

On the Air By ELEANOR WIESE

This must be old-troupers-on-parade week on TV. From the vaults where dusty specials are stored, the networks have unearthed a Phil Silver-Polly Bergen musical variety show, a Milton Berle-Jack Benny-Lena Horne comedy hour, and a Bing Crosby-Bob Hope-Edie Adams vacation special.

On Thursday international entertainer Maurice Chevalier goes it alone as does a grand old man of another theater — Douglas MacArthur.

Following up this parade of talent is a parade of beauty from Long Beach, California — the "International Beauty Spectacular," claimed to be a new look in beauty contests, "coupling the beauty theme with elements of pageantry, ballet, drama and the Broadway revue . . . reminiscent of George White and Flo Ziegfeld."

One hesitates to even hazard a guess as to what that might turn out to be.

FRONTIERS OF FAITH, 10:30 a.m. Sunday KMED-TV. Father Gregory Baum, professor of theology at St. Michael's College, University of Toronto, discusses the Second Vatican Council with editor James O'Gara.

TWENTIETH CENTURY, 8 p.m. Sunday KBES-TV. "Crisis at Suez." Walter Cronkite narrates this report of the critical days in 1956 when Britain and France fought Egypt to regain control of the Suez Canal.

MEET THE PRESS, 6 p.m. Sunday KMED-TV. Sen. Richard B. Russell (D-Ga.), leader in the opposition to President Kennedy's civil rights program and chairman of the Senate Armed Services committee, is interviewed.

DAVID BRINKLEY'S JOURNAL, 6:30 p.m. Sunday KMED-TV. The art of speech making in the U.S. and the South American country of Paraguay are featured.

SHOW OF THE WEEK, 10 p.m. Sunday KMED-TV. In "Two Faces of Treason" an American GI impersonates a Communist spy, which leads to murder and treason. Larry Blyden, Lloyd Nolan, James Daly and Martha Scott star.

CALENDAR, 9 a.m. Monday KBES-TV. Beginning a week-long exploration of American journalism's virtues and flaws, leading editors discuss why certain newspapers stand out so far above others.

FOCAL POINT, 9:30 a.m. Monday KMED-TV. Guest will be Mrs. Gary Demarest, whose athlete husband is participating in the Christian Athletic Conference on the Southern Oregon College campus this week. She will describe the purposes of the conference.

YOUTH POWER, 7:30 p.m. Monday KMED-TV. Anita Townsend, Medford High student, will tell about her experiences attending the Shakespearean Apprentice Workshop in Ashland this summer.

COMEDY HOUR, 9 p.m. Monday KBES-TV. Phil Silvers teams with Polly Bergen in an hour of sketches, songs and dances.

MILTON BERLE SHOW, 9:30 p.m. Monday KMED-TV. Jack Benny, Laurence Harvey and Lena Horne join Uncle Miltie for fun and song.

CALENDAR, 9 a.m. Tuesday KBES-TV. The problems and pressures of news reporting and editorial writing under deadlines are examined by reporters and editorial writers from New York newspapers.

MYSTERY THEATRE, 9 p.m. Wednesday KMED-TV. Five persons defy warnings and enter the labyrinth of the legendary man-eating Minotaur on the island of Crete. In "The Dark Labyrinth," adapted from a novel by Lawrence Sanders, Patrick O'Neal stars.

BING CROSBY SHOW, 10 p.m. Wednesday KMED-TV. Bob Hope, Edie Adams, and Gary Crosby head guest list of a special built around the theme of America at play.

CALENDAR, 9 a.m. Thursday KBES-TV. Political columnists discuss but do not disclose their inside sources of information and explain the necessity for getting such information out quickly.

WORLD OF MAURICE CHEVALIER, 10 p.m. Thursday KMED-TV. A TV portrait of the famous French entertainer.

CALENDAR, 9 a.m. Friday KBES-TV. Negro newspapers and their influence on the communities they serve are examined by a trio of executives from the Negro press.

BIOGRAPHY, 9:30 p.m. Friday KBES-TV. Douglas MacArthur's life is pictured from his early days at West Point. Mike Wallace is narrator.

INTERNATIONAL BEAUTY SPECTACULAR, 10 p.m. Friday KMED-TV. Beauty contest finals with music by Meredith Wilson and emcee Lorne Greene.

ALFRED HITCHCOCK, 10 p.m. Friday KBES-TV. Emmy-award-winner Peter Falk and Dina Merrill star in "Bonfire," a story of an ambitious itinerant man of the gospel.

Jorgensen's URGE YOU TO SUPPORT— KANS for KIDS NIGHT HILLAH TEMPLE'S ANNUAL CANNED FOOD DRIVE TONIGHT

Benefit Shrine Hospital for Crippled Children

Starting at 7:00 o'clock tonight a task force of Boy Scouts will collect canned foods for the Shrine Hospital in Portland. This door-to-door canvas of Medford and Ashland homes is going to mean a lot to the many youngsters in the fine Portland hospital maintained by Shriners. Every can collected goes directly to that hospital in a truck caravan that will leave Medford after the drive and join with others in Oregon to deliver the cans to Portland. Public support of Hillah Temple's "Kans for Kids" drive is really important. The Shriners' Hospitals for Crippled Children throughout North America and Hawaii treat children of every race, color and creed. Here is YOUR opportunity to help this great humanitarian program!

For Fine Dairy Products . . . Always Ask for "Jorgensen's"

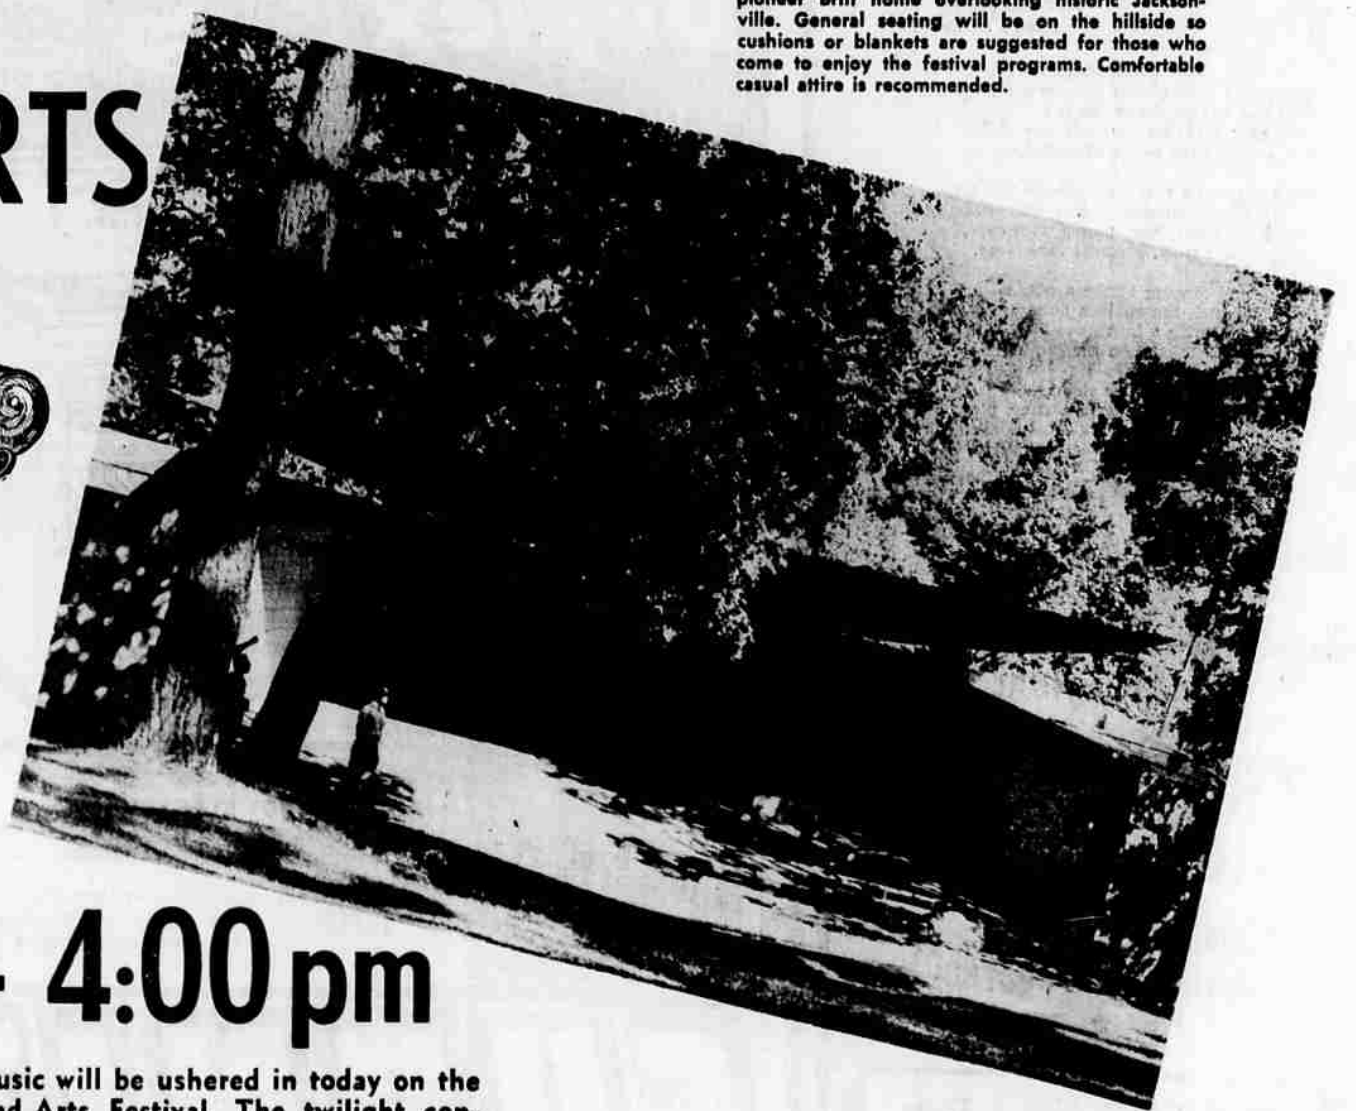

Britt Gardens MUSIC and ARTS FESTIVAL

JOHN TRUDEAU
Musical Director and Conductor

Opens
Today - 4:00 pm

Two weeks of delightful music will be ushered in today on the first Britt Gardens Music and Arts Festival. The twilight concerts will begin at 4:00 p.m. and, during the series, frequent 4:00 p.m. twilight and 8:00 p.m. starlight concerts will be featured. It is hoped that the Britt Gardens Music and Arts Festival will receive generous support throughout the Rogue River Valley. The success of this undertaking will assure the continuation of this program in years to come, that will enrich the cultural life of all who live here.

Here is the beautiful setting for the first Britt Music and Arts Festival in the shaded gardens of the pioneer Britt home overlooking historic Jacksonville. General seating will be on the hillside so cushions or blankets are suggested for those who come to enjoy the festival programs. Comfortable casual attire is recommended.

Festival Pictures Displayed at Firm

A collection of Shakespearean prints from pictures taken by the official Oregon Shakespearean Festival photographer is on display at the Jackson County Federal Savings and Loan association, 2 East Main st., Medford.

Dwaine E. Smith has received top honors in the National Professional Photography association for his photography of actors in Shakespearean parts. A number of the prints were selected as part of a traveling loan collection for exhibit.

This is his sixth year as official festival photographer. He will display his collection of prints at the Greenwich Village Art show in Ashland's Luthia park this week end.

Scouts Start Tour Of Eastern States

The seven members of the Order of the Arrow from Medford met their leader, Phil Robins, in Portland, boarded the Union Pacific City of Roses train and are now on a 15-day tour of the east preliminary to attending the national conference at the University of Illinois.

In Washington, D.C., the group will have an interview with Sen. Maurine Neuberger. Colonial Virginia, Philadelphia and New York City will be visited.

The contingent is composed of Melvin Taylor, lodge chief; Dan Kadin, treasurer; Jerry Hobbs, secretary; Jim Savard, committee chairman, and David Doty, committee chairman, all of Medford; and John Wood, vice chief of the Big Pines district, and Jim Wood, both of Ashland. They will represent the Mazama lodge, Order of the Arrow, Boy Scouts of America.

GENERAL ADMISSION — ADULTS, afternoon, $1.50; evenings, $2.00; YOUTHS (6-16) afternoon, 50c; evenings, $1.00

Published in cooperation with the Britt Gardens Music and Arts Festival Committee by the . . .

MEDFORD MAIL TRIBUNE