Two Weddings Announced

The son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Potucek, 3870 O'Gara avenue, Medford were married in two recent ceremonies held within a day of each other.

Miss Cheryl Diane Potucek was married to Sammy Lee Hopkins Friday, August 2, at Las Vegas, Nev., and Miss Helen Louise Ruppel became the bride of Kenneth L. Potucek, Saturday, August 3 at Tucson, Ariz.

Potucek-Hopkins
At the Potucek-Hopkins ceremony, the Rev. John Meeker officiated at the rites which were held at the Wee Kirk of the Heather chapel. For the wedding, attended by her mother, the bride wore a white lace sheath dress with a short veil held by a crown. Her flowers were white carnations.

The new Mrs. Hopkins is a graduate of Medford High school, and is employed by Kadee Metal Products, Medford. Mr. Hopkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hopkins, 816 South Central street, Medford, is employed by J. C. Penney company. The couple will be at home at 1261 Spring street.

Ruppel-Potucek
The Ruppel-Potucek rites, held at the Good Shepherd Lutheran church, were attended by some 150 guests.

For the ceremony, the bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold J. Ruppel, Tucson, Ariz., was dressed in a silk organza and Chantilly lace gown. The lace basque bodice was designed with calla lily sleeves and a Sabrina neckline adorned with iridescent sequins and seed pearls. A lace motif and rose pouffs were detailed on the full organza skirt, which was styled with a chapel length train. Hand clipped Chantilly lace bordered the hemline.

Her fingertip length silk illusion veil was secured by a pearl crown, accented with crystal teardrops.

The bride's sister, Miss Emelie Ruppel, was maid of honor and the bridegroom's best man was Arthur Elkins, Arizona, formerly Medford, Ushers were James Ruppel, brother of the bride, and Kenneth Kaufman.

At the reception held in the church, the new Mrs. Hopkins assisted with the gifts.

A graduate of Catalina High school, Tucson, Ariz., the bride will be graduated from the School of Nursing at the Good Samaritan hospital, Phoenix, Ariz., this month.

The bridegroom, a graduate of Medford High school, is stationed at Luke Air Force base, Ariz., where he is an airman first class.

The couple who are presently residing at 2139 West Virginia avenue, Phoenix, Ariz., will leave in September for Germany where he will be on duty with the Air Force.

For her son's wedding, Mrs. Potucek was dressed in an ivory colored cotton knit dress with blue accessories. The bride's mother wore a blue pima cotton dress with white accessories. Both mothers wore white carnation corsages.

Tipping-Barrell Ceremony

News of interest in the valley is the marriage of Miss Dolores Carlene Barrell and Ervin Eugene Tipping, which was an event of August 3 in Eugene. The bride, a daughter of Mrs. Loude A. Barrell, Eugene, taught in Medford High school for the past three years.

The bridegroom, of Portland, is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Tipping, Webster City, Iowa. He was with the Pacific Power and Light company, Medford, before being transferred to Portland.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Ray J. Tuttle at 8 o'clock in the evening in the Friendly Street Church of God.

The bride was given in marriage by an uncle, Harry Ray, Kennewick, Wash. Her gown of Chantilly lace over satin was designed with chapel train. The scoop neckline was trimmed with mother-of-pearl sequins and a crown of pearlized orange blossoms held her butterfly veil. She carried a white orchid with stephanotis.

Mrs. George D. Warren, Myrtle Creek, was matron of honor for her sister, and another sister, Miss Marilyn Barrell, Eugene, and Miss Charlene Tipping, Webster City, a sister of the bridegroom, were the bridesmaids. They wore white cotton eyelet embroidered frocks over blue satin and their net hats were blue. They carried cascade bouquets of blue tinted carnations.

Missy White, Albuquerque, N. M., a niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl. Greg White, a nephew, was ring bearer.

Candlelighters were cousins of the bride, Walter Johnson, Eugene, and Walden Anderson, St. Helens. They also served as ushers with Mr. Warren, and Michael McIntyre, Portland.

Frank White, Albuquerque, served as best man for his brother-in-law.

White gladioli decorated the church and pew ends were marked with blue satin bows.

Mrs. Herber Porter, Eugene, was the organist and soloist was Everett Winter, Ashland.

Reception Held
The reception given by the bride's mother was held in the church social room. Some 300 guests attended the ceremony and reception.

The couple is on their wedding trip to the Oregon and California coast, and are to live after August 15 at 1370 Southeast Watson street, Beaverton, Ore.

For traveling the bride wore a light blue suit with royal blue accessories.

The bride attended the University of Oregon and will be employed by the Beaverton school district as a history teacher in the high school.

The bridegroom, who attended Arizona State college, is employed as a construction engineer for the power and light firm.

Blind Child Club Speaker

Shady Cove—When members of the Shady Cove-Trail Lions club were entertained by the group's auxiliary at dinner August 6 in Rogue River lodge, the speaker for the evening was Loretta McClearen, a student from the state school for the blind, Salem.

The student, who is sponsored by the auxiliary, was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. L. Rohwer and her grandmother, Mrs. L. E. Wimberly.

A film taken at the school showed how the blind children are trained and educated.

Mrs. Floyd Ehrheart and Mrs. Iola Porterfield were initiated into the auxiliary.

Californians At Summer Home
Wonder—Mr. and Mrs. John Sutton have arrived from San Diego, Calif., to spend some time at their summer home here.

Methodist Ceremony Weds Pair

Mrs. Margaret Pederson, Medford, became the bride of Boyd Wilson, Coos Bay, in an informal ceremony performed Sunday afternoon, August 4, at 2 o'clock in Clarence Meeker Memorial chapel of the Medford First Methodist church. The Rev. George Roseberry, pastor, read the rites.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her son, Roger Pederson, Las Vegas, Nev., wore a dress of beige brocade with fitted bodice and skirt with unpressed pleats, and a matching jacket. Her accessories were beige, and she wore a corsage of pink roses.

Only attendant was Mrs. Helen Apple, Redwood City, Calif., sister of the bride, who wore a sheath dress of aquamarine silk. Her accessories were beige and her corsage was of white carnations.

Best man was Jack Masterson, Coos Bay, and William Bradford, Coos Bay, the bridegroom's son-in-law, and Nolan Greenwood, Ashland, nephew of the bride, were ushers.

Thirty-five members of the families and close friends of the couple witnessed the wedding ceremony and attended the reception which followed in the church social hall. Mrs. Robert Larimer, the bride's sister-in-law, served the wedding cake, assisted by Mrs. William Bradford and Mrs. Roger Pederson. Miss Joan Wilson, daughter of the bridegroom, was in charge of the guest book, with Miss Janice Larimer, the bride's niece, assisting.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson will make their home at Coos Bay.

Talent Church Picnic Planned

Talent—The Ivan Olson family, Suncrest road, will be hosts for the August Fellowship dinner for members of the Talent Methodist church Friday, August 16.

The event will be held in the yard of the Olson home and all friends of the church are invited. Guests are to take a covered dish and table service.

With Parents

Ashland—Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Mickle and two children, Salem, are visiting with Mrs. Mickle's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Hess, 493 Siskiyou boulevard, and with her twin sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Schoonover, Medford.
