mr. and Mrs. C. Z. Boydner, 807 East Jackson street; Earl C. Gaddis, 815 East Jackson street, an uncle of Mrs. Fety; Mrs. George Carter, 821 East Jackson street, and other friends.

Dias-McKeown Ceremony

Miss Carol McKeown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. McKeown, 516 Wilamette avenue, became the bride of Lt. Charles C. Dias, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence C. Dias, Westerly, R.I. in rites held Saturday, July 27.

The double-ring ceremony was read at four o'clock in the afternoon in Meeker Memorial chapel, First Methodist church, by the Rev. John O. Reynolds. About 85 friends and relatives were present.

White gladioli decorated the chancel and altar of the chapel. White satin streamers, bows, and bouquets of white gladioli marked the pews ends. White candles were in the candelabra.

The bride was escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father. She wore a floor-length gown of white taffeta-lined silk organza fashioned with fitted bodice, three-quarter length sleeves and scoop neckline. Her sheath skirt extended into a chapel train and Chantilly lace formed a full length panel down the front of the gown and was repeated on the train. Her veil of hand-rolled silk illusion was held by a crown of crystals and pearls. She wore pearl earrings, a gift of the bridegroom and her bouquet was of white roses and stephanotis.

Mrs. Terry G. Sherwood, sister of the bride, was honor attendant. Other attendants were Mrs. Frank J. McKeown III, sister-in-law of the bride, and Mrs. David Maxwell. All wore identical pastel yellow taffeta-lined silk organza dresses, designed with elbow length sleeves, fitted bodices with scoop neckline and over-skirt, with back bow and streamers. They wore matching bouffant head veils, held by large roses, and carried yellow gladioli.

Maynard Hadley was soloist; Mrs. Leslie Boardman was at the organ. Capt. Frank J. McKeown III, brother of the bride, served as best man. Terry Sherwood, brother-in-law of the bride and David Maxwell seated the guests.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. McKeown chose a dress of champagne colored organza over taffeta with matching accessories. Her corsage was of coral colored gladioli. Due to illness, the bridegroom's mother was unable to attend. The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The bride's table was covered with white satin with floor-length flounce of white embossed marquisette over satin. Chartreuse tapers were combined with yellow gladioli. The table from which punch was served was on the patio and was decorated in the same manner as the bride's table. Pastel yellow gladioli were used through the home and patio.
