STUART STARS; BOSOX WHIP YANKEES

Snub Fires Player To Top Effort

By MILTON RICHMAN
 UPI Sports Writer

Smoldering Dick Stuart is so burned up that he's just liable to foul up the whole World Series.

He's carrying on a whacky one man crusade to annihilate the Yankees all because their manager, Ralph Houk, passed him up for the American league All-Star team last month.

"I'm gonna try to beat their brains out every time I play against them," Stuart proclaimed.

"Let him try," Houk snuffed.

Stuart not only tried Wednesday but succeeded handsomely as he pounded out six hits and drove in as many runs to help the Red Sox sweep a day-night, doubleheader from the Yankees, 14-7 and 5-4.

The big outspoken Boston first baseman hit Houk where it hurt the most.

With the Yanks leading 5-2 in the opener, Stuart singled off the left field wall with the bases full to drive in the lead runs during a seven-run fifth inning explosion.

He then blasted a two-run

McCovey Boosts SF

Cincinnati—UPI—The San Francisco Giants, rejuvenated by the return to the lineup of Willie McCovey, were within three games of the first place Los Angeles Dodgers today.

It took the Giants 10 innings but they finally captured a 7-6 decision from Cincinnati Wednesday night to creep closer to the Dodgers, who lost to Milwaukee, Red-hot St. Louis also won its game, and remained but one game back of San Francisco.

McCovey had been out of the lineup serving a two-day suspension after a wild beef with an umpire Sunday in Philadelphia. The Giants lost both contests, and the Dodgers dropped their only game.

Wednesday night, Willie returned and supplied the extra oomph that got the Giants past the tough Redlegs.

McCovey blasted his 34th homer in the seventh with one aboard and added two more hits to the Giants' 15-hit attack.

Other Standouts
 Willie Mays likewise had a big night as he whacked his 29th homer with a mate on in the sixth and also had two other hits.

Other Giant standouts in the hero-filled contest were the slumping pair of Jimmy Davenport and Felipe Alou. Both came off the bench to deliver in the clutch.

Davenport, who entered the ball game in the sixth inning, opened the 10th by doubling off Red reliever Billy Henry. One out later, Alou pinch hit for winning pitcher Don Larsen and singled to right to score Davenport.

The Giants used seven pitchers as Cincinnati collected 17 hits but stranded 11 batters. Young Frank Linzy, making his first major league start, was bombed to the showers in the third inning.

Both managers shot the wad as far as player replacements were concerned. The Giants used 20 men and the Reds 18.

Vada Pinson slammed a three run homer for the Reds while Frank Robinson had four for five.

The Giants hoped to close the gap a little more and also hold off onrushing St. Louis in another game here tonight. Jack Sanford of the Giants was to face the Reds Joe Nuxhall.

GIANTS WIN, DODGERS BEATEN AS NL CHASE APPEARS RERUN

By MILTON RICHMAN
 UPI Sports Writer

Oh no, not again!
 It sure looks like a rerun of last year's race, with the fluttering first-place Dodgers showing the same signs of folding and the surging second-place Giants moving closer to the top each day.

That was the pattern not only a year ago but Wednesday night, too, when the Giants moved within three games of the top with a 7-6 victory over the Reds in 10 innings while the Braves beat the Dodgers, 5-3.

Slump-ridden Jim Davenport and Felipe Alou came off the bench to spark the victory for the Giants, who now have won 16 of their last 22 games. Exactly a year ago they had won 15 of 22.

Davenport, who along with Alou had been benched recently for not hitting, entered the game in the sixth inning and opened the 10th with a double off Cincinnati reliever Bill Henry.

One out later, Alou pinch hit for winning pitcher Don Larsen and singled to right field to score Davenport. Rookie right-hander Frank Linzy made his first major league start for San Francisco.

Chance Feels He'll Have Good Second Half

By JOHN DART
 Los Angeles—UPI—Happy Dean Chance, after pitching an "easy" game Wednesday night, is looking forward to a good second half of the season and a "couple more shutouts."

Angel manager Bill Rigney said Chance "was pitching easy" in Los Angeles' 2-0 win over the Washington Senators. "It was the first time he hasn't walked a man in a complete game this season," Rigney noted.

The 6-foot-3 righthander only made 97 pitches, striking out only two batters, but distributing five Senators hits in separate innings.

Confident
 Wilmer Dean, the 22-year-old ex-farmboy from Wooster, Ohio, spoke confidently about his personal outlook for the remainder of the season. "I told Rigney I was a second-half pitcher," said Chance in the clubhouse. "I figure I ought to throw a couple more shutouts."

Wednesday night's was his second of the season and he combined on another blanking of the Senators earlier this season with Julio Navarro.

However, Chance felt he hurled better against the New York Yankees in his last time out when he lost a shutout and the game in the ninth 2-1.

"I guess the competition Wednesday (the last place Senators) was not as tough," he added, then commented further—"I guess you're not supposed to beat the Yankees."

Reliever Johnny Klippstein blanked the Cubs on two hits over the final 6 1/2 innings of the first game as the Phillies capitalized on three errors to beat Larry Jackson despite his 29th homer with one on in the sixth and Willie McCovey socked his 34th with a man aboard in the seventh.

Vada Pinson's three-run homer in the bottom of the seventh gave the Reds the lead again but the Giants tied the score in the eighth.

Hank Aaron's grand slam homer in the seventh inning dealt the Dodgers their third straight loss. His wallop came off Don Drysdale, who went down to his 13th defeat against 15 victories.

In contrast to the Giants, the Dodgers have won only nine of their last 22 games.

Cards Also Gain
 The third-place Cardinals also took advantage of the Dodgers' setback to move within four games of first place with a 3-2 victory over the Colts. The Phillies beat the Cubs twice, 7-2 and 9-3, to move into a virtual tie for fifth place, and the Mets downed the Pirates, 4-2.

Bob Gibson struck out 10 Colt batters and walked off with his 13th victory for the Cardinals when Bill White broke a 2-all tie by rapping his 21st homer in the seventh inning off loser Ken Johnson. Gibson and Johnson (6-16) each gave up eight hits.

4 University of Georgia Officials Testify That Butts' Character 'Bad'

By CHARLES S. TAYLOR Jr.
 Atlanta—UPI—Two university presidents, one of whom already has said that he considers Butts "bad," are scheduled to testify today in Butts' $10 million libel suit against the Saturday Evening Post.

The college presidents are Dr. O. C. Aderhold, president of the University of Georgia where Butts carved out a career of nearly 25 years as coach or athletic director, and Dr. Frank Rose, president of the University of Alabama.

Aderhold and three members of Georgia's athletic board testified Wednesday as rebuttal witnesses for the Post in the trial which is now well into its second week. The Post claimed that Butts conspired to rig the 1962 Georgia-Alabama football game.

All four, under questioning by Post attorney Welborn Cody, testified that Butts' character was "bad." One of them, Harold Hackman, said he wouldn't believe Butts under oath.

Gambler's Story Awaited
 Cody said he will continue with rebuttal witnesses today in the federal court suit and that he will introduce the long-awaited deposition by Frank Schoeny, a Chicago beer distributor who once told a Senate racket committee that he placed bets on horse racing and football games.

Cody told the 12 business-

Cecil Ira Successful In Debut

United Press International
 Wednesday night was pitcher's night in the Northwest league, as one tossed a brilliant one-hitter, another got the deciding hit in a key victory and a third made his first professional baseball start a success.

Righthander Ron Tompkins allowed only a third-inning single and got hefty support from his Lewiston teammates to shutout Tri-City 12-0.

Tompkins struck out 11 and walked three in picking up his 10th victory.

Hud Gelein, a fair hitter for a pitcher, got a pinchhit double to drive in two runs to give Yakima a 11-10 come-over behind victory over Wenatchee.

Yakima, the league leader, was trailing 10-6 going into the bottom of the ninth. Two runs scored on a pair of doubles, then one more came in on a bases loaded walk and the stage was set for Gelein's hit, a double off the rightfield fence.

The other pitcher to share the glory was Cecil Ira, of Eugene. He pitched a five-hit, 3-2 victory over Salem for his first victory in professional baseball.

The victory enabled Eugene to move out of the league cellar.
