Army Reserve Units Return Following Summer Training

Battalion Headquarters and Companies E, F, and G of the 104th division have returned to Medford from active duty training at Ft. Ord, California.

The second battalion, 414th Regiment, basic combat training, was found "mobilization ready" to accomplish its mission by Regular Army evaluators at the conclusion of the unit's summer training at Camp Roberts, according to official releases.

One Army evaluator stated that whatever doubts he might have had concerning mobilization readiness of reserve units was dispelled after seeing the quality training of units of the 104th Division.

Emphasis on Readiness

The emphasis at the summer training was on battalion mobilization readiness rather than the inter-battalion training competition.

Lt. Col. John F. Rush, Medford, commanding officer, said the success of this summer training was due in large measure to the greater responsibility placed upon the non commissioned officers and the efficient manner in which it was carried out.

Drawing special praise from Colonel Rush were Capt. James D. Straus, Central Point, operations and training officer, H-H company; First Lt. Peter D. Schmitz, Medford, land navigation, company F; S/Sgt. Adolf C. Larson, Medford, supply sergeant, S/Sgt. Eugene W. Eccelston, Eagle Point, motor sergeant, company F.

Trainees from Company C, Third Battle Group, First Brigade, Ft. Ord, were assigned to the second battalion, 414th Regiment (BCT) for the summer training session. Sgt. Maj. Robert C. Tugman, Medford, H-H company, was given a commendation by the Ft. Ord unit for establishing an efficient coordination of activities between the two units.

Trainees Selected

Three trainees from Ft. Ord were selected to be members of the General's guard for the 104th Division's review and Colonel Rush said this was indicative of good training by the senior drill instructors, who were Sgt. Gary F. Ganoung, Grants Pass, Company E; Sgt. Phillip C. Rodenmayer, Ashland, Company F; Sgt. Clifford L. Ambers, Klamath Falls, Company H.

Several members of the second battalion, 414th Regiment (BCT) have received commendations from the Regular Army evaluators for outstanding work at the training site.

S/Sgt. Richard J. Swinney, Medford, was rated superior by the Regular Army evaluators for his work in land navigation. Other land navigation demonstrators regarded as outstanding were Specialist Donald W. McCoy, Ashland; Specialist Five Donald G. Dimmick, Grants Pass, Company E; Judson M. Parsons, Sgt. Dary M. Johnson, First Lt. Peter D. Schmitz, Medford, Sgt. Joseph P. Dugan, Ashland, Pfc. Dannie D. Chartier, Central Point, Company F; First Lt. Edward T. Cobo, Ashland, Company G.

Pre-Camp Planning

Colonel Rush said that a complete job of pre-camp planning had been done at the home station and followed through at summer camp by Captain Straus, Captain Donald W. Johnson, Grants Pass, Second Lt. Jack D. Pfeifer, Medford, Company E, Capt. Eldon L. Everton, Grants Pass, and First Lt. William D. Bennett, Medford, Company G.

The second battalion mess halls, operated by Sgt. Donald G. Adams, Central Point, Company F, and S/Sgt. Jack T. Jones, Medford, Company G, under the supervision of Sgt. First Class Hugh C. Radspinner, Klamath Falls, received high ratings.

The following promotions in Company F were announced by Capt. Robert D. Murphy, commander; Dannie D. Chartier, Central Point, Pfc, and Harvey Tonn, Central Point, Pfc. In Company G, the following promotions were announced by Capt. Eldon L. Everton, commander: Glenn D. Boles, sergeant, John A. Phillipich, sergeant, Arthur M. Glocker, specialist four, Medford; Richard W. West, sergeant, and John A. Corbel, specialist five, Grants Pass.

Among officers observing the various phases of training was Brig. Gen. William H. Prentice, Medford, senior assistant commander, 104th division.

Gold Hill Youth At Range Camp

Bruno Myer, Ramsey Canyon rd., Gold Hill, a member of Crater High school FFA, is being sponsored at range camp this year by the Jackson county Stockman's association, as the only representative from Jackson county.

The Oregon range youth camp under the direction of the American Range society members of Oregon is being held at the Lake Creek Guard station in Grant county this week.

Austin Klahn, of the forest service, county chairman for this year's camp, said the range camp is restricted to four sponsored boys between 14 and 17 years of age in each county. Purpose of the camp is to acquaint the boys in maintaining and using wisely the natural resouces of range, forest, wildlife and soils.

Although directed by the Pacific Northwest section of the American Society of Range Management, the camp draws upon the Oregon State university extension service, rancher organizations, federal agencies and many local civic groups and individuals in rounding out the camp program.
