Couple Now At Home In Yreka

Yreka—Mr. and Mrs. Terry Lee Leach, married recently in a ceremony at the home of the bride's parents, are making their home here. Mrs. Leach, the former Janeane Anne Jones, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Jones, Yreka, and Mr. Leach is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Leach, also Yreka.

The single-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Robert Carter. Baskets of pink gladioli formed a floral background for the wedding party. Only the immediate families attended.

The bride was given in marriage by her father.

The bride chose a street-length white sheath dress, styled with a portrait neckline edged in embroidered flowers, and short sleeves. A Juliet cap of flowers matching those on the dress held a brief veil of illusion net. Her corsage was a white orchid.

The bride's jewelry included a drop pearl necklace belonging to her sister, Felicia, and which was the "something borrowed."

Attending the bride as maid of honor was Miss Kathleen Engleman, Yreka, who wore a beige sheath dress with pink accessories and a corsage of pink gladioli.

Robert Sopp, Grenada, was best man.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Jones wore a yellow embroidered sheath dress and the bridegroom's mother chose an orchid afternoon dress. Both mothers wore corsages of gardenias.

Following the wedding refreshments were served.

The bride's table was decorated with pink and white carnations and white tapers in candelabra.

The young couple are making their home in Yreka.

The new Mrs. Leach will receive her diploma from Yreka High school next June. Her husband is a graduate of Yreka High school and he attended the College of the Siskiyous in Weed for one year.

Group Attends Ceremony Held In Harrisburg

A number of Medford residents were in Harrisburg, Ore., to attend the recent marriage of Miss Arvilla Edna Prom and Michael John Kockeler, in Our Lady of Victory Catholic church.

The bride's gown, made by her mother of imported lace over satin, was styled with brush train. A satin rose accented the waist and matching roses trimmed the full pleated skirt. Her illusion veil was held by a tiara of crystals and seed pearls and she wore a single strand of pearls, a gift from the bridegroom. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and gardenias.

Mrs. Stanley Schoen, of Arizona, a sister of the bride, was matron of honor and the Misses Sandra and Cheryl Prom, also sisters, were bridesmaids. With their pastel blue gowns they wore matching blue tiaras with veils and carried bouquets of Ester Reed daisies and stephanotis.

Gina Prom and Tamara Schoen, nieces of the bride, were flower girls and GarDel Prom, a nephew, was ring bearer.

Gary Nelson of Washington, a cousin of the bridegroom was best man. Ushers were Floyd Goracke and Vervyle Prom.

Among those who assisted at the reception held in the Harrisburg City hall were Miss Beverly Gebhard, Mrs. David Gardner and Miss Hilde Prom, all Medford.

The couple made their wedding trip to the coast and British Columbia. They will live at 145 River road, Junction City.

The bride will be a senior in education at the University of Oregon this fall and the bridegroom is employed by Hult Lumber company.

When washing children's shoe-laces, string them through the button-holes of a garment and tie the ends. They'll get as clean as the other laundry and not get lost.

Medford School Class Holds 20-Year Reunion

More than 100 members and guests of the 1943 graduating class of Medford High school attended a 20-year reunion of the class held recently at North's Chuck Wagon. Robert F. Kyle was general chairman of arrangements, and was also master of ceremonies.

Mrs. Saburo Aisawa (Mona Takao), Minneapolis, Minn., was given a prize for coming the longest distance to attend the event. Dr. Robert Pittenger, Portland, received a prize for being the father of the most children, and Mrs. L. A. Johnson, the former Agnes Drummond, for being the first grandparent.

A prize was offered for the person having the "queerest" profession and this was given Robert Young, husband of the former Betty Lue Reich, because "he works for the government." It was brought out at this time that Richard Stuart is now a nuclear physicist and is employed at Livermore, Calif.

Memorial Conducted
A memorial ceremony was conducted in honor of class members who are no longer living. The latest addition to this list is Major Gene Rae.

The class numbered 208 members, and several died during World War II. Because of the war, some were unable to finish high school. Others were graduated on the basis of education while in service.

Robert Davis, now of Grants Pass, was class president.

Two Medford High school faculty members, De Vere Taylor and Robert Stedman, and their wives, were guests for the reunion.
