Weakness in Tobacco Prices Feature Easier Stock Market

New York (UPI)—Considerable weakness in tobacco featured an easier stock market today.

Sizable declines in about a half-dozen tobaccos followed the publication of a story in a leading financial periodical stating the tobacco industry is bracing itself for two "additional, probably highly damaging blasts" from the U. S. surgeon general and American Medical Association.

Reynolds, Lorillard, Philip Morris and Liggett & Myers were off a point or more.

Steels were easier. Chrysler fell nearly a point in a narrowly mixed auto group.

Order Includes 'Voluntary' Act On Part of Pupils

Albany, N. Y. — (UPI) — Dr. James E. Allen Jr., state education commissioner, today directed school districts to refrain from daily religious exercises, "even to what is sometimes referred to as 'voluntary' action by pupils."

The directive reinforced Allen's already stated determination to abide by the U.S. Supreme Court decision on religious exercises in public schools.

At the same time, the commissioner urged the state's public schools to give renewed emphasis on teaching moral and spiritual values.

"Our young people need today as never before," Allen said, "to acquire the inner strength that comes from knowledge and understanding of these values."

Appeal By Parents

The ruling came on an appeal by parents of students in the Levittown Union Free School District No. 5 on Long Island.

The local board of education on Sept. 4, 1962 adopted a resolution that each school day begin with the Pledge of Allegiance to the flag followed by "reading or recitation of an appropriate excerpt from the Bible . . . singing of the fourth stanza of 'America' or . . . an excerpt from the Declaration of Independence or other historical document significant to our national and spiritual heritage."

Allen said it was apparent that the Levittown board "deliberately set out to evade the constitutional prohibition against daily religious exercises in public schools" by providing a list of alternative exercises.

He said it was only the daily morning devotional exercises with which the Supreme Court decision and his own were concerned.

Dismissed Appeal

Allen said he dismissed an appeal against use of the Pledge of Allegiance because the Supreme Court had not been called upon to decide its constitutionality. However, he said the New York Court of Appeals was presently considering whether the words "Under God" in the pledge were unconstitutional.

In June, 1962, the Supreme Court declared unconstitutional a prayer written by the state board of regents. Two months later Commissioner Allen ruled that a stanza of the "Star-Spangled Banner," designated a prayer by a local district — also was unconstitutional.

In a letter accompanying copies of the Levittown decision to school districts across the state, Allen said the ways and means that public schools can supply moral and spiritual teachings are many and varied.

"They are found in the study of history, literature, music and art," he said, "and in all subjects in which the great religions have played a strong part in the shaping of aspirations and growth."

CWA, Telephone Company Agree

Seattle—(UPI)—Pacific Northwest Bell Telephone Co. and the Communication Workers of America agreed Wednesday night on a new 38-month contract that provides for two wage reopeners during that time.

The contract, which must be ratified by the union membership before it becomes effective, is retroactive to Aug. 4. The agreement provides for immediate wage increases ranging from $4 to $5 a week, but the contract can be reopened for wage talks after 14 and 27 months.

The contract, reached after seven weeks of bargaining, also provides for certain fringe items including health and medical plans partially paid by the company and improvements in pension, vacation and emergency medical care benefits.

The contract affects 5,887 union members in Washington and Northern Idaho and 4,287 in Oregon.

The old contract expired last July 16 but was continued pending negotiations.

Lawyers Ask Federal Court Jurisdiction For Violators of Injunction in Virginia

United Press International
Attorneys for 352 persons charged with violating an anti-demonstration injunction at Danville, Va., said they would ask a federal court to take jurisdiction over their cases.

The lawyers are to appear before Judge Simon E. Sobeloff of the U.S. 4th Circuit Court of Appeals in Baltimore, Md. If Sobeloff refuses to switch the cases from Virginia courts to federal courts, attorneys said they would request a stay of the trials until Sobeloff rules on the constitutionality of the injunction.

Mobile County, Ala., school board attorney George Wood was expected to ask the Supreme Court in Washington to stay a federal court order that Mobile schools be desegregated next month.

There were a number of racial demonstrations in North Carolina Wednesday. About 300 Negroes marched in downtown Goldsboro, N.C., Wednesday night and police arrested 33 Negroes in a protest demonstration at a barbecue restaurant operated by a Negro for whites only.

Oregon Fire Conditions Worse

Forestry officials warned today that fire danger conditions in Oregon are worsening and that the northeast part of the state would be getting its warmest and driest weather of the summer in the next few days.

Possibilities of lightning in Southern and Eastern Oregon added to the threat.

The Todd Canyon fire, which covered about 1,000 acres near La Grande, was reported in "pretty good shape" by State Forestry officials today. They said the blaze had been trailed after high winds Wednesday caused new troubles.

Four small new blazes were quickly controlled on state land Wednesday. The largest of three blazes in the northeast district was held to four acres. One small fire was brought under control in the Lobster Valley district of Western Oregon.

The U.S. Forest Service reported a 160-acre fire in the U m a tilla National Forest, some 15 miles northwest of La Grande, was fought by 80 men Wednesday night. It was expected to be controlled today.

Advertising Firm Schedules Meeting

The Oregon District of Brown and Bigelow, a calendar and specialty advertising firm located in St. Paul, Minn., will meet at Crater Lake, Aug. 10 and 11, according to C. P. Conlon, manager of the Oregon district.

The meeting has been designed to exchange ideas which will benefit the businessmen in the Rogue Valley.

At the meeting, there will be a showing of the new fall executive gift lines that can be used by businessmen for their year-end remembrances.

On hand to assist in arrangements will be Larry Greene of Grants Pass, local representative for Brown and Bigelow.
