Radio Free Europe Broadcasts Reports On Racial Turmoil

By AL KUETTNER UPI Correspondent Radio Free Europe is a privately-supported organization that transmits Western "truth" behind the Iron Curtain into Czechoslovakia, Hungary, Poland, Bulgaria and Romania.

In the course of attempting to answer Communist attacks with what it calls an "unvarnished picture" of the racial situation in the U.S. South, RFE sent two newsmen into Dixie for three weeks. Their interviews and RFE "Commentary" are being used for four half-hour programs broadcast from two transmitters in West Germany and one in Portugal. A striking note about the complete 500 page transcript is that it skips reactions that are more conservative than middle-of-the-road. The agency's news chief, Horst Pezall, a native of Berlin, Germany, explains this way: "Extremist Groups Bypassed"

Members of extremist groups, such as the Black Muslims and the White Citizens Council, were not interviewed. The people of the countries we reach were getting plenty of the extremist point of view from the Communist propagandists."

Here are samples of how the racial situation was reported by Radio Free Europe: RFE Commentary: "There is a very real sense of optimism among Negro leaders and complete consensus among whites... that the racial barriers that exist today are certain to fall."

Gov. Terry Sanford of North Carolina: "What is needed is a new emancipation proclamation from the bigotry of the past... the people of North Carolina are realizing it is simply not right and moral to deprive people of a chance to make the most of their abilities."

Aalborg, Denmark—(UPI)—A tourist, who thought that the zoo's tigress looked "tame and peaceful," suffered a badly mauled hand when he offered the animal a cigarette Sunday. "Our tigress is absolutely not peaceful. And furthermore she dislikes tobacco," a zoo keeper said later.

Quotes From the News

By UNITED PRESS INTERNATIONAL Washington—Sen. Richard B. Medford Ranked High As Retail Market

On the basis of its economic strength, as exhibited in the past year, Medford is ranked high as a retail market. Personal income and per family spending proved to be at a higher level locally than in most sections of the United States. The city's market standing, relative to that of other communities, is indicated in a new, copyrighted "Survey of Buying Power," released by Sales Management. It shows that business activity reached new heights in the year, with local stores chalking up sales totaling $75,079,000, topping the previous year's $69,555,000. Amount Was Greater The amount was much greater than might have been anticipated on the basis of population alone. From that standpoint, retail business locally should have produced only 0.138 per cent of the national volume. Instead, however, it accounted for .0319 per cent. The advance was not limited to any particular retail lines, although the automobile business was a star performer. People spent more money for soft goods, such as food and clothing, as well as for durable goods, like air conditioners, household appliances and refrigerators. The gains were achieved despite warnings of a probable business slump and despite the stock market break in the Springs. To these the public paid little heed. Their confidence was high and they displayed it in the way they spent their cash. Better incomes was the reason. They made possible the large-scale spending. Net Earnings Locally The survey shows that net earnings locally, after deducting personal taxes, came to $55,392,000, an increase over the prior year's $52,862,000. It was equal to $6,295 per household, an arithmetical average obtained by dividing the local income by the number of households.

The relative standing of one community to another, with respect to purchasing ability and business vitality is shown through an "index of sales production," which considers population, income and spending. Medford is given an index rating of 231, which is 131 per cent higher than the national average.
