

Edgerton-Callan Rites Are Held in Australia

A wedding held August 3 in Cooma, Australia, is of interest here since the bride, Jacqueline Anne Callan, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Callan. Mr. Callan, until last November, was project engineer for the Bureau of Reclamation's Talent division, Rogue River basin project and is now senior advisor to the Snowy Mountains authority, a large hydroelectric project in Australia.

Miss Callan became the bride of Charles Robert Edgerton, son of Mrs. C. H. Edgerton, Bartlesville, Okla., and the late Dr. Edgerton, in a ceremony held at St. Paul's church.

Both the bride and bridegroom flew the 7,000 miles to Australia for their wedding as the bride, employed in San Francisco, wanted her parents to be at the ceremony.

The Rev. F. C. Hart, assisted by the Rev. Charles Wheeler, officiated at the ceremony. The church was decorated with white and pale pink flowers and pink net and white satin bows marked the pew ends. Howard Dann was organist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white frock of Italian raw silk in afternoon length fashioned with scoop neckline and elbow length sleeves. A pleated silk edging accented the hemline and sleeves. Her tulle veil was held by a pillbox of matching silk and she carried white camellias and pink and white hyacinths on a white prayer book.

Miss Elizabeth Schwabe, San Francisco, Calif., attended the bride. She wore a sheath frock in emerald green peau de sole with matching flat bow in her hair. She carried a bouquet of white camellias.

Best man was Paul Michael Callan, brother of the bride. Seating the guests were John Hunter and John Barkley. Mother Wears Blue

For her daughter's wedding and reception which followed at the Coach House Motor Inn, Mrs. Callan wore a dark blue lace gown with matching accessories.

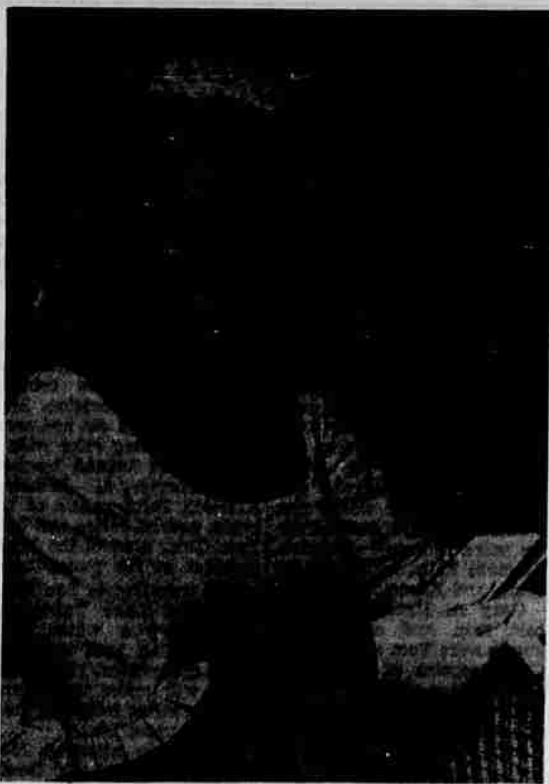

At the reception, toasts to the newlyweds were proposed by Sir William Hudson. Peter Collins was master of ceremonies. Among telegrams and cables read was one from Lt. James Callan, brother of the bride, who is in the U.S. Navy.

For traveling on their wedding trip the bride wore a three piece knit suit in toast and white. They flew to Fiji and Tahiti prior to leaving for their home in Las Vegas, Nev.

The Friday evening prior to the wedding a rehearsal dinner was held at the United Motel attended by members of the bridal party and close friends.

Prior to the wedding Miss Callan, Mr. Edgerton and Miss Schwabe were honored at a cocktail party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Dann. Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Paulson were cohosts.

The Callan family lived in the Rogue valley for seven years prior to moving to Australia. The bride and bridegroom both attended the University of Oregon.

Mrs. Charles Robert Edgerton

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Franklin Wyatt (Simonson-Walker photo)

Ronald Franklin Wyatts Make Home in California

At home in Willow Creek, Calif., after their wedding at the First Methodist church, Medford, Tuesday, August 6, are Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Franklin Wyatt.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. George Roseberry at 7 o'clock in the evening with approximately 30 guests present.

Mrs. Wyatt, the former Karol Maureen Schultz, is the daughter of Mrs. Miriam Schultz, 1519 Bryant street, Medford, and Mr. Wyatt, Hoopa, Calif., is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Wyatt.

For her wedding the bride was dressed in a floor length gown of Chantilly lace and tulle over taffeta. Styled with a fitted bodice, long sleeves, and scoop neckline, the gown was embroidered with iridescent sequins. The short front peplum was trimmed with a band of sequin-embroidered lace, with lace banding repeated across the front of the bouffant skirt as an edging on the tulle ruffles. Sequins decorated the hemline.

Her elbow length bouffant veil of hand rolled silk illusion was held by a queen's crown of pearl scallops centered with rhinestones. Her cascade bouquet was of tiny white carnations and pink rosebuds.

Attendant in Blue
Miss Linda Hay, maid of honor, wore a ballerina length dress of aquamarine nylon organza over taffeta designed with short sleeves, a draped scoop neckline and full skirt. The back Watteau panel of contrasting deep turquoise was held by a fabric rose. Her bouffant face veil was held by a single silk organza rose, and she carried a nosegay of white carnations and pink rosebuds.

Michael Phillips, Brookings, was best man for the bridegroom.

Giving the bride in marriage was Donald Bagby, and Brent Starks was usher.

For the ceremony the church was decorated with pink and white gladioli, and organ music was furnished by Mrs. Leslie Boardman.

At the reception in the church, given by the bride's mother, Mrs. Gordon Falk and Miss Mary Andrews cut and served the cake. Miss Jo Ann Holmes poured punch and Miss Elaine Wilson was the attendant at the guest book.

For the wedding and reception, the bride's mother wore a sheath dress of willow green peau de twille with matching velvet hat and accessories. Corsages of white carnations were worn by Mrs. Schultz and the bridegroom's grandmother, Mrs. Emma McAllister.

In addition to Mrs. McAllister, other guests from Grants Pass were Mrs. Robert Dixon and Mrs. William Ray, aunts of the bridegroom.

The bride attended Medford High school and Southern Oregon college. A graduate of Grants Pass High school, Mr. Wyatt also attended Southern Oregon college. He is employed with Van Vleet Lumber company.

For the wedding trip to San Francisco, the bride was dressed in a pink suit with pink accessories.

Ceremony Held in Ashland

Ashland—An event of Saturday, August 10 was the wedding of Miss Dawn Marie Nelson to Gary Keith Watts. The double ring ceremony was performed by the pastor, R. L. Cornwall, at the Assembly of God church at 8 o'clock in the evening.

The bride, who has been making her home in Livermore, Calif., is the daughter of Mrs. Cleone K. Flesher, 115 Sherman street, Ashland, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Watts, 83 Morton street, Ashland.

For her wedding the bride wore a floor length white brocade gown with a bell skirt and an organza jacket. Her short veil was held by a pearl crown and she carried white carnations with yellow baby rosebuds. She was escorted to the altar and given in marriage by H. F. Anderson of Livermore.

Her matron of honor, Mrs. Don Braley, Butte Falls, wore a street length dress of orange brocade, with a bell skirt and three-quarter length sleeves and matching shoes.

The bridesmaids, Miss Sandra Watts, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Marjorie Samples wore dresses of pale green and pale yellow, respectively, with matching shoes.

All of the attendants' dresses were of a design similar to that of the bride's dress. They carried nosegays of shaded orange carnations and lilies of the valley. Their pearl choker necklaces were gifts from the bride.

Miss Becky Twedell was flower girl and Jeff Friend, Livermore, Calif., was ring bearer.

Janene and Sharlene Senecal, San Lorenzo, Calif., were candlelighters. They wore yellow gowns, also of a similar pattern to the bride's dress. Richard Schulz was best man for the bridegroom. Rick Flesher, El Paso, Tex., brother of the bride, Steven Watts, brother of the bridegroom, and Arlin Anderson, Livermore, were ushers.

For the wedding the church was decorated as a fall garden with green shrubbery and yellow and shaded orange dahlias. Tapers were in the wedding colors of green, yellow and orange.

Music was furnished by Mrs. Richard Schulz, organist, Mrs. Maynard Wion, pianist, and Miss Carolyn Hamilton, soloist.

For her daughter's wedding, the bride's mother wore a burnt orange silk sheath with orange and gold accessories. The bridegroom's mother was dressed in a teal blue ensemble with white accessories. Both wore white carnation corsages.

Reception Held
The Women's Civic clubhouse was decorated for the reception with musical notes and flowers in orange shades.

Mrs. Richard Thompson, Talent, cut and served the cake, Mrs. Karl Oeser, poured coffee, and Mrs. Gilbert Elder served punch. Hostesses were Mrs. Marc Conger, Miss Evelyn Michael, and Miss Hamilton.

Miss Judith Cornwall was in charge of the guest book, and Miss Jeanette Elder and Miss Lynette Cornwall assisted with the gifts.

Guests included Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Anderson, Mrs. Joan Friend, Delores Sorensen and Mark Neill, all Livermore; Mrs. Agnes Furch, and Mrs. Lillian Edwards, great aunts of the bride, Medford; Mr. and Mrs. Ben Furch, grandparents of the bride, Talent; Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Hargreaves, Sonoma, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Hill, Monmouth, Ore., grandparents of the bridegroom; Norman Samples, Lakeview, Ore.; Mrs. Roy Jackson and Mrs. Joe Jackson, Yakima, Wash., and Mrs. Charles Senecal, San Lorenzo, Calif.

The bride, a graduate of Ashland High school, has attended Prairie Bible Institute, Three Hills, Alberta, Canada, and Bethany Bible college, Santa Cruz, Calif. She was employed by the City of Livermore as a deputy clerk.

Mr. Watts will be a senior at Southern Oregon college, and a participant in the Oregon Program for prospective teachers.

For their wedding trip to the coast and the San Francisco bay area, the bride wore a dark brown sheath dress with a bone plaid raw silk duster. Her accessories were dark brown and rust colored.

The couple will be home August 29 at 171 Granite street, Ashland.

Visitors

O'Brien—Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Liles and family, Fresno, Calif., were recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tomas Adams. The two families were neighbors in Fresno.

Grandson Guest In Ashland Home

Ashland—Six-year-old Doyle Dillon is visiting with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Dillon, 847 Garden way. He made the flight from Seattle alone and next week will go to Corvallis with his grandparents to meet and return home with his father and mother.

Storage ($3 Minimum) (in and out privileges.)
Remodeling
Repairing
Cleaning
Glazing

FURS BY Samuel 779-1949

MASTER FURRIERS
IN THE MEDFORD SHOPPING CENTER

Forty Attend Bon Voyage Party in Yreka

Yreka — Mrs. Harriett Davidson, Fort Jones, was honored at a luncheon at the Colony Dining room in Yreka, prior to her leaving on a trip to Europe with the Sacramento Shrine group.

Over 40 friends of the honoree from throughout the county gathered Monday noon for a "bon voyage" party, which was organized by her sisters-in-law, Mrs. Robert Jenott, Mrs. Dennis Mulloy and Mrs. Herbert Sleep. A special guest was Mrs. Don Chase, Medford, who is a sister of Mrs. Davidson. Mrs. Jenott and Mrs. Mulloy, accompanied by their mother, Mrs. Fanny Davidson, plan to accompany Mrs. Davidson to Sacramento to see her off on her voyage.

The group will fly from Sacramento to Los Angeles, thence over the North Pole, landing in Copenhagen, Denmark. Other countries on the itinerary are Sweden, Norway, Holland, France and England. The return is to be September 9.

The friends at the party presented Mrs. Davidson a sack of money. Favours at the tables were in the form of a card inscribed with a farewell message written in the various languages of the countries to be visited, with a tiny replica of a TVA transport plane attached. An arrangement of red peonies and white snapdragons was used for a centerpiece.

White Stag
Young Casuals

FREE PARKING
in Two Large Park and Shop Lots Near Our Back Entrance.

name dropper
When it comes to coordinates, she names White Stag. And no wonder... White Stag "Changeabouts" mix and match... and multiply her fashion looks! She wears the "Khyber" suit, featuring a stitched-down pleated skirt, 8-14, 14.98, in Crompton corduroy, with the turtle-necked cotton knit "Singapore" top, S-M-L, 3.98. All washable, of course! From the new "Changeabouts" collection.

Parker Woods
SPECIALTY SHOP
220 East Main

SUNDAY FAMILY DINNER

PLATTER OF PAN FRIED CHICKEN
Creamed Whipped Potatoes
Bowl of Vegetables
Country Gravy
Salad • Coffee • Dessert

SERVED FROM 12 P.M. to 9 P.M.
Adults $2 • Children $1

Medford's Finest
Restaurant & Lounge

Brave BULL
1206 N. Riverside — Phone 773-5474
"WHERE EVERYBODY MEETS"

SWEATER NEWS

Witty knits, pretty prints, marvelous fabrics in imaginative designs! Wear sweaters with sweaters, wear blouses with sweaters, wear dickeys with sweaters. It's the layered look!

THE FAVORED GOLF CARDIGAN takes on a fresh new look with its deep V-neck line. Of luxurious mohair & wool tone in a soufle knit. Perfectly layered when you choose a dickey.

12<sup>98</sup>

THE LOOK FOR FALL '63. Orlon® acrylic shaker knit cardigan with face flattering over-sized collar. Its only adornment... and it's great... is its hand crocheted buttons!

11<sup>98</sup>

MOHAIR SWEATERING... very European. Imported from Italy, this hand knit mohair, wool and Nylon pullover sweater has an exciting diamond patterned front.

14<sup>98</sup>

La Pointe's
IT'S A WONDERFUL STORE