Klamath Sheriff Faces Contempt

Klamath Falls - (UPI) - Klamath County Sheriff Murray Britton will have to answer contempt of court charges.

Circuit Judge Don H. Sanders ruled Friday against a defense motion challenging the charge.

The charge is in connection with the April trial of Bobby Huitt at Klamath Falls on a charge of assault with a dangerous weapon.

Britton is accused of speaking to a juror about the case, which then was declared a mistrial. Huitt was tried again last week and found innocent.
