Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Richard Fanger (Simonson-Walker)

Newlywed Couple At Home in Tacoma

Talent—Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Richard Fanger, whose marriage was a recent event in Ashland, are living at 9220 Pacific avenue, Apartment 58, Tacoma, Wash. They made their wedding trip to Lake Tahoe.

The bride is the former Miss Mary Lee Clark, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee W. Clark, Route 1, Box 452, Talent, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Richard E. Fanger, former Medford residents, now of Bellevue, Wash.

The nuptial mass was celebrated July 13 at 12 noon in Our Lady of the Mountain Catholic church. The Rev. William Walsh officiated.

The bride was escorted to the altar by her father. Her gown was of nylon organza with embroidered panels and fitted bodice. A caplet of orange blossoms and pearls held her elbow length illusion veil with butterfly face veil. She carried a nosegay of orchids and stephanotis. The pearls she wore were a gift from the bridegroom.

Miss Patricia O'Donnell, Downey, Calif., was the maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Carol Clark, a sister of the bride; Miss Marilyn Fanger, Bellevue, a sister of the bridegroom; Miss Miki O'Keefe and Miss Sue Revel, both Ashland.

Wears White Gown
The honor attendant's gown was of white organza over mint green taffeta. A mint green satin rose at the waist matched the rose on her headpiece of net.

The bridesmaids' frocks of organza over taffeta were of mint green, also with roses at the waistline matching their headpieces. All carried nosegays of white carnations.

Pamela and Debra Pentowski, Ashland, the flower girls, were dressed in mint green organza frocks over taffeta and they carried baskets of white carnations. They also had matching green net headpieces.

Gregory and Mark Clark, brothers of the bride, were the ring bearers.

Serving as best man was Thomas Alley, Medford. Seating the guests were Steven Clark, a brother of the bride; James Ryan, Salem, and Tom Hamlin, and William Goldin, both Medford. Altar boys were Daniel and Richard Re, Eugene, cousins of the bride.

Bouquets of white gladioli decorated the altar.

Mrs. Elaine Berge was organist.

The bride's mother chose to wear a mint green silk sheath dress with white accessories and the bridegroom's mother was dressed in a royal blue sheath dress of chiffon over taffeta. Both had corsages of white roses.

Reception at Hall
Some 200 persons attended the ceremony and reception given by the bride's parents in the Parish hall. White gladioli with mint green and white bows decorated the room.

Miss Bonnie Thompson, Phoenix, was in charge of the guest book. Mrs. Alley and Miss Annette Davidson served the cake while the Misses Mary Howard and Judy Harper poured the punch. Mrs. Alvin Fellers served the coffee.

Miss Verstrate Bride Of Kenneth Johnson

When Miss Mary Jane Verstrate became the bride of Kenneth Ross Johnson in recent candlelight rites read in the Medford Church of the Brethren, she wore a lavalier which had been worn by her mother and maternal grandmother at their weddings.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Verstrate, 1146 Woodrow lane, Medford, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Icel Johnson, Glen Echo way, Central Point.

The Rev. William Wash performed the 8 o'clock evening ceremony, July 26.

Miss Jean Heidemann was the honor attendant. Mrs. Don Maxwell, the former Miss Sandra Elrod, whose wedding was an event of last May 29, was the bridesmatron.

Lighting the candles were Richard Verstrate, brother of the bride, and Patrick Roth.

Bride Wears Organza
Mr. Verstrate escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. The bride's floor-length gown was of rayon organza over taffeta, made with fitted bodice and long sleeves. The scoop neckline was defined with appliques of Swiss embroidery trimmed with pearls and iridescent sequins. The skirt with controlled fullness was styled with pleats at the sides and back. A front panel was trimmed with Swiss embroidery and an obi bow with streamers accented the back waistline. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and stephanotis centered with a white orchid.

The attendants wore afternoon-length frocks of apricot colored linen-finished silk, made with fitted bodices and draped sheath skirts with back bows. Their matching headpieces were large single roses with bouffant veils.

Both carried arm bouquets of gladioli, Miss Heidemann's in orange and white, and Mrs. Maxwell's, all white.

Clyde Fjarli served as best man and groomsman was Wayne Fields. Seating guests were Walter Verstrate Jr., a brother of the bride, and Larry Johnson, a brother of the bridegroom.

Baskets of orange and white gladioli decorated the church.

Mrs. Camden Weller provided the wedding music.

Reception at Home
About 150 guests witnessed the ceremony and some 100 were at the reception given by the bride's parents in their home. Mrs. Clarence Black presided at the punch bowl and the wedding cake which had been made and decorated by Mrs. Jerry Stone, Provolt, also was served by her. Mrs. Fjarli registered the guests.

For her daughter's wedding and reception the bride's mother wore a turquoise blue sheath dress with jacket and portrait collar. The bridegroom's mother was dressed in a beige pink brocaded sheath frock with jacket. Both wore pink rosebud corsages.

From out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Johnson, Monmouth, Ore.; Ricky, Darrell and Barbara Johnson, nephews and niece of the bridegroom, Bishop, Calif., and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Roth Jr. and family, Bellflower, Calif.

Parties Given
The bridegroom's parents were hosts for the rehearsal dinner and previous to the wedding a shower was given for the bride-elect by Mrs. Lyle Heidemann and daughter, who served as the honor attendant.

The bride was graduated from Medford High school in 1961 and attended Southern Oregon college for a year. She is a service representative for Pacific Northwest Bell company. The bridegroom a 1960 graduate of the same high school is employed by the Union Oil company in Medford.

The couple made their wedding trip to the Oregon coast. The bride's suit was of pink linen which she wore with white accessories.

Hostetters Honored

Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Hostetter were honored at a farewell party given for them Thursday, August 1, at the Central Point home of Dr. and Mrs. Milton R. Snow. The Hostetters will leave soon for Portland where he has been transferred by the Bureau of Land Management.

Sponsors of the party were members of the Builder's class of First Methodist church, Medford. Mr. Hostetter was class teacher for several years and the couple have been members since. Glen Duysen, class president, presented them with a silver dish on which the class name had been inscribed.

Host couples for the event were members of the class executive committee, including the Duysens, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Morris, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver P. Taylor, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Darby. The guests enjoyed swimming and croquet early in the evening.

Recess
Woman's Christian Temperance union members have recessed meetings for this month and the next session for the group has been announced for September 19.

Kansans Leave After Visit

Jacksonville—Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lamkins left Friday for their home in Wichita, Kan., after being guests for a week in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Norman, Route 1, Box 59K, Jacksonville. Mrs. Lamkins is a niece of Mrs. Newman.

The group attended rehearsals of the Oregon Shakespearean festival plays, made numerous side trips in the valley and also traveled to the coast visiting at Crescent City, Calif., and Humburg Mountain State park.
