State Group Meets Here

Members of the State Council of Hospital Auxiliaries board of directors met at Rogue Valley hospital Thursday for the regular quarterly session. Principal business on the agenda was formulation of plans for the annual convention of the council to be held in Portland in October.

Official hostess for the meeting here was Mrs. Paul J. Selby, vice president of the state group, and a member of the Rogue Valley auxiliary. The women were greeted before the session by Charles I. Gustafson, administrator of the local hospital, and at the conclusion of the morning meeting luncheon was served to the group in the board and staff room. Inspection tours of the hospital building were made with Mrs. Glen T. Bessonette and Mrs. Keith Gordon acting as guides.

Attending from out of town were Mrs. Ralph Johnson, Portland, council president; Mrs. Moyt Kerr, Portland, acting past president; Mrs. Morris Crothers, Salem, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Dorothy Walker, Salem, director of volunteers at Salem Memorial hospital; and Mrs. Fred Buell, Springfield, and Mrs. George Curtis, Grants Pass, both area representatives.

The women arrived in Medford Wednesday, and attended either the Shakespeare play in Ashland or the Britt Music festival in Jacksonville that evening.

Osborn-Eads Ceremony

Mr. and Mrs. James Jordan Osborn are traveling in California following their wedding August 10 at the First Church of God. The bride is the former Sharon Eads, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Eads, 356 South Grove-land avenue. Mr. Osborn is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert J. Osborn, 410 Newtown street.

The Rev. Wilton Martin officiated at the double ring ceremony assisted by the Rev. T. O. Satterfield, maternal grandfather of the bride. Some 200 relatives and friends attended the seven o'clock evening rites.

White chrysanthemums and gladioli decorated the church and white satin bows marked the pew ends. Mrs. A. L. Clay was soloist and Mrs. Edward McCullough was organist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a ballerina length frock fashioned with Chantilly lace bodice and skirt yoke and full tulle skirt over satin. The fitted bodice had a sweetheart neckline and cap sleeves. Her elbow length veil was held by a pearl cap and she carried stephanotis encircling white orchids. Her gloves were of matching lace and her single strand of pearls was a gift from Mrs. Susan Eads, her grandmother.

Mrs. Michael Reich was matron of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Elizabeth Goodson, Central Point, and Miss Carol Dyche. They wore powder blue nylon frocks and carried bouquets of white gladiolus, blue leaves and net. Flower girl was Susan McCullough and candlelighters were Christine Johnston, Klamath Falls, cousin of the bride, and Karen Martin.

Gary A. Myers served as best man and seating the guests were Tom and Michael Ginn, cousins of the bride; Dan Osborn, brother of the bridegroom, and John Eads Jr., brother of the bride. Mrs. Eads chose a powder blue brocade dress with matching accessories for her daughter's wedding and the reception which followed at Rogue Valley Country club. She wore her white phalaenopsis orchid on her purse. Mrs. Osborn wore a beige lace sheath dress with gold orchid corsage.

White pompon chrysanthemums, white carnations and ivy decorated the country club for the reception. Mrs. James Richeson cut and served the wedding cake with a silver knife loaned by her. Mrs. Charles L. Johnston, Klamath Falls, cousin of the bride, poured coffee and Mrs. Tom Ginn, aunt of the bride, presided at the punch bowl.

For traveling to San Francisco and Lake Tahoe the bride wore a white three piece Italian knit suit with white accessories. The newlyweds will make their home on King street following their return August 20.

The bride attended Medford High school and Southern Oregon college. She is a graduate of Medford School of Beauty and is a beautician at Rose Beauty center. Mr. Osborn attended Medford schools and Southern Oregon college. He is employed in the circulation department of the Medford Mail Tribune.

Among the out of town guests attending the wedding and reception were Mrs. Verne Boyd, Eugene, great aunt of the bride; Mrs. Eleanor Unrath, Roseburg, cousin of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Johnston, Klamath Falls, and daughters; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Viebrock, Portland, and sons; Mr. and Mrs. David Osborn, Albany, cousins of the bridegroom, and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Duggan, Vallejo, Calif., and daughters, uncle, aunt and cousins of the bridegroom.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Kuschel and children, Sandy, Davey and Kathy, of Williston, N. D., are spending part of their vacation at the home of his brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Kuschel, 706 Pennsylvania ave.

Ashland-Week end visitors at the Floyd C. Vogel home, 1315 Oregon street, were Mrs. Vogel's daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Robert DeVoe and three sons, Eugene, who were on their way to the Oregon coast for a vacation.

Rites Held in New Church

First marriage ceremony to be held in the new First Baptist church of Medford was that of Miss Betty Carol Young and Leland Bryce Peters. The double-ring rites took place Saturday, August 10, at 8 o'clock in the evening with the Rev. Bernard E. Andrews officiating. About 250 guests attended.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clair Young, 727 Alder street, Medford, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Christianson, Old Stage road, Jacksonville.

Baskets of tangerine gladioli with traces of greenery decorated the front of the church. Lighted candles and white bows marked the pew ends.

Mrs. Albert Gandt of Medford played the organ and accompanied her daughter, Julia Gandt, who sang.

Mr. Young escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. The bride wore a floor length gown of bridal satin which she had fashioned herself. The fitted bodice was designed with a scoop neckline outlined with lace appliques and the elbow length sleeves were ornamented with seed pearls. The pleated skirt was also accented with clusters of lace appliques and seed pearls and flowed into a long train in the back with a butterfly bow at the waist.

Carries Gladioli The bride also had made her elbow-length veil of nylon illusion which was held in place by a crown of pearls. Her wedding bouquet was of small white gladioli in cascade design.

Miss Sue Nelson, was maid of honor and the Misses Sandra and Lynda Grimes were bridesmaids. Mrs. George Chambers was bridesmatron. They all wore mint green dresses with scoop necklines and pleated skirts. Their hats were green rosebuds with white net petals and their shoes were of matching green.

The maid of honor carried bronze and white carnations and the bridesmaids and matron carried bronze carnations.

Candlelighters were Sally Jo Maharry and Nadine Grimes. They wore identical frosted tangerine dresses accented at the waist with a bow and their wristlets were of white carnations.

The flower girls, Kathy and Cindy Shreeve, Medford, wore dresses of frosted tangerine with scoop necklines. They carried baskets of rose petals which they scattered before the bride.

William Hall, Medford, served as best man. Grooms-men were Larry Ryerson, Central Point, George Chambers, Medford, and Jack Young, brother of the bride. Larry Ryerson and George Chambers served as ushers.

The bride's mother wore a turquoise and beige sheath with turquoise and black accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a lavender three piece suit with lavender hat and white accessories. Their corsages were of white roses.

Reception In Hall The reception, given by the bride's parents, was held in the new Fellowship hall of the church. Tangerine colored gladioli and greenery decorated the reception tables.

Mrs. Thomas Hensley, Corvallis, and Miss Mavis Peters, sister of the bridegroom from Tempe, Ariz., cut and served the wedding cake. Miss Mary de Place and Mrs. Donald Tinseth poured the punch. Miss Sandra Bates, cousin of the bride, was at the guest book.
