Color Guard Ceremony Held for Newlyweds

At the reception which followed the marriage of Miss Lois Ann Pike to Thayer Leroy Tarvin, friends of the bridegroom conducted a military honor guard ceremony. The wedding took place Friday, July 26, at 6 o'clock at the Women's Civic center, Ashland, with the Rev. B. J. Holland officiating. Approximately 35 guests were present.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy E. Pike, 2041 Andover drive, Medford, and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Jan Mead, Marcus, Iowa, and Thayer Y. Tarvin, Jacksonville.

Mrs. Ellen Augard was matron of honor and Steven A. Barraclough was best man for the bridegroom.

Dorien Brown, Brea, Calif., cousin of the bride, gave her in marriage. She wore a gown of silk brocade and carried a white Bible with a purple orchid.

Mrs. Augard was dressed in a geranium pink frock and her flowers were white roses. Wedding music was furnished by Mrs. Glenn Taylor and Everett Winter was soloist.

Pink and white gladioli decorated the room.

Steven Udell, a station-keeper of the United States Naval reserve, took charge of the color guard and members were Steven Barraclough, Dana S. Bowers, Leland Worth, Kenneth Paulson and James P. Martin. As the bride and bridegroom left the Civic center, the color guard formed an archway of rifles through which they walked.

The bridegroom, serving with the Navy, has been on duty at San Diego and is now in San Francisco for re-assignment. He is a radioman.

For the couple's wedding trip to Lake Tahoe, the bride wore a mint green suit. A graduate of Medford High school, she attended Millo academy, Millo, Ore., Walla college in Washington, Pacific Union college, Angwin, Calif., and Robertson School of Business, Medford. She is employed as a clerk at the Bureau of Land Management, Medford.

The bridegroom attended Marcus High school, Iowa, and Medford High school. The bride will reside at 505 Marie street, Medford.

Mrs. D. Kirkland West, wife of the pastor of First Presbyterian church, was one of the women who poured for the annual benefit tea which the Women's association of the church gave Tuesday afternoon at the home of Dr. and Mrs. B. Brandt Bartels, Oakwood drive. Mrs. West is pictured with Mrs. Bjarne Ravn. These annual benefit teas always draw a large attendance. Funds derived from the events go for medicine and drugs for missionary areas.

Sister Visits From Los Altos

Miss Sonja Untiedt arrived Friday from Los Altos, Calif., to visit for the week with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd R. Bishop, 2525 Argonne avenue.

Miss Untiedt will be a sophomore student at the University of California, Berkeley, this fall.

During her stay the group plans to attend the Oregon Shakespearean festival and the Peter Britt Gardens Music and Arts festival. A trip to Diamond lake was planned for today.

Center Activities Announced

Jerry Igo, Jacksonville, will show slides of trail camping trips he has conducted in Santiam pass and the Wallowa mountains for Arm Chair travelers in the Senior Activity center Monday afternoon, August 12. The narrative is accompanied by music.

Interested senior citizens are invited to attend the weekly programs and those in charge point out that no membership fee is made for use of the center and that one need not join an Activity center club to view the pictures.

Senior citizens are invited, however, to become members of the Rogue Valley Council on Aging which plans recreational outlets for retired persons and work on health, housing and educational needs.

The center will be open again this week for the four days of activities conducted there including the oil painting class, the bridge group and the orchestra. Painting class members are invited to take pictures which they exhibited in this week end's art show in Lithia park.

Newly Married Couple Makes Home in Eugene

Central Point - After a wedding trip to northern California and eastern Oregon, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Olsen are at home at 4730 Royal avenue, Eugene.

Mrs. Olsen is the former Velma L. Mayfield, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Mayfield, Route 1, Box 512-B, Central Point. Mr. and Mrs. Carl G. Olsen, Audubon, Ia., are the parents of the bridegroom, who has been residing at 475 East 12th street, Eugene.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Paul Kroon on Saturday, July 20, at 1 o'clock in the afternoon at the Community Bible church, Central Point.

The bride wore a dress of white organza over taffeta styled with a princess waistline and a short train. The bodice was trimmed with lace. Her bouquet was of white carnations and red roses in a cascade arrangement.

Attendants Wear Red

Mrs. Delbert Mayfield, sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor, and Miss Thora Seaver, Eugene, was the bridesmaid. They were dressed in flame red peau de sole dresses with full skirts and matching jackets. Their bouquets were of white carnations.

Best man was Delbert Mayfield, brother of the bride. Howard Young, Eugene, and Leland Lyon, brother-in-law of the bride, were ushers.

For the wedding the altar was decorated with red and white gladioli, and Mrs. Paul Kroon furnished the organ music.

At the reception given by the parents of the bride in the church parlor, and attended by some 75 guests, the Misses Mary and Susan Christensen, cousins of the bridegroom, served the cake and poured punch. Mrs. Joseph Dennis, Rogue River, aunt of the bride, poured coffee. At the guest book was a sister of the bride, Mrs. Leland D. Lyon. Helping at the gift table was Mrs. William F. Randolph III.

For their wedding trip the bride wore a sheer cotton dress with an embroidered bodice.

The bride, a graduate of Crater High school, attended the University of Oregon where she is employed as a secretary. Mr. Olsen was graduated from Audubon High school, Ia., and is employed by Orchard Auto Parts, Eugene.

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Dale Everson, Buena Park, Calif.

Ceremony Is Held In Garden

Shady Cove - In an evening ceremony held in the garden of the bride's parents, Mrs. JoAnn Cooper Hilton became the wife of Lloyd E. Dyer.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alford Cooper, Shady Cove. Mr. Dyer resides at 156 Vashti way, Medford, where the couple will be at home for two weeks before moving to San Diego, Calif.

Mr. Cooper gave his daughter in marriage at the 8 o'clock ceremony held Friday, August 2, and attended by some 40 guests. The minister at the rites was the Rev. Clayton Fields.

For her wedding the bride wore a pink silk organza dress and her flowers were pink gladioli.

Her maid of honor, Miss Nola Dyer, daughter of the bridegroom, was dressed in a pale pink lace frock, and her flowers were also pink gladioli.

Steve Dyer, the bridegroom's young son, was best man for his father, and Miss Lisa Hilton, daughter of the bride, was flower girl.

Arrangements of pink and white gladioli served as a background for the ceremony. Following the wedding ceremony a reception given by the bride's parents was held on the patio of the Cooper home.

For their wedding trip to Portland the bride wore a rose and white suit with white accessories.

Sacramento Guests Leave

Prospect - Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Lang and daughter, Maureen, Sacramento, Calif., were recent week end visitors of Mrs. Lang's parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Stone. They came to take home two of their daughters, the Misses Marlene and Marceene Lang, who had spent a month visiting their grandparents.
