Freeman Beck, Bride Make Home in Medford

Ashland - Mr. and Mrs. Freeman N. Beck are living at 430 North Grape street, Apartment 1, Medford, following their wedding trip to the California and Oregon coast. The bride is the former Miss Carolyn Ann Farmer, daughter of Mrs. Vivian L. Farmer, 822 Siskiyou boulevard, Ashland, and Frank L. Farmer, Portland.

The bridegroom is a son of Mrs. Rubin Beck, Route 4, Box 442 B, Medford, and the late Mr. Beck.

The couple was married in a home ceremony read July 27 at 7 o'clock in the evening in the residence of the bride's mother, Norman Matteson, Gold Hill justice of the peace performed the rites, witnessed by about 45 guests.

Mrs. Thomas Williams, Medford, was the honor attendant and Edward Morgan, Griffin Creek, Medford, served as best man for his brother-in-law, Mickey Furl, Medford, a nephew of the bridegroom was usher.

Marvin Gulsinger, an uncle of the bride, gave her in marriage. She wore a ballerina length gown of Chantilly lace over satin and her elbow length tulle veil was held by a white orchid rose. The bride bouquet was of pink carnations and gladioli.

Mrs. Williams' gown was of white chiffon with blue and white floral print worn over taffeta. Her flowers were pink gladioli.

Pink and white gladioli with white chrysanthemums decorated the home.

The bride's mother chose a beige sheath dress and she wore a pink carnation corsage. The bridegroom's mother was dressed in a black and white striped suit and her corsage was of white carnations.

The reception followed at the Farmer home. Mrs. Gulsinger served the cake and Mrs. Morgan, a sister of the bridegroom poured the coffee. Miss Darlene Mitchell, a cousin of the bride, served the punch.

From out of town were Mrs. Fred Ruch, a sister of the bridegroom, with her daughters, Jennie, Nancy and Susan, all Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Beck and daughters, Carri and Tina, San Pablo, Calif.; Mr. Beck being a brother of the bridegroom; Miss Mitchell of Elkton, Ore., now a student at Southern Oregon college; Mrs. Cleo Linkhart, a cousin of the bride from Grants Pass; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hutton, aunt and uncle of the bride, and daughter, Phyllis, and Mr. Mrs. Harold Hutton, cousins of the bride, with their son, Dana, all Eugene; Mrs. Leona Jacobsen, Reserve, Mont., an aunt of the bride, and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Porcher and daughter, Lori, Central Point.

The bride was graduated in 1960 from Ashland High school and the bridegroom attended Phoenix High school. He is employed by the Elk Lumber company.

For traveling, the bride wore a pink sheath with white accessories.

Danish Singer Soloist For Shakespearean Event

Ashland - A capacity crowd in the Caesar room of the Mark Antony hotel Wednesday afternoon gave guest artist Anne Lise warm applause in her appearance on the second of the Oregon Shakespearean festival concerts.

The Danish soprano, who is in private life Mrs. Steven Anderson, wife of a Salem attorney, presented a group of three numbers, Grieg's "Spring," Smetana's lullaby from the opera "The Kiss," and "Go Way From My Window" by Niles. The selections afforded wide variety for the singer's versatile voice and changing moods. Her ease and radiant personality equalled her stirring depth of tone and range.
