

Underwater Photography...

■ TAKEN ANY GOOD underwater shots lately? Too tricky? Not according to Dennis Hallinan, chief photographer at Cypress Gardens, Fla., who achieves such photos without entering the water! ■ Recently, he armed his son Timmy, 8, with a new, easy-to-operate instant-loading camera, and the two headed for an underground passage beneath the Florida wonderland's pool. ■ While two obliging models, Betty Jackson and Jack Helseth, showed their diving skills, father and son stood before a 10-foot window and clicked away. (See cover for one of Dad's dramatic photos.) ■ Timmy, heeding Dad's advice as to distance and holding his camera steady, soon showed marks of the old man. During one shooting sequence, while Hallinan was concentrating on the models, Timmy snapped his dad. ■ He had learned rule No. 1 effectively: you can get some of your best pictures when the subject is not aware he's "on camera."

It's a Snap!
