

Service Held in New Church

Talent—In the first wedding ceremony to be held in the new First Christian church, Miss Joyce Louise Hunter was married to Allan William Morse. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hunter, Pioneer road, Talent, and the bridegroom is the son of William E. Morse, Kailua, Hawaii, and the late Mrs. Morse.

The Rev. Frederick Ross Evans officiated at the July 27 rites. Some 200 relatives and friends attended the double ring ceremony held at 8 o'clock in the evening.

Bride Wears Lace

Mr. Hunter escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. She wore a floor length gown of tulle and Chantilly lace, trimmed with sequins. The gown was fashioned with a sweetheart neckline, and the overskirt had a cascade of net ruffles in back. Her elbow length veil was held by a pearl tiara, and she carried a cascade bouquet of pink roses and white carnations with aqua netting and white ribbons.

Blue hydrangeas, pink and white gladioli, and white candles in brass candelabra decorated the church.

Mrs. Jack Hausotter, Roseburg, served as matron of honor for her sister. Mrs. Dale Abel was bridesmatron, and Miss Gloria Haggard, bridesmaid.

Carry Carnations

They wore sheath dresses of blue on white print. The matron of honor carried a bouquet of pink carnations, with aqua net and ribbons, and the other attendants carried bouquets of pink and white carnations, with aqua net and ribbons.

Henry Scott served as best man for the bridegroom. Ushers were Robert Hunter, brother of the bride, James Scott, and Willard Chapman, Ashland, brother-in-law of the bride.

Flower girls, Sara Hausotter and Linda and Glenda Chapman, and candelighters, Lisa and Debra Hausotter, were all nieces of the bride. They wore pink nylon dresses with petal overskirts.

Ronald Chapman, nephew of the bride, was the ring bearer.

Prayer Spoken

Organist for the wedding was Miss Margaret Ramsay, Ashland, and Mrs. Ralph Matlack was soloist. A spoken prayer from the balcony was said by Miss Jeanne Thorpe, and the choral amen response was given by the soloist. For her daughter's wed-

Evening Ceremony Held

In an evening wedding ceremony attended by some 150 guests, Miss Darlene Inez Chitwood became the bride of Edward Allan McGinty Jr., Saturday, July 6 at 8 o'clock.

Miss Chitwood is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Chitwood, 932 Alta street, Medford, and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Allan McGinty Sr., 103 King street, Medford, are the parents of the bridegroom.

The couple, both graduates of Phoenix High school, were married in the Medford Friends church by the minister, Jack Willcuts. The bride's father gave her "in marriage."

For her wedding the bride wore a floor length gown fashioned with a train, and lace jacket. The gown of white satin had a fitted bodice and scoop neckline. Her short veil was held by a pearl tiara, and her crescent shaped bouquet was of white chrysanthemum orchids with Ester Reed daisies.

Miss Judy Dixon was her maid of honor, and bridesmaids were Miss Gail Stone, the bride's cousin, and Miss Linda McGinty, the bridegroom's sister.

The three attendants wore dresses of yellow taffeta brocade. The street length dresses were of the same pattern as the bride's gown. Their bouquets were of Ester Reed daisies, and they wore white accessories.

Linda Ford and Kendall Smith, both Fresno, Calif., the bride's niece and nephew, were flower girl and ring bearer.

The bridegroom's best man was Othar Richey, and Michael Arant, Michael Hoover, and Clayton Barry, Gold Hill were ushers. Other attendants were Jack Winchester, Phoenix, and Ron Walker, Central Point.

The bridegroom's sister, Cheryl McGinty, and the bride's niece, Pamela Ford, Fresno, Calif., were candlelighters. Mrs. Clem Finley furnished organ music for the wedding and the bride's brother, Don Chitwood, was vocalist.

At the reception given by the bride's parents in the church fellowship room, the cake, made by Mrs. Floyd Ditch, Central Point, was served by Mrs. Don Chitwood, Newberg, the bride's sister-in-law. Punch was served by Miss Sharon Shellabarger, the bridegroom's aunt, and Miss Cindy Anderson poured coffee and tea.

Miss Donna McGinty, the bridegroom's sister, and Miss Konnie Smith, the bride's niece, were in charge of the guest book, and in charge of the gifts were Michael Ford, the bride's nephew and Miss Carola Smith, the bride's niece.

For their trip to the Oregon coast, the bride wore a yellow and white two piece cotton suit, with a corsage from her bridal bouquet.

The newlyweds have moved to their home at 202 North Fifteenth street, Corvallis, where they will both attend Oregon State university.

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith, and family, Fresno, Calif., Mrs. Carol Ford and children,

From Kansas

Among summer visitors in the valley is Mrs. G. M. Bradshaw from Wanego, Kans., a houseguest in the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Earl H. Adams, 206 Girard drive.

Her visit was the occasion for a dinner party last week for which Mr. and Mrs. Victor Robb were hosts in their home at 2375 Lucky lane. Also attending were Mr. and Mrs. Adams, and Mr. and Mrs. David Curtis, Ashland.
