Hill Appointed State Planner

Salem - (UP) - Public Utility Commissioner Jonel C. Hill has been appointed by Gov. Mark Hatfield to be the state's emergency planning director.

The position was formerly held by Civil Defense Director Robert Sandstrom. However, Sandstrom recently told the Civil Defense Advisory Council he couldn't continue to hold the position because of added personal duties which resulted when his staff was cut from 18 to three by the legislature.

In the emergency planning role, Hill will make plans for keeping the state's economy going and provide adequate food and services to the people in case of nuclear attack.

Hill said he plans to contact top business and industrial leaders to help him prepare the program. He also plans to enlist the aid of state and federal officials in Oregon.
