

RETURNS SERVE - Mike Naumes returned a serve from Ron Singler in the men's singles final events at the Medford Park and Recreation department's Community Tennis tournament held Sunday at the high school courts. Naumes won two sets from Singler with scores of 3-6, 8-6, and 6-4.

Mike Naumes Captures Two First Places in Events At Community Tennis Tourney

Mike Naumes of Medford captured two singles championships and also shared semi-final honors in men's doubles competition in Sunday's Medford Community Tennis tournament action.

All finals were completed at the high school courts with the exception of men's doubles, which will be run off tomorrow, Aug. 6 at the courts. The time of the match is set for 6:30 a.m.

Seeded third in the event, Naumes succeeded in capturing the men's singles championship by defeating Ron Singler in three sets 3-6, 8-6, 6-4. Naumes came up through the ranks in the Saturday games with a bye in the opening round and by downing rival Skip Graham 6-2, 6-0.

In junior men's singles topped Naumes defeated Chris Rasmussen 6-1, 6-4 to gain the first place trophy and then went on to place in the semi-finals events in men's doubles with partner John McKinley. Both will compete in finals event on Tuesday.

Women's singles winner Sue Naumes who held her number one seed position by defeating Kathy Smith 6-1, 6-0 in the final matches. Sue started out in the tournament by getting a bye and then by defeating Rosemary Taylor 6-1, 6-0. Later on, she defeated Mary Walsh in semifinal events 6-1, 6-4.

The two women competitors later on joined forces in women's doubles events and captured the championship by winning out over Paula Lowery and Linda Hess 6-4, 6-2.

In men's doubles semi-finals, teammates John Root and Ron Singler retained their No. 1 seeded spot by defeating John Dellenback and Ted Tibbitt, previous men's singles champion, in two hard fought games with scores of 3-6, 8-6, and 6-2. The pair will face Naumes and McKinley this Tuesday.

In mixed doubles, John Root and Sue Naumes downed Phil Holman and Jeanne Salade 6-1, 6-2 Sunday night.

The tourney is the third annual one sponsored by the park and recreation department. On hand again next year to officiate will be Root and Singler.

Singler reported that entrants next year will have to be limited to two events and that the tournament will be held the week following the Junior Olympic swim meet so that the two events will not conflict.

Naumes def. Chris Rasmussen 6-1, 6-4. Naumes def. Ron Singler 3-6, 8-6, 6-4.

Women's singles: Sue Naumes def. Kathy Smith 6-1, 6-0.

Women's doubles: Sue Naumes-Kathy Smith def. Paula Lowery and Linda Hess 6-4, 6-2.

Mixed doubles: Sue Naumes and John Root def. Holman-Salade 6-1, 6-2.

Connolly said he could not accept the terms offered by the club. Hickey said, "We'd still like to have him, he is welcome to come, but we're going to have a good football team, with or without him."

Hickey announced that half-back J. D. Smith would start working Monday but will not play against Minnesota in Portland this week end. Smith lost considerable weight due to the mumps.

Five rookies were released on waivers. They were Jim Bogdalek, tackle from Toledo; Ernest Decourley, tackle from Morehead State; Rodger McFarland, defensive halfback from Kansas; Gary Moeller, line backer from Ohio State, and Bob Price, guard from North Texas State. The cuts brought the Forty-Niner squad down to 50.

Saturday the last major scrimmage of the training season was held with quarterbacks John Brodie and Bob Waters hitting for five touchdowns and Dick Norman hitting for one. Most of the aerials went to Bernie Casey.

Riverside Captures Portland - (UPI) - Riverside of Portland edged defending champion Ontario 2-1 to win the Oregon Little League baseball tournament Sunday.

Mantle Responds To Ovarations With Home Run Wallop

By TIM MORIARTY UPI Sports Writer
Baseball old-timers insist Babe Ruth had more magnetism and Joe DiMaggio had a bit more poise, yet Mickey Mantle possesses the same flair for the dramatics that marked the careers of his New York Yankee predecessors.

You'd have to go back to the Babe and the DiMag to compare the ovation Mantle received from 38,555 fans at Yankee Stadium Sunday when he made his first appearance in two months as a pinch hitter in the second game of a doubleheader against the Baltimore Orioles.

The applause reached a deafening crescendo seconds later when Mighty Mickey, after looking at a called strike, blasted a slider by Baltimore southpaw George Brunet into the left field stands to tie the score at 10-11 in the seventh inning.

Barber Homered The Yankees went on to win the game, 11-10, in the 10th on a pinch sacrifice fly by Yogi Berra and gain a split of the twin bill. The Orioles won the opener, 7-2, on homers by John Powell, John Orsino and pitcher Steve Barber.

In the opener, Barber homered in the first and Powell connected in the sixth off Ralph Terry to give the Orioles a 4-2 lead. Orsino hit his homer in the eighth off Tom Metcalf, making his first major league appearance. Dick Hall pitched 2 1/3 hitless innings to preserve Barber's 15th victory.

The Chicago White Sox remained second in the American league race, 7 1/2 games back of the Yankees, by blasting the Los Angeles Angels, 8-1; Kansas City downed Minnesota, 6-2; Washington belted Boston, 7-5; and Cleveland edged Detroit, 3-2, after losing the opener, 2-0.

Camilo Carreon paced the White Sox to victory, driving in three runs with a double and a single. Joel Horlen limited the Angels to six hits but needed relief help from Hoyt Wilhelm in the eighth.

Drabowsky Shines Moe Drabowsky pitched a five-hitter, scored a run and knocked in two tallies for the A's. Drabowsky's bases-loaded single climaxed a five-run burst against Jim Perry in the third inning. Jim Hall and Harmon Killebrew homered for the Twins.

The Senators outslugged the Red Sox with the help of a three-run pinch homer by Minnie Minoso and a pair of solo smashes by Jim King. Don Rudolph, with relief help from Pete Burnside and Ed Roebuck, picked up his seventh victory. Wilbur Wood took the loss.

Hank Aguirre permitted only a pair of singles and Don Wert hit a solo homer in the Tigers' opening game victory. The Indians won the nightcap on Tito Francona's two-run single in the ninth inning off Jim Bunning.

Trophy Taken By Whitworth Milwaukee - (UPI) - Kathy Whitworth, 23, Jal, N.M., determined to end her role as "bridesmaid" on the Ladies Professional Golf Association tour, was closing in on the leading money winners today after taking the $2,000 first place prize in the Milwaukee Jaycee Women's Open.

Miss Whitworth, who finished second in earnings last year, notched her second consecutive victory and third of 1963 with a 72-hole total of 286 that was topped off by a blazing two-under-par 70 final round Sunday.

Her nearest rivals at seven strokes back were Jackie Pung, Daly City, Calif., and Louise Suggs, Delray Beach, Fla., who turned in totals of 293.

Podres, Craig Have Reasons for Regret After Sunday Tilts

By MARTIN LADER UPI Sports Writer
Johnny Podres, a winner, and Roger Craig, a loser, have little in common today—except for a few tears of regret.

Podres, who is used to winning, came within three outs of a no-hitter when he hurled the Los Angeles Dodgers to a 4-0 triumph over the Houston Colts Sunday night. Johnny Temple opened the bottom of the ninth with a ground single to ruin the no-hit bid and after Podres hit Bob Aspromonte, Larry Sherry came in to retire the Colts.

Craig, who has learned how to lose since joining the New York Mets, has a lot more reason to cry after tying a National league record by dropping his 18th consecutive game. Craig produced his own downfall with a damaging error as the Milwaukee Braves edged the Mets, 2-1, and made the hard-luck New York pitcher a 20-game loser for the second year in a row.

In other games, the Philadelphia Phillies dropped the St. Louis Cardinals into third place by sweeping a doubleheader, 7-3 and 5-2, the Cincinnati Reds won two games from the Pittsburgh Pirates, 5-2 and 4-1 and the San Francisco Giants downed the Chicago Cubs 2-1 in 11 innings.

Podres retired Houston in order in six of the first eight innings, striking out three and walking three. The win was his seventh in his last eight decisions, including four shutouts.

The Dodgers broke a scoreless deadlock in the sixth with two hits sandwiched around an infield out and they got three more in the seventh, two of them scoring on a double by Podres.

Shows 2-20 Records Craig, who hasn't won since April 29 and now shows a 2-20 mark for the season, gave up a first inning home run to Eddie Mathews and then allowed what proved to be the winning run when he overthrew first base on a pickoff attempt in the sixth. Craig thus tied the league record for consecutive losses set by Clifton Curtis of Boston in 1910.

Willie Mays hit his 27th home run off Chicago reliever Lindy McDaniel to make a winner of Don Larsen, the fourth Giant pitcher. The first San Francisco run resulted on an error by Ron Santo, but Santo later made amends with an eighth inning circuit clutch to tie the score and shatter Billy O'Dell's bid for a second straight shutout.

Tony Taylor and Tony Gonzalez each got three hits in the second game as the Phils came from behind with three runs in the eighth inning to complete a sweep. St. Louis manager Johnny Keane was ejected from both games.

Bob Purkey and Joe Nuxhall each pitched complete games for the Reds. Purkey got his hitting support from Frank Robinson, who drove in three runs, and rookie Tom Harper added Nuxhall's cause with a two-run homer.

Chicago - (UPI) - The Los Angeles Dodgers took the day off today to bask in their 4 1/2 game National league lead prior to opening a three-game series with the Cubs Tuesday.

The Dodgers maintained their league-lead Sunday with a 4-0 shutout of the Houston Colts to emerge 2-1 for the three games.

Four Inducted Into Fame Hall Cooperstown, N.Y. - (UPI) - Former outfielders Sam Rice and Elmer Flick, who long ago despaired of achieving baseball's highest honor, were formally inducted into the baseball Hall of Fame today along with the late Eppa Rixey and John Clarkson.

A capacity crowd of 9,700, including Commissioner Ford Frick and many other baseball dignitaries, was on hand for the ceremonies which were held before an exhibition game between the Boston Red Sox and Milwaukee Braves. The game was played at Abner Doubleday Field, where the game's mythologists claim baseball was invented in 1839.

LARGE AUDIENCE New York - (UPI) - The radio broadcast of the July 22 Sonny Liston-Floyd Patterson heavyweight title bout was heard by "nearly 56 million people," it was announced Friday by the American Broadcasting Company. ABC said that a survey, prepared by Sindlinger and Co., indicates 36,608,000 males and 19,066,000 females listened to the broadcast in the United States.

Libel Suit Against Post Begins in Federal Court

Atlanta - (UPI) - A $10-million libel suit brought by former Georgia Athletic Director Wally Butts against the Saturday Evening Post began in federal court today.

Butts' suit was sparked by a Post article last March called "The Story of a College Football Fix."

The trial got under way in the courtroom of Judge Lewis Morgan. Picture taking and broadcasting of the trial proceedings were forbidden.

A 12-man jury with two alternates sitting in will decide if the Post article printed March 23 libeled Butts when it said that the former athletic director gave away information on key Georgia football plays and formations to rival coach Paul Bryant of Alabama.

Accidentally Connected The Post story quoted Atlanta insurance man George Burnett as saying he was accidentally connected into a telephone conversation that took place between Butts in Atlanta and Bryant in Tuscaloosa, Ala. The alleged conversation, the Post article said, took place Sept. 13, 1962, nine days before the Georgia-Alabama game in Birmingham, the opening contest for both teams.

Both Butts and Bryant issued heated denials of the Post story and both filed multi-million dollar libel suits. Bryant's suit against the Curtis Publishing Company magazine was filed as a separate action.
