

Manley-Christensen Rites Held

Miss Judy Jean Christensen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Christensen, 183 Black Oak drive, became the bride of Thomas Earl Manley, Reno, Nev., in a double-ring ceremony held August 11 at First Presbyterian church.

Dr. D. Kirkland West officiated at the four o'clock afternoon rites attended by 250 relatives and friends. Mr. and Mrs. Earl M. Manley, parents of the bride, came from Reno for the wedding.

The bride wore a floor length gown of white tulle with a fitted bodice and overskirt. The neckline, elbow length sleeves, waistline and skirt front were accented with appliques of peau d'ange lace. Her veil of imported silk illusion was held by a pillbox hat trimmed with seed pearls and she carried a bouquet of white butterfly roses and miniature carnations. Her jewelry was a single pearl and diamond pendant, a gift of the bridegroom. Mr. Christensen escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage.

Sister Is Attendant

Miss Jill Christensen was honor attendant for her sister. Other attendants were Mrs. Daniel Christensen, Eugene, her sister-in-law, and Miss Jacklyn Creager, Miss Linda Glaholt, Berkeley, Calif., and Miss Peggy Smith, Piedmont, Calif., all Gamma Phi Beta sorority sisters of the bride.

They wore frocks of blue chiffon over taffeta and carried bouquets of white gladioli and miniature carnations. Their veils and shoes matched their dresses.

John King, Boise, Idaho, Phi Gamma Delta fraternity brother of the bridegroom, served as best man. Seating the guests were Daniel Christensen, Eugene, brother of the bride, Peter Rasmussen and Terry O'Sullivan and Dwight Davis, Portola Valley, Calif., both fraternity brothers of the bridegroom.

Miss Mira Frohnmayer was soloist and playing the organ wedding music was Mrs. Dudley Peterson. Baskets of white gladioli and tall candelabra decorated the church.

Mothers Wear Silk
For her daughter's wedding and the reception which followed at the Christensen home garden, Mrs. Christensen chose a turquoise silk crepe sheath dress with matching accessories. Her flowers were pink baby roses. Mrs. Manley wore a pink silk sheath dress with matching accessories and her corsage was of rose colored baby roses.

Blue delphinium, gladioli and white miniature carnations decorated the Christensen home for the reception. Mrs. Monty Penwell and Miss Roberta Willet cut and served the wedding cake. Miss Barbara Oyle, Berkeley, Calif., and Miss Susan Brennan, sorority sisters of the bride, and the Misses Christine and Ellen Sleeter presided at the punch bowls. Miss Martha Sanborn, Medford and Portland, another sorority sister, was in charge of the guest book. Mrs. Robert Sleeter greeted the guests.

The couple traveled to Lake Tahoe on their wedding trip, the bride wearing a gold silk sheath dress with matching mohair jacket and beige accessories. They are making their home at Hunter Lake drive, Number 32, Reno, where the bridegroom is a sales representative for Crown Zellerbach company.

Bride Will Teach
The bride is a graduate of Medford High school and the University of Oregon. She will teach elementary school in the Washoe County school district this fall. Mr. Manley is a graduate of Medford High school and the University of Oregon.

The evening prior to the wedding a rehearsal dinner was held in the patio garden of the Robert Sleeter home with Mr. and Mrs. Manley as cohosts.

Among the out of town guests attending the wedding and reception were Mr. and Mrs. Elton Jackson, Winchester, Ore.; Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Niles, Eugene; Calvin Dean, Kenneth Jensen and Darrell Miller, all Hoopa, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Jess Arnold, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cockerleas, Vancouver, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. William Russell and Mr. and Mrs. George Hinsdale, Roseburg, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Baum and children, Salem.

Other Phi Gamma Delta fraternity brothers of the bridegroom who attended were Tim Bonner, Gregory Rasmussen, James Radomacher, Jack Campbell, Milton Olmitt, Glen Tripplett and James Davis, all Portland, John Garling, Hillsborough, Calif.; Ray Jubitz, San Francisco, Ed Latourette, Oregon City.
